Pushing Boundaries in Southwestern Archaeology

Stephen E. Nash, Erin L. Baxter, 2023-04-07 Pushing Boundaries in Southwestern Archaeology draws together the proceedings from the sixteenth biennial Southwest Symposium In exploring the conference theme contributors consider topics ranging from the resuscitation of archaeomagnetic dating to the issue of Athapaskan origins from collections based studies of social identity foodways and obsidian trade to the origins of a rock art tradition and the challenges of a deeply buried archaeological record The first of the volume s four sections examines the status history and prospects of Bears Ears National Monument the broader regulatory and political boundaries that complicate the nature and integrity of the archaeological record and the cultural contexts and legal stakes of archaeological inquiry The second section focuses on chronological big data in the context of pre Columbian history and the potential and limits of what can be empirically derived from chronometric analysis of the past The chapters in the third section advocate for advancing collections based research focusing on the vast and often untapped research potential of archives previously excavated museum collections and legacy data The final section examines the permeable boundaries involved in Plains Pueblo interactions obvious in the archaeological record but long in need of analysis interpretation and explanation Contributors James R Allison Erin Baxter Benjamin A Bellorado Katelyn J Bishop Eric Blinman J Royce Cox J Andrew Darling Kaitlyn E Davis William H Doelle B Sunday Eiselt Leigh Anne Ellison Josh Ewing Samantha G Fladd Gary M Feinman Jeffrey R Ferguson Severin Fowles Willie Grayeyes Matthew Guebard Saul L Hedquist Greg Hodgins Lucas Hoedl John W Ives Nicholas Kessler Terry Knight Michael W Lindeman Hannah V Mattson Myles R Miller Lindsay Montgomery Stephen E Nash Sarah Oas Jill Onken Scott G Ortman Danielle J Riebe John Ruple Will G Russell Octavius Seowtewa Deni J Seymour James M Vint Adam S Watson Birds of the Sun Christopher W Schwartz, Stephen Plog, Patricia A. Gilman, 2022-03-15 The multiple vivid colors of scarlet macaws and their ability to mimic human speech are key reasons they were and are significant to the Native peoples of the southwestern U S and northwest New Mexico Although the birds natural habitat is the tropical forests of Mexico and Central America they were present at multiple archaeological sites in the region Leading experts in southwestern archaeology explore the reasons why Ancient Puebloan Southwest John Kantner, 2004-11-11 Ancient Puebloan Southwest traces the evolution of Puebloan society in the American Southwest from the emergence of the Chaco and Mimbres traditions in the AD 1000s through the early decades of contact with the Spanish in the sixteenth century The 2004 book focuses on the social and political changes that shaped Puebloan people over the centuries emphasizing how factors internal to society impacted on cultural evolution even in the face of the challenging environment that characterizes the American Southwest The underlying argument is that while the physical environment both provides opportunities and sets limitations to social and political change even more important evolutionary forces are the tensions between co operation and competition for status and leadership Although relying primarily on archaeological data the book also includes oral histories historical accounts and ethnographic records as it introduces readers to the deep history of the Puebloan Southwest Zuni Origins David A. Gregory, David R. Wilcox, 2015-11-01 A Choice Outstanding Academic Title The Zuni are a Southwestern people whose origins have long intrigued anthropologists This volume presents fresh approaches to that question from both anthropological and traditional perspectives exploring the origins of the tribe and the influences that have affected their way of life Utilizing macro regional approaches it brings together many decades of research in the Zuni and Mogollon areas incorporating archaeological evidence environmental data and linguistic analyses to propose new links among early Southwestern peoples The findings reported here postulate the differentiation of the Zuni language at least 7 000 to 8 000 years ago following the initial peopling of the hemisphere and both formulate and test the hypothesis that many Mogollon populations were Zunian speakers Some of the contributions situate Zuni within the developmental context of Southwestern societies from Paleoindian to Mogollon Others test the Mogollon Zuni hypothesis by searching for contrasts between these and neighboring peoples and tracing these contrasts through macro regional analyses of environments sites pottery basketry and rock art Several studies of late prehistoric and protohistoric settlement systems in the Zuni area then express more cautious views on the Mogollon connection and present insights from Zuni traditional history and cultural geography Two internationally known scholars then critique the essays and the editors present a new research design for pursuing the question of Zuni origins By taking stock and synthesizing what is currently known about the origins of the Zuni language and the development of modern Zuni culture Zuni Origins is the only volume to address this subject with such a breadth of data and interpretations It will prove invaluable to archaeologists working throughout the North American Southwest as well as to others struggling with issues of ethnicity migration incipient agriculture and linguistic origins The Hohokam and Their World Linda M.

