The Musical Record ,1895 There's Only One Sauzee Ted Brack,2011-10-06 When Alex McLeish persuaded European legend Franck Sauze to sign for Hibernian Football Club in February 1999 it was the club's biggest coup since the signing of George Best Many people questioned the Gallic Great's motivations afraid that he was merely coming to pick up his salary and quietly see out his distinguished career They could not have been more wrong From his very first game Franck Sauze embraced the Hibs culture and quickly won over the fans He proved that he was still a great footballer and helped to lead his new team from the mediocrity of the Scottish First Division back to the heights of the Scottish Premier League Sauze became club captain inspired his team mates scored many unforgettable goals took Hibs to a Scottish Cup Final and became a club legend An ill fated spell as the club's manager saw the end of Sauze's Hibernian career but he left the club as one of its best loved and most revered players Now Ted Brack takes fans behind the scenes to document the highs and lows of the days when Le God graced Easter Road With inside stories from directors managers players and supporters this is a must read book for Hibs fans of all ages who still treasure the memory of Franck Sauze Hibernian superstar

Orange Judd American Agriculturist ,1913 Innocents Abroad Jim Gamble,2010 Innocents Abroad is a memoir although the original purpose was to preserve for my children and grandchildren two Logs which described forced marches across Poland and Germany while I was a Prisoner of War during WW II I obtained two War Time Logs and filled them with day to day accounts of our forced march out of Stalag Luft III in Sagan Germany now Poland in January 1945 and later our march from Nurnberg to Moosberg Germany I discovered these logs in 2004 in my bookcase 60 years later They were written in pencil barely legible sometimes under dreadful weather conditions I decided to copy them before they became completely unreadable I have read many accounts of the forced walks prisoners made during the winter of 1945 I found them fascinating but most of them were written many years after the event As I read my logs I realized it is the only day by day account of the hardships encountered by the 12 000 prisoners Later when we walked out the Nurnberg the numbers swelled to over 100 000 I received considerable encouragement from the Secretary of the 467th Bomb Group Organization to enlarge the scope of the account to include a biographical account of my life leading up to my experiences as a POW and of my life following WW II I didn t become a member of the 467th Bomb Group Organization until they held a reunion in San Antonio Texas Since that time I have not missed any of the reunions At these events I have met many children who had a parent who served in the 467th Bomb Group They have expressed keen interest in reading this account since it may also parallel the experiences of one of their parents
