Hill,2006-05-25 Family and work are major integrally related dimensions of social life which affect the well being and success of family members As social institutions family and work are also avenues where social inequality may be understood as a major element in the distribution of social cultural and economic resources and sites where inequality is perpetuated negotiated and contested In this book editors Durr and Hill focus on African Americans navigating the terrain of race work and family and examining persistent barriers to equality and ways in which Blacks have sought to become an integral part of the American economy Ethnic American Literature Dean J. federal policies affirming tribal Self Determination American Indian Ethnic Renewal offers a general theory of ethnic resurgence which stresses both structure and agency the role of politics and the importance of collective and individual action in understanding how ethnic groups revitalize and reinvent themselves Scholars and students of American Indians social movements and activism and recent United States history as well as the general reader interested in Native American life will all find this an engaging and informative work Beginning Ethnic American Literatures Helena Grice,2001-06-23 This text is designed to introduce students not only to ethnic American writers but also to the cultural contexts and literary traditions in which their work is situated Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S.
