Reforming Memory Robert Vosloo, 2017-10-02 Although we should acknowledge the fragility of memory we should nevertheless affirm the remarkable ability of memory to reform and transform our identity Our memories and ways of remembering are however often marked by trauma and violence Memory therefore not merely reforms it too is in need of reformation redemption and transformation With this emphasis in mind Reforming Memory grapples with the question what a responsible engagement with the past entails also for Christians and churches associated with the Reformed tradition The history of Reformed churches in South Africa is one can argue a deeply divided and ambivalent one The same figures are heroes to some and villains to others historic events are deeply ambiguous and conflicting views surround different discourses Yet the histories and perhaps futures of these churches and traditions are inextricably interwoven Reforming Memory fundamentally combines an interest in the notion of memory with an interest in South African Reformed theology and history Central is the question how should we remember and represent the past responsibly The essays collected in this book engage in different ways with this question attending in the process to some episodes in the history of the Dutch Reformed Church some influential Reformed theologians and some important Reformed practices and confessional documents

Exploring African approaches to international law: Essays in honour of Kéba Mbaye Frans

Viljoen, Humphrey Sipalla , Foluso Adegalu, 2022-10-04 It is unfortunate that the idea that Africa contributes to international law and has always done so remains in 2022 largely a side note an auxiliary approach rather than something widely accepted and deeply entrenched It is cause for pause that this is also true in Africa itself Exploring African approaches to international law Essays in honour of K ba Mbaye is a volume of essays that aims to contribute to a larger effort of imagining what possible approaches to international law Africa has adopted in the decades since the 1960s It also recognises the legacy of the great Senegalese jurist K ba Mbaye Edited by Frans Viljoen Humphrey Sipalla and Foluso Adegalu the volume is divided into five broad thematic parts and comprises eleven chapters It covers the following themes K ba Mbaye in African approaches to international law international legal theory international human rights law international environmental and criminal law and teaching of international law This publication finds its origins in the 2017 Roundtable on African approaches to international law held at the Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria The explorations at the Roundtable on the concept of an African approach to international law were taken further at the K ba Mbaye Conference on African approaches to international law held at the Senate Hall University of Pretoria in December 2018 This conference brought together around 80 students academics and members of civil society to address the many questions left unanswered by the death of Judge Mbaye arguably Africa s greatest international law jurist of his generation It provided a forum to continue discussions on African approaches to international human rights law building on but rethinking and vernacularising the Third World Approaches to International Law TWAIL approach The contributions to this publication flow from papers presented at the conference However the reflections in the book extend beyond K ba Mbaye as central figure The result is a broad treatment of various aspects of African approaches to international law by thirteen authors and co authors covering a wide range of generational geographic and thematic backgrounds and perspectives
