South Asian Experience With Growth:

South Asian Economic Development in the Era of Global Turbulence Moazzem Hossain, Eliyathamby A.

Selvanathan, Maneka Jaysinghe, Saroja Selvanathan, Rajat Kathuria, 2025-03-28 South Asia's developing nations have been enjoying moderate to high growth over the past decade before the global pandemic of 2020 began. This new edition provides an up-to-date guide to the growing markets in South Asia in the post-COVID-19 period. It offers an analysis of the changes and consequences of high sustainable growth, investigating what has been achieved in the region over the last 2001-2023 from a macroeconomic viewpoint, identifying new challenges to 2030 and the end of the UNSDGs period. Part I of the textbook presents an analysis of how South Asia is rated against Southeast and East Asia in recent decades in economic and social terms. Part II focuses on South Asia's economic development over 2000 and the early 2020s. It demonstrates that globalization enhanced global trade and that trade further increased the region's prosperity up to 2020. Part III identifies major governance issues that were responsible for South Asia's social and economic underperformance due to the COVID-19 pandemic. This new edition includes a new chapter about AI and South Asia in the future. The textbook advocates for a shift in focus from policy reform per se to the more challenging task of implementing institutional reform that will invigorate the capability of the political leadership to bring about rapid sustained and poverty-reducing growth in South Asia in the post-Covid era. The book also considers climate change and the environment and analyses the impact of these changes and developments on the economic health and social conditions in South Asia. The concluding chapter demonstrates current political unrest in three South Asian nations: Sri Lanka, Pakistan, and Bangladesh, termed the South Asian Spring. Offering an analysis of the changes and consequences of high sustainable growth in South Asia, this textbook will be useful for students and researchers in Development Economics, Business Economics, Development Studies, and Asian Studies.

Comparative Development Experiences of Sub-Saharan Africa and East Asia Ernest Aryeetey, 2017-11-01. Title first published in 2003. This comprehensive book focuses on the prevailing conditions in Asia and Africa under various macroeconomic and sectoral themes in order to provide in-depth explanations for the divergent development experiences of the two regions. Seeking to go further than the simple comparison of policies, the book carefully examines the institutional context for policy implementation within which growth and development have proceeded in the regions.

South Asian Economic Development Moazzem Hossain, Rajat Kathuria, 2009-12-10. South Asia's developing nations have been enjoying moderate to high growth over the past decade before the global recession began. This new edition provides an up-to-date guide to the growing markets in South Asia. It offers an analysis of the changes and consequences of high sustainable growth, investigating what has been achieved in the region during the last ten years from a macroeconomic viewpoint, identifying new challenges and clearly defining what has driven the boom. The first part of the textbook presents an analysis of how South Asia is rated against Southeast and East Asia in recent decades in economic and social terms. The second part of the text focuses on South Asia's economic development over 1990s and mid 2000s and the third and final part identifies those major governance issues which were responsible for South Asia's underperformance both socially and economically. It is widely recognised that globalisation enhanced global trade and that trade further increased the region's prosperity. Embracing the view that economists can no longer regard themselves as technocratic guardians of neutral policy advice, the book advocates for a shift in focus from policy reform per se to the more challenging task of implementing institutional reform that will invigorate the capability of the political leadership to bring about rapid sustained and poverty reducing growth in South Asia. The central task would be to re-direct the focus of governments in South Asia in order to ensure that the core functions of the state stable non-distortionary policy climate a secure foundation of law investment in basic education health and infrastructure protection of the vulnerable and adapting with the climate change are efficiently provided. At the same time the reform agenda must be sensitive to the goal of ensuring that durable democratic institutions traditions and values are preserved. This is a fundamental challenge but one that must be met in order to secure the emergence of a prosperous South Asia in the early part of the twenty first century. This textbook will be useful for students and researchers in Development Economics Business Economics Development Studies and Asian Studies.

Southeast Asia's Industrialization K. Jomo, 2001-10-02 Drawing on a wide range of expertise this volume addresses fundamental issues surrounding industrialization in Southeast Asia which are particularly pressing now that the region's miracle has been transformed into a debacle and the world seeks to draw lessons from the experience. The contributors address crucial questions such as How did Southeast Asia industrialize What have been the consequences of domination by foreign investment Did the region's resource wealth weaken its imperative to industrialize Why else has Southeast Asia's industrialization been inferior to the rest of the East Asian region Did the countries financial systems help industrialization Was this industrialization sustainable The volume includes detailed studies of Singapore Malaysia Thailand and Indonesia.

