The Little Magazine Others and the Renovation of Modern

American Poetry Suzanne W. Churchill, 2017-03-02 Suzanne Churchill's well researched and superbly crafted study is the first book length treatment of Others an important and neglected little magazine that served as a laboratory for modernist poetic experimentation In discussions of influential poets such as Mina Loy Marianne Moore and William Carlos Williams whose careers Others helped launch Churchill counters the notion of Modernism as aesthetically self isolating and socially disengaged Rather she traces a correspondence between formal innovation and social change in American modernist poetry and argues that this dimension of modernist formalism is lost when poems are studied in isolation Others provides a framework for reassessing the scope and significance of modernist formalism The little magazine not only anchors modernist poetry in a social context but also leads to new insight into major modernist texts Churchill's commitment to her subject's broad cultural contexts makes her book important for students and teachers of Modernism as well as for those working in the fields of American poetry and poetics gender studies queer theory periodical studies and cultural studies

An American

Poet in Paris Charles L. Robertson, 2001 An American Poet in Paris is a literary biography of Pauline Avery Crawford a remarkable American expatriate who wrote for the Paris edition of the New York Herald Tribune in the 1930s and 1940s Interspersed in the biography are numerous quotations from Crawford's poetry and letters along with an account of her fascinating life in Paris a life that included the turbulent years before during and after World War II Crawford was reared in the frontier town of Fort Collins Colorado went east to attend college and then became a faculty wife Her early happiness was marred by tragedy when her husband committed suicide leaving her with two small boys and her sister whom she had joined in Paris died of tuberculosis Crawford contracted acute articular rheumatism and had to spend two long painful years in the American Hospital in Neuilly Despite the loss of a leg this widow with two young children carved out a new life for herself in the pages of the Paris Herald Tribune Therein she recorded the events of those dramatic pre and postwar years in both poetry and prose As a constant contributor to the Mailbag the column of letters to the editor Crawford became a celebrity in the Anglo American community even though she advocated American intervention in the war in a newspaper whose readership was largely isolationist In the postwar years the editor asked her to create a column that he dubbed Our Times in Rhyme In this column which she wrote until shortly before her death in 1952 she provided an amusing sometimes sarcastic and often cheering commentary on world events and life in Paris leavened with some of the more serious sonnets she had always loved to write Well informed and well written An American Poet in Paris throws light on a particular time and place as seen through the eyes of one extraordinary woman in an unusual and pioneering American newspaper Crawford's poetry and wit still sparkle the controversies in which she indulged remain of interest and her detailed description of life in occupied Paris is especially compelling
