DJ's curiosity was racing. Surveying the room, DJ saw the evidence of a life well spent with tokens of travel and remembrances of special people and events. One special event was remembered in a very large painting with both men's families along with three other families and on a small table near the bed was the photograph that the painter had used as a guide. DJ asked about the painting and how all the people in it had become intertwined into one family. For the rest of the day, DJ listened intently to the story of how these two men who had been raised in different parts of the country and with very different financial backgrounds had overcome many obstacles, lived through the war, become friends, fought inner demons, and raised their families together all the time, treating everyone with respect and giving assistance to others as second nature.

The Little Blue Angel Barbara Pittman Steinkamp, 2018-07-24

Little Sally eagerly awaited the magical Christmas season. From her newspaper stand in the village, she watched the busy shoppers with their brightly colored packages. She wished for money to buy gifts for her family, but she and her father barely made enough money from newspaper sales to keep the family fed and clothed. She knew for certain she wouldn't be getting any toys for Christmas. But oh, how she loved the little angel doll in the toy store window.
