The story tells how each event, every interaction, and all the people we meet serve a purpose. On the last day of the Advanced Individual Training (AIT), Robert Trebor meets a handsome young soldier, Terrence Ecnerret, and instantly feels a strong connection. What was that connection, and why was it there? Both young men weren't able to figure it out. Was this their first and last meeting? Or were they destined to meet again in a situation that couldn't have crossed either of their minds? What will happen when fate will bring Terrence to Robert's town, and he meets a beautiful woman, Erica? This is the story of the cruel calamities of life, the games of fate, and everything in between.
