Southern Marches Of Imperial Ethiopia Essays In History Social Anthropology Eastern African Studies:

The Southern Marches of Imperial Ethiopia Donald Lewis Donham, Wendy James, 2002 These essays offer an approach to the understanding of imperial Ethiopia out of which the present state was created by the 1974 revolution After the 1880s Abyssinia under Menilek II expanded its ancient heartland to incorporate vast new territories to the south Here for the first time these regions are treated as an integral part of the empire The book opens with an interpretation of nineteenth century Abyssinia as an African political economy rather than as a variant on European feudalism and with an account of the north s impact on peoples of the new south Case studies from the southern regions follow four by historians and four by anthropologists each examining aspects of the relationship between imperial rule and local society In revealing the region s diversity and the relationship of the periphery to the centre the volume illuminates some of the problems faced by post revolutionary Ethiopia

The Southern Marches of Imperial Ethiopia Donald Lewis Donham, Wendy James, 2002 Inter disciplinary approach to Ethiopian imperial history

The Southern Marches of Imperial Ethiopia Donald Donham, Wendy James, 1986 This international collection of essays offers a unique approach to the understanding of imperial Ethiopia out of which the present state was created by the 1974 revolution After the 1880s Abyssinia under Menilek II expanded its ancient heartland to incorporate vast new territories to the south Here for the first time these regions are treated as an integral part of the empire The book opens with an interpretation of nineteenth century Abyssinia as an African political economy rather than as a variant on European feudalism and with an account of the north s impact on peoples of the new south Case studies from the southern regions follow four by historians and four by anthropologists each examining aspects of the relationship between imperial rule and local society In revealing the region s diversity and the relationship of the periphery to the centre the volume illuminates some of the problems faced by post revolutionary Ethiopia

A History of African Societies to 1870 Elizabeth Isichei, 1997-04-13 This comprehensive and detailed exploration of the African past from prehistory to approximately 1870 is intended to provide a fully up to date complement to the Cambridge History of Africa Reflecting several emphases in recent scholarship it focusses on the changing modes of production on gender relations and on ecology laying particular stress on viewing history from below A distinctive theme is to be found in its analyses of cognitive history The work falls into three sections The first comprises a historiographic analysis and covers the period from the dawn of prehistory to the end of the Early Iron Age The second and third sections are for the most part organised on regional lines the second section ends in the sixteenth century the third carries the story on to 1870 A second volume now in preparation will cover the period from 1870 to 1995 This book attempts a more rounded view of African history than most of the other textbooks on the subject addressed to a largely undergraduate level student Earlier histories have tended to ignore some of the current foci in the scholarly literature on Africa generally not reflected in the textbooks these include discussions of topical issues like ecology and gender Isichei s book is also more radical

River Basin Development and Human

Rights in Eastern Africa — A Policy Crossroads Claudia J. Carr, 2017-01-05 This book is open access under a CC BY NC 2.5 license This book offers a devastating look at deeply flawed development processes driven by international finance African governments and the global consulting industry It examines major river basin development underway in the semi arid borderlands of Ethiopia Kenya and South Sudan and its disastrous human rights consequences for a half million indigenous people The volume traces the historical origins of Gibe III megadam construction along the Omo River in Ethiopia in turn enabling irrigation for commercial scale agricultural development and causing radical reduction of downstream Omo and Kenya's Lake Turkana waters Presenting case studies of indigenous Dasanech and northernmost Turkana livelihood systems and Gibe III linked impacts on them the author predicts agropastoral and fishing economic collapse region wide hunger with exposure to disease epidemics irreversible natural resource destruction and cross border interethnic armed conflict spilling into South Sudan The book identifies fundamental failings of government and development bank impact assessments including their distortion or omission of mandated transboundary assessment cumulative effects of the Gibe III dam and its linked Ethiopia Kenya energy transmission highway project key hydrologic and human ecological characteristics major earthquake threat in the dam region and widespread expropriation and political repression Violations of internationally recognized human rights especially by the Ethiopian government but also the Kenyan government are extensive and on the increase with collaboration by the development banks in breach of their own internal operational procedures A policy crossroads has now emerged The author presents the alternative to the present looming catastrophe consideration of development suspension in order to undertake genuinely independent transboundary assessment and a plan for continued development action within a human rights framework forging a sustainable future for the indigenous peoples now directly threatened and for their respective eastern Africa states Claudia Carr's book is a treasure of detailed information gathered over many years concerning river basin development of the Omo River in Ethiopia and its impact on the peoples of the lower Omo Basin and the Lake Turkana region in Kenya It contains numerous maps charts and photographs not previously available to the public The book is highly critical of the environmental and human rights implications of the Omo River hydropower projects on both the local ethnic communities in Ethiopia and on the downstream Turkana in Kenya David Shinn Former Ambassador to Ethiopia and to Burkina Faso Adjunct Professor of International Affairs The George Washington University Washington D C

