Southern Africa The Critical Land:

Southern Africa, the Critical Land Clarke Newlon, 1978-01-01 Discusses the history development and current problems of the 10 countries of Southern Africa Philosophical Perspectives on Land Reform in Southern Africa Erasmus Masitera, 2020-11-27 This edited collection explores a variety of philosophical perspectives on land reform in Southern Africa Presenting an innovative focus on the philosophical themes in land reform the contributors reflect on traditional African conceptualisations of the land as well as Western interpretations introducing specifically Southern African approaches to a wide range of debates Rooted in questions of colonization and decolonization the chapters examine what reform ought to do for the people of Africa providing contemporary reflections on the different racial and cultural facets of the land Notably ideas of reconciliation compensation justice development emancipation Ubuntu and empowerment are explored Vigorous and interdisciplinary in their approach the fifteen original chapters tackle a range of questions such as What does land mean in Africa What ethical considerations are relevant Which mechanisms should be used in addressing injustice regarding land reform and redistribution Providing a comprehensive engagement with philosophical and political issues of land reform in Southern Africa this volume is an invaluable resource to scholars not only in Africa but wherever similar questions of land dispossession and justice arise Southern African Development Community Land Issues Ben Chigara, 2013-03-01 This book constitutes volume one of a two volume examination of development community land issues in Southern Africa In this volume Ben Chigara undertakes a holistic inter disciplinary evaluation of the legitimacy of colonial and emergent post colonial rule property rights in affected States of the Southern African Development Community SADC It particularly focuses on intensifying litigation in national courts the SADC Tribunal and more recently the Washington based International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes ICSID regarding counter claims to title to property The book examines cultural economic and political drivers at the core of SADC land issues focusing on their significance and potential to contribute to the discovery of a new sustainable land relations policy that guarantees social justice in the distribution of all the advantages and disadvantages relating to the allocation and use of land Chigara shows that persistent systematic administrative failures by pre colonial colonial and post colonial authorities have made for a very complex challenge that requires Solomonic tools that neither the Courts alone nor human rights centric morality alone could resolutely attend The book recommends a sophisticated systematic new approach to SADC land issues which is developed in volume two Re conceiving Property Rights in the New Millennium This book will be of great interest to students and researchers of Property and Conveyancing Law Human Rights Law and Land Law Africa Air University (U.S.). Library, 1980 Agricultural Land Redistribution and Land Administration in Sub-Saharan Africa Frank F. K. Byamugisha, 2014-05-05 Agricultural Land Redistribution and Land Administration in Sub Saharan Africa Case Studies of Recent Reforms focuses on how to undertake land reforms in Sub Saharan Africa but with relevant lessons for other developing countries It provides details with case studies on how reforms were undertaken to address a pressing and controversial development challenge in Africa land ownership inequality and an intransigent development issue inefficiency and corruption in land administration An equally important contribution of the book is assessing reforms and highlighting valuable lessons for other countries contemplating reforms The six case studies collectively cover two main areas of land governance reforms in redistributing agricultural land and reforms in land administration The first two case studies discuss reforms in redistributing agricultural land in Malawi and South Africa part of the southern Africa region where land ownership inequalities rival those in Latin America The remaining case studies four in number are focused on addressing corruption and inefficiency in land administration in a variety of contexts of governance including stable and post conflict countries The case studies cover Decentralizing land administration with demonstrations from Uganda Ethiopia Tanzania and Ghana Developing post conflict land administration systems with examples from Liberia and Rwanda Re engineering and computerizing land information systems with examples from Ghana and Uganda and Improving management of government land through land inventories with examples drawn from Ghana and Uganda The common elements between sometimes disparate experiences provide lessons of relevance to African and other developing countries contemplating similar reforms The rigorous analysis and yet down to earth lessons of experience are a reflection of the authors deep global experience underpinned by personal participation in the reforms covered by the book This volume will be of interest to a wide audience including land specialists and practitioners African policy makers experts and managers in the international development community and the academia

Land and Nationalism in Fictions from Southern Africa James Graham, 2011-01-13 By employing a range of critical perspectives cultural materialist feminist and ecocritical Graham investigates the relation between land and nationalism in South African and Zimbabwean fiction from the 1960s to the present This study discusses a wide range of writing including novels by Coetzee Gordimer Head Hove and Vera

Indigenous Peoples' Rights in Southern Africa Robert K. Hitchcock, Diana Vinding, 2004 This book is concerned with the first peoples those people who are considered indigenous by themselves and others of southern Africa such as the San the Nama and the Khoi and their rights Although living in democratic countries like Namibia South Africa Zimbabwe and Botswana and in principle sharing the same rights and responsibilities as the rest of the population practice shows that these peoples more often than not are at the margins of the societies in which they live they often face extreme poverty and they frequently are subjected to discriminatory treatment and exposed to all kinds of human rights abuses Robert K Hitchcock is professor of anthropology and geography at the University of Nebraska Lincoln USA He has done extensive research and development work in southern Africa in general and among San peoples in particular Diana Vinding is an anthropologist working with the International Work Group for Indigenous Affairs IWGIA in Copenhagen

Southern Africa Beyond the Millenium D. Barry Dalal-Clayton, 1997 Africa's Wellbeing in an Uncertain World Vusi Gumede, 2020-11-09 The world remains uncertain Africa is fragile Many issues remain unresolved and the African and global situation is worsening South Africa has been at the crossroads for long enough There can be no more delays the time has come to address the many critical issues In Africa s Wellbeing in an Uncertain World Vusi Gumede discusses these critical issues about Africa with specific focus on South Africa He has revisited opinion articles and blogs he has been writing since the mid 2000s and taken his ideas and arguments together with his deliberations on the recent changes globally and in Africa and presented them in this thought provoking book While taking into account what others have said about similar issues this is an attempt to get us to talk about these challenges the important issues and fundamental problems with a view to finding solutions The future of the African continent could be bright if all the efforts that are being pursued for the improved wellbeing of Africans succeed But as Vusi Gumede reflects in this book if South Africa is to achieve the society envisaged in the Constitution then all South Africans whatever the colour of their skin have an important role to play

Land, Liberation and Compromise in Southern Africa C. Alden, W. Anseeuw, 2009-10-29 This book analyzes the origins of the crisis in Zimbabwe and why it has had such a profound impact on both the land issue and democratic politics in the Southern African region In doing so it contributes to the present debates around Mugabe neo imperialism and the stability in the region
