Mark S. Micale

The Lost Steps Les Pas Perdus French Modernist Library:

The Lost Steps André Breton, 1996-01-01 The Lost Steps Les Pas perdus is André Breton's first collection of critical and polemical essays. Composed between 1917 and 1923, these pieces trace his evolution during the years when he was emerging as a central figure in French and European intellectual life. They chronicle his tumultuous passage through the Dada movement, proclaim his explosive views on Modernism and its heroes, and herald the emergence of Surrealism itself. Along the way, we are given Breton's serious commentaries on his Modernist predecessors Guillaume Apollinaire and Alfred Jarry, followed by his not so serious Dada manifestoes. Also included are portraits of Marcel Duchamp, Francis Picabia, and Breton's mysterious friend Jacques Vaché, as well as a crisis-by-crisis account of his dealing with Dada's leader Tristan Tzara. Finally, Breton offers a first glimpse of Surrealism, the movement that was forever after identified with his name and that stands as a defining force in twentieth-century aesthetics. Mark Polizzotti, editorial director of David R. Godine Publisher, is the author of Revolution of the Mind: The Life of André Breton. He is also the translator of Jean Echenoz's Double Jeopardy (Nebraska, 1994) and Cherokee (Nebraska, 1994) and of André Breton's Conversations: The Autobiography of Surrealism. Mary Ann Caws is Distinguished Professor of French at Hunter College and at the City University of New York. Her most recent work is Robert Motherwell: What Art Holds. She is the translator of André Breton's Mad Love (Nebraska, 1987) and Communicating Vessels (Nebraska, 1990).

Dada Culture, 2016-08-01 How Dada is to break its cultural accommodation and containment today necessitates thinking the historical instances through revised application of critical and theoretical models. The volume Dada Culture: Critical Texts on the Avant Garde moves precisely by this motive, bringing together writings which insist upon the continuity of the early twentieth-century moment now at the start of the twenty-first. Engaging the complex and contradictory nature of Dada strategies instanced in the linguistic gaming and performativity of the movement's initial formation and subsequently isolating the specific from the general with essays focusing on Ball, Tzara, Serner, Hausmann, Dix, Heartfield, Schwitters, Baader, Cravan, and the exemplary Duchamp, the political philosophy of the avant-garde is brought to bear upon our own contemporary struggle through critical theory to comprehend the cultural usefulness, relevance, validity, and effective or otherwise oppositionality of Dada's infamous anti-stance. The volume is presented in sections that progressively point towards the expanding complexity of the contemporary engagement with Dada, as what is often exhaustive historical data is forced to rethink, realign, and reconfigure itself in response to the analytical rigour and exercise of later twentieth-century, anarcho-thought, the testing and cultural placement of thoughts upon the virtual, and the eventual implications for the once blissfully unproblematic idea of expression. From the opening provocative proposition that historically Dada may have been the falsest of all false paths, the volume rounds to dispute such condemnation as demarcation, continues not only of Dada's embeddedness in western culture but more precisely of the location of Dada culture. Ten critical essays by Cornelius Partsch, John Wall, T. J. Demos, Anna Schaffner, Martin I. Gaughan, Curt Germundson, Stephen C. Foster, Dafydd Jones, Joel

Freeman and David Cunningham are supplemented by the critical bibliography prepared by Timothy Shipe which documents the past decade of Dada scholarship and in so doing provides a valuable resource for all those engaged in Dada studies today

The Mind of Modernism Mark S. Micale, 2004 This vanguard collection of original and in depth essays explores the intricate interplay of the aesthetic and psychological domains during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and considers the reasons why a common Modernist project took shape when and in the circumstances that it did These changes occurred precisely when the distinctively modern disciplines of psychology psychiatry and psychoanalysis established their scientific foundations and achieved the forms in which we largely know them today This volume examines the dense web of connections joining the aesthetic and psychological realms in the modern era charting historically the emergence of the ongoing modern discussion surrounding such issues as identity formation sexuality and the unconscious The contributors form a distinguished and diversified group of scholars who write about a wide range of cultural fields including philosophy the novel and poetry drama dance film and photography as well as medicine psychology and the occult sciences American Book Publishing Record ,1996 Modern French Poets Jean-François Leroux, 2002 Essays on French poets of the twentieth century discusses collective creations open ended storytelling Cubism surrealism avant garde poetry symbolism as well as reflections on the various creative processes employed by these French poets The Select Circulating Library ,1838 Choice ,1997 Waldie's Select Circulating Library ,1838 The American Architect and Building News ,1885 American Architect ,1885