Land and Society in the Christian Kingdom of Ethiopia Donald Crummey, 2000 Land and Society in the Christian Kingdom of Ethiopia offers an original perspective on how the rulers of Ethiopia one of the great subcenters of agricultural innovation and development used land to support their dominion Crummey draws on all the surviving documents pertaining to the holding and granting of agricultural land in the Ethiopian highlands from the thirteenth to the twentieth century By examining how social relations affected the conditions for economic production and how people of power drew on the wealth created by society's basic producers he provides new insight into how ordinary farming and herding folk were incorporated into and affected by the institutions that ruled them The Oxford Handbook of the Ethiopian Economy Fantu Cheru, Christopher Cramer, Arkebe Oqubay, 2019-01-10 From a war torn and famine plagued country at the beginning of the 1990s Ethiopia is today emerging as one of the fastest growing economies in Africa Growth in Ethiopia has surpassed that of every other sub Saharan country over the past decade and is forecast by the International Monetary Fund to exceed 8 percent over the next two years The government has set its eyes on transforming the country into a middle income country by 2025 and into a leading manufacturing hub in Africa The Oxford Handbook of the Ethiopian Economy studies this country s unique model of development where the state plays a central role and where a successful industrialization drive has challenged the long held erroneous assumption that industrial policy will never work in poor African countries While much of the volume is focused on post 1991 economic development policy and strategy the analysis is set against the background of the long history of Ethiopia and more specifically on the Imperial period that ended in 1974 the socialist development experiment of the Derg regime between 1974 and 1991 and the policies and strategies of the current EPRDF government that assumed power in 1991 Including a range of contributions from both academic and professional standpoints this volume is a key reference work on the economy of Ethiopia

South Sudan Edward Thomas, 2015-01-08 In 2011 South Sudan became independent following a long war of liberation that gradually became marked by looting raids and massacres pitting ethnic communities against each other In this remarkably comprehensive work Edward Thomas provides a multi layered examination of what is happening in the country today Writing from the perspective of South Sudan s most mutinous hinterland Jonglei state the book explains how this area was at the heart of South Sudan s struggle Drawing on hundreds of interviews and a broad range of sources this book gives a sharply focused fresh account of South Sudan s long unfinished fight for liberation

East Africa after Liberation Jonathan Fisher, 2020-03-05 A novel far reaching analysis of contemporary history and politics in East Africa focusing on the crisis in the region s postcolonial political order

Ethiopia John Markakis, 2011 An historical overview of Ethiopia s transformation from a multicultural empire into a modern nation state Provides the gist of one scholar s knowledge of this country acquired over several decades The author of numerous works on Ethiopia Markakis presents here an overarching concise historical profile of a momentous effort to integrate a multicultural empire into a modern nation state The concept of nation state formation provides the analytical framework within which this process unfolds and the changes of direction it takes under different regimes as well as a standard for assessing its progress and shortcomings at each stage Over a century old the process is still far from completion and its ultimate success is far from certain In the author s view there are two major obstacles that need to be overcome two frontiers that need to be crossed to reach the desired goal The first is the monopoly of power inherited from the empire builders and zealously guarded ever since by a ruling class of Abyssinian origin The descendants of the people subjugated by the empire builders remain excluded from power a handicap that breeds political instability and violent conflict The second frontier is the arid lowlands on the margins of the state where the process of integration has not yet reached and where resistance to it is greatest Until this frontier is crossed the Ethiopian state will not have the secure borders that a mature nation state requires John Markakis is a political historian who has devoted a professional lifetime to the study of Ethiopia and its neighbours in the Horn of Africa He has published several books and many articles on this area