Gregonis, Victoria Riley Evans, 2025 The Hohokam and Their World explores how the Hohokam used art forms such as pottery shell ornaments carved stone and rock imagery to convey their views of the world and their ideas about water the Sonoran Desert the ocean travel ancestors and the cosmos Climate and Culture Change in North America AD 900-1600

William C. Foster, 2012-05-15 Climate change is today s news but it isn t a new phenomenon Centuries long cycles of heating and cooling are well documented for Europe and the North Atlantic These variations in climate including the Medieval Warm Period MWP AD 900 to 1300 and the early centuries of the Little Ice Age LIA AD 1300 to 1600 had a substantial impact on the cultural history of Europe In this pathfinding volume William C Foster marshals extensive evidence that the heating and cooling of the MWP and LIA also occurred in North America and significantly affected the cultural history of Native peoples of the American Southwest Southern Plains and Southeast Correlating climate change data with studies of archaeological sites across the Southwest Southern Plains and Southeast Foster presents the first comprehensive overview of how Native American societies responded to climate variations over seven centuries He describes how as in Europe the MWP ushered in a cultural renaissance during which population levels surged and Native peoples substantially intensified agriculture constructed monumental architecture and produced sophisticated works of art Foster follows the rise of three dominant cultural centers Chaco Canyon in New Mexico Cahokia on the middle Mississippi River and Casas Grandes in northwestern Chihuahua Mexico that reached population levels comparable to those of London and Paris Then he shows how the LIA reversed the gains of the MWP as population levels and agricultural production sharply declined Chaco Canyon Cahokia and Casas Grandes collapsed and dozens of smaller villages also collapsed or became fortresses

Interaction and Connectivity in the Greater Southwest Karen Harry, Barbara J. Roth, 2019-03-21 This volume of proceedings from the fourteenth biennial Southwest Symposium explores different kinds of social interaction that occurred prehistorically across the Southwest The authors use diverse and innovative approaches and a variety of different data sets to examine the economic social and ideological implications of the different forms of interaction presenting new ways to examine how social interaction and connectivity influenced cultural developments in the Southwest The book observes social interactions role in the diffusion of ideas and material culture the way different social units especially households interacted within and between communities and the importance of interaction and interconnectivity in understanding the archaeology of the Southwest's northern periphery Chapters demonstrate a movement away from strictly economic driven models of social connectivity and interaction and illustrate that members of social groups lived in dynamic situations that did not always have clear cut and unwavering boundaries Social connectivity and interaction were often fluid changing over time

Interaction and Connectivity in the Greater Southwest is an impressive collection of established and up and coming Southwestern archaeologists collaborating to strengthen the theoretical underpinnings of the discipline It will be of interest to professional and academic archaeologists as well as researchers with interests in diffusion identity cultural transmission borders large scale interaction or social organization Contributors Richard V N Ahlstrom James R Allison Jean H Ballagh Catherine M Cameron Richard Ciolek Torello John G Douglass Suzanne L Eckert Hayward H Franklin Patricia A Gilman Dennis A Gilpin William M Graves Kelley A Hays Gilpin Lindsay D Johansson Eric Eugene Klucas Phillip O Leckman Myles R Miller Barbara J Mills Matthew A Peeples David A Phillips Jr Katie Richards Heidi Roberts Thomas R Rocek Tammy Stone Richard K Talbot Marc Thompson David T Unruh John A Ware Kristina C Wyckoff

Reframing Paquim Community Formation in Northwest Chihuahua is a groundbreaking reinterpretation of the Casas Grandes region by scholars Michael E Whalen and Paul E Minnis This final installment in their comprehensive study challenges the dominant view of Paquim as a hierarchical society founded by outsiders presenting instead a compelling case for a largely locally organized society with Mesoamerican and Puebloan characteristics Drawing on twenty five years of extensive survey and excavation data the authors offer a fresh perspective that reframes our understanding of this remarkable archaeological site Whalen and Minnis bring forth significant new data that illuminates the cultural and ecological history of Paquim and its neighboring communities The book features more than fifty new radiocarbon dates hundreds of analyzed archaeobotanical and faunal samples plus tens of thousands of other artifacts The data reveal a network of settlements characterized by corporate and ritual based authority challenging traditional models of the center s rise collapse and subsequent regional abandonment and arguing that aspects of the Paquim culture continued to exist up to the Spanish Colonial period Reframing Paquim is poised to become an essential reference for archaeologists interested in Northwest Mexico and the U S Southwest By addressing the complex dynamics of community formation and dissolution Whalen and Minnis provide invaluable insights that will ignite scholarly debate and inspire future research This meticulously researched volume authored by leading experts with decades of fieldwork experience is a vital addition to any collection on the archaeology and ethnobotany of ancient North American societies

Bodies, Ontology, and Bioarchaeology Ann M. Palkovich, 2024-05-11 This volume introduces the place of Arroyo Hondo Pueblo in our understanding of Southwestern Archaeology in the Northern Rio Grande The author discusses the reanalysis of the skeletal and mortuary remains that draws on a half century of research since the original excavations were conducted by the School of American Research from 1970 1974 under the direction of Douglas W Schwartz The volume offers a close read of the mortuary evidence at Arroyo Hondo Pueblo and integrates ideas about corn as a central feature of Tewa cosmology with this crop as the paramount dietary staple The author discusses the health consequences of dry farming subsistence and present evidence for malnutrition and other dietary issues and finally describes the impact of malnutrition and other maladies on the everyday lives of Arroyo Hondo s villagers This volume is for readers interested in bioarchaeology paleopathology and Southwestern Archaeology
