The Guelph Seminars On Sustainable Development:

The Guelph Seminars on Sustainable Development Stewart Garvie Hilts, Anthony M. Fuller, University of Guelph. University School of Rural Planning and Development, 1990      The Sustainability of Rural Systems I.R. Bowler, C.R. Bryant, C. Cocklin, 2013-06-29 Economy society and environment comprise the three main dimensions of sustainable development but too often they are considered separately This book by comparison examines the interaction of the three dimensions in the context of rural systems embracing a wide range of topics including globalisation and reregulation in sustainable food production conservation and sustainability the development of sustainable rural communities and sustainable rural urban interaction An international team of geographers drawn from the International Geographical Union's Commission on The Sustainability of Rural Systems summarises the basis of unsustainable rural development in these topics the remedial policies being pursued and their own evaluations of the policies Rather than deal just with generalisations their analyses are illustrated by detailed case studies drawn from a variety of rural systems in both developed and developing countries      The Social Organization of Policy Lauren E. Eastwood, 2013-11-05 This book provides a specific case study based upon direct research with UN processes which enables the reader to situate larger theoretical arguments regarding civil society globalization and sustainable development within the context of the actual activities of practitioners working within the UN forest policy making arena      Knowledge, Experience, and Ruling Marie Campbell, Ann Manicom, 1995-12-15 Dorothy Smith is considered one of the most original sociologists and theorists of our time and her writings have attracted much attention in Europe and the US as well as in Canada This collection of original essays written by scholars who worked or studied with Smith exemplifies Smith's approach to social analysis Each author takes an empirical approach Some analyse texts the maps and documents of land use planning photographs an influential history of British India reports of a task force on battered women some draw on interviews with clerical workers with Japanese corporate wives while others an AIDS activist a teacher of adult literacy a social worker reflect on personal experiences In each case we are introduced to specific themes in Smith's approach The essays put Smith's method to work in diverse ways and in the process offer intriguing insights into their topics This tribute to Smith's empowering contribution as a thinker and teacher reveals how empirical studies can illuminate concepts usually presented in the abstract As the first compilation of applications of Smith's methodology this is a landmark work in the developing field of the social organization of knowledge      Recovering Canada John Borrows, 2017-06-22 Canada is covered by a system of law and governance that largely obscures and ignores the presence of pre-existing Indigenous regimes Indigenous law however has continuing relevance for both Aboriginal peoples and the Canadian state In his in-depth examination of the continued existence and application of Indigenous legal values John Borrows suggests how First Nations laws could be applied by Canadian courts and tempers this by pointing out the many difficulties that would occur if the courts attempted to follow such an approach By contrasting and comparing

Aboriginal stories and Canadian case law and interweaving political commentary Borrows argues that there is a better way to constitute Aboriginal Crown relations in Canada He suggests that the application of Indigenous legal perspectives to a broad spectrum of issues that confront us as humans will help Canada recover from its colonial past and help Indigenous people recover their country Borrows concludes by demonstrating how Indigenous peoples law could be more fully and consciously integrated with Canadian law to produce a society where two world views can co exist and a different vision of the Canadian constitution and citizenship can be created      Medici Women Jennifer Sumner,Gabrielle Langdon,2006-01-01

our way to a workshop in Venice we had the opportunity of appreciating the different types of landscapes and the complex patchwork of urban areas agriculture forests rivers and lakes that can be seen from an aircraft The complexity of this puzzle and the complex task of managing its evolution became the topic of conversation for the rest of the flight It also became the topic of this book Land use management and multicriteria analysis offer countless opportunities for mutual reinforcement These two fields have developed largely independently but a trend towards the exploration of their synergies is now emerging This is clear from the recent literature on land use management spatial analysis and spatial planning which increasingly includes references to multicriteria methodologies and decision analysis At the same time a growing share of multicriteria applications now focus on environmental and land use issues This book includes contributions from authors coming from a variety of disciplines and backgrounds All together they highlight current issues in multicriteria analysis and land use management from theoretical methodological and practical perspectives
