Anglican Cathedrals in Modern Life Leslie J Francis, 2015-09-30 In the past decade cathedrals have blossomed as signs of growth for the Anglican Church in England and Wales They have opened their doors to growing congregations to widening participation at the major Christian festivals and to visitors pilgrims and tourists on a changing quest for religious experience and for spiritual fulfilment In this thought provoking volume Leslie J Francis research group presents ten focused empirical studies that illuminate what is really going on in these cathedrals

Life with Durham Cathedral Arran J. Calvert, 2023-01-13 An ethnographic account of daily life in Durham Cathedral this book examines the processes of negotiation and change between a community and their cathedral Focusing on the role of sound light time space building and dwelling the author argues that Durham Cathedral is much more than just a backdrop to everyday life Rather through the constant processes of negotiation and change it is a fully engaged participant in the daily lives of those who use Durham Cathedral As such it is not a place in which life happens but a place with which life happens

Outlines of the History of Architecture Rexford Newcomb, 1923

Religion in Cathedrals Simon Coleman, Marion Bowman, 2021-12-26 This book explores cathedrals past and present as spaces for religious but also wider cultural practices Contributors from history anthropology sociology and religious studies trace major continuities and shifts in the location of cathedrals within religious civic urban and economic landscapes of pre and post Reformation Christianity While much of the focus is on England other European and global contexts are referenced as authors explore ways in which cathedrals have been and remain distinctive spaces of adjacent ritual political and social activity capable of taking on lives of their own as sites of worship pilgrimage and governance A major theme of the book is that of replication pointing to the ways in which cathedrals echo each other materially and ritually in processes of mutual borrowing and competition while a cathedral can also provide a reference point for smaller constituencies of religious practice such as a diocese or parish As this volume demonstrates the contemporary resurgence of interest in pilgrimage the impact of Caminoisation and the re presentation of cathedrals as cultural heritage further add to the attractions popularity and complexities of cathedrals in the 21st century The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Religion Shop Window, Flagship, Common Ground Judith A. Muskett, 2019-11-30 How are cathedrals and churches understood Are they shop windows through which to gaze at the riches on offer within the Christian life Are they flagships of the Spirit Are they both sacred spaces and community utilities Shop window flagship common ground views the rich ministry and innovative mission of cathedrals through the novel lens of metaphor and it offers comparative insights on cathedrals and cathedral like churches Located in the emerging international field of cathedral studies the book explores the usage and inferences of a range of metaphors including shop windows of the Church of England flagships of the Spirit beacons of the Christian faith magnets and sacred space common ground This volume also shows how such metaphors can stimulate different types of research about the function of cathedral and church buildings With a Foreword by Professor Grace Davie the book suggests that cathedrals and cathedral like churches may play a role within vicarious religion theory It will provide a thought provoking critique for practitioners and a valuable contribution for scholars of cathedral studies congregational studies and ecclesiology History of the Albany Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception 1852-1927 Marie Christine Sevier, 1927 A History of Wakefield Cathedral with a Description of the Eastern Extension and an Account of Its Consecration and Octave F.