Efficiency and Volatility Dynamics of Bangladesh's Stock Market Md Abu Hasan, 2024-02-06 This book contributes to empirical finance by comprehensively analysing an emerging stock market employing modern econometric techniques. The most central and fascinating area of financial economics is probably the efficiency and volatility of the stock market however studies of emerging economies are relatively limited in this area. The rising importance of stock market globalisation has increased interest in emerging markets. This book leads the way for an emerging market perspective as it explores the issue of efficiency and volatility of the stock market in Bangladesh by employing both univariate and multivariate models using daily data of past share prices and monthly data of macroeconomic variables and the stock index respectively. This book offers an understanding of the crucial issues facing developing economies particularly emerging stock markets with similar characteristics to those of Bangladesh. This book undoubtedly provides valuable information for investors in the stock market graduate post graduate and PhD students in quantitative financial economics academics in economics and finance and policymakers in developing economies.

Development Issues Nurul Islam, 2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2003 Nurul Islam currently head of economic and social policy at the FAO UN and a key advisor at the International Food Policy Research Institute has been a renowned expert on economic development for the past thirty years Over that time he has researched and written about a wide range of economic development issues focussing mainly on policy For the first time ever his most important writings have been brought together in this volume reflecting not only Professor Islam's own views on particular issues but also providing a unique overview of the key debates and discussions taking place among academic economist and policy analysts over the past three decades The collection is divided into three main sections trade and aid development strategy and food security the section on food security being the most recent It discusses food security in a broad sense covering issues of availability and growth in food production access or entitlement of individuals or households to basic food and variability in food supplies and prices In the section on Development Strategy Professor Islam highlights how theoretical argument has veered away from organized development planning models which proved so important in the 1960s He questions the role of models and policies throughout the decades and following articles written in the 1970s or 80s he includes articles he has recently completed assessing the previous ones from his current perspective In the final section on Trade and Aid he follows the academic debate on trade and exchange rate policies in developing countries from the 1960s to the progress of the WTO forums of today This is a wide ranging and thought provoking volume No matter whether the subject in question was examined in the 1960s or currently Professor Islam provides a challenging and insightful analysis and even the earliest articles retain relevance and will be of continuing interest The Rise, the Fall, and the Recovery of Southeast Asia's

Minidragons David Hollingsworth, 2008-01-01 This book explores how a clear eyed set of policies can govern a country's wellbeing from an economic standpoint and the vision it takes to propel a country to new heights The author considers not just development but how development was undone by policies and actions that were not governed by a consistent long range vision Analytical Issues in Trade, Development and Finance Ambar Nath Ghosh, Asim K. Karmakar, 2014-07-08 The book's 30 chapters are divided into three sections international trade economic development macroeconomics and finance and focus on the frontier issues in each Section I addresses analytical issues relating to trade environment linkage capital accumulation for pollution abatement possibility of technology diffusion by multinational corporations nature of innovation inducing tariff protection effects of import restriction and child labour the links between exchange rate direction of trade and financial crisis the implications for India and global economic crisis financial institutions and global capital flows and balance of payments imbalances Section II consists of discussions on the causes of widespread poverty persisting in South Asia development dividend associated with peace in South Asia issues of well being and human development implications for endogenous growth through human capital accumulation on environmental quality and taxation the rationale for a labour supply schedule for the poor switching as an investment strategy the role of government and strategic interaction in the presence of information asymmetry government's role in controlling food inflation inter state variations in levels and growth of industry in India structural breaks in India's service sector development and the phenomenon of wasted votes in India's parliamentary elections Section III deals with the effectiveness of monetary policy in tackling economic crisis the effective demand model of corporate leverages and recession the empirical link between stock market development and economic growth in cross country experience in Asia an empirical verification of the McKinnon Shaw hypothesis for financial development in India the dynamics of the behaviour of the Indian stock market efficiency of non life insurance companies econometric study of the causal linkage between FDI and current account balance in India and the implications of contagious crises for the Indian economy Handbook on the Northeast and Southeast Asian Economies Anis Chowdhury, 2007-01-01 Provides a broad overview of economic and social developments in the countries covered Brunei Darussalam Cambodia China Hong Kong Indonesia Japan Lao Malaysia Myanmar North Korea The Philippines Singapore South Korea Taiwan Thailand Viet Nam Southeast Asia's Misunderstood Miracle Jomo K.S., 2019-06-04 The debate on the major factors contributing to Southeast Asian industrialization continues unabated As might be expected there is much at stake in this debate The debate is largely ideological in nature and partly centers on the role and contribution of state interventions and other institutions in market processes in the context of late industrialization At the risk of caricaturing the debate on the one hand one finds the dominant and more influential position held by those who blame the state for all that has gone wrong and credit the market for all that has turned out right on the other hand the minority statist extreme position basically credits most major economic achievements in East Asia to appropriate interventions by developmentalist states While very few people would actually fully identify with either of these caricatured extremes much of the discussion actually gravitates around either of these poles
