Strategic Survey 1982-1983 International Institute for Strategic Studies, 1983 Strategic survey International Institute for Strategic Studies, 1982 The West's Road to 9/11 D. Carlton, 2005-09-08 The West's Road to 9/11 offers a detailed explanation of the handling of the challenge of terrorism by the USA the UK and the West over the last thirty years David Carlton contends that anti terrorist rhetoric by the Governments of the West frequently masked indifference to the activities of many practitioners of non state violence and that in the case of the United States it did not hesitate even to sponsor those terrorist movements if deemed supportive of its wider geopolitical objectives The Half War Robert P Haffa Jr, 2019-07-11 This book offers a strategic organizational and logistical analysis in a historical context of the planning of conventional forces to meet a limited contingency The central question is Why from 1960 to 1982 did the U S fail to construct a coherent limited contingency force Analysis of a series of comparative case studies reveals that the strategic concept to the half war or limited contingency was never articulated adequately enough to support specific force planning Organizations designed to oversee and command limited contingency forces fragmented by interservice rivalries and the absence of joint doctrine lacked multiservice composition and a unified command structure A search for economy in limited contingency forces seemed justified by illusions about their capabilities Low budgetary priority and Congressional perceptions that enhanced U S rapid deployment capabilities would encourage U S global intervention contributed to the lack of logistical and mobility systems dedicated to them The wider intent of this study is to shed light on the general purpose force planning process and to suggest policy guidance as the United States once again embarks on a major conventional force planning initiative Rather than being trapped by the past new efforts to meet vital U S military interests below the nuclear threshold must identify half war planning contingencies structure unified commands capable of directing tailored conventional forces in specific theaters and provide adequate strategic mobility systems Parameters, 1984 Nonproliferation and Disarmament United States. International Peacekeeping In Lebanon Ramesh Thakur, 2019-04-09 Examining the efficacy of U N peace efforts Dr Ramesh Thakur compares limited peacekeeping through U N authority with more coercive means such as the Multinational Force MNF in Lebanon He finds that the role of the U S led MNF coalition cannot be justified in terms of great power responsibility for ensuring a stable international order since the coalition has attempted to substitute military power for authoritative peacekeeping When MNF legitimacy was questioned and authority was challenged the MNF's use of force in response to those challenges switched the coalition's role from third party peacekeeper to factional participant As a result every successive attempt to strengthen the MNF mandate has further subordinated the concept of neutral international peacekeeping to calculated support of national interests If reasoned attempts to keep the peace are not to collapse into exercises in national self interest then peacekeeping responsibilities must remain with the U N supported by the great powers Only the U N can provide an authoritative exposition of values within the context of international society and bestow international legitimacy upon peacekeeping activities only the great powers can back the U N with requisite force

Economic Sanctions Reconsidered: History and current policy Gary Clyde Hufbauer, Jeffrey J. Schott, Kimberly Ann Elliott, Institute for International Economics (U.S.), 1990 Defence and the Media in Time of Limited War Peter R Young, 2013-09-13 First Published in 2004 Events in the Gulf Crisis of 1990 91 have highlighted the importance of the increasingly complex and difficult relations between Defence and the Media in time of War especially in time of limited conflict when the well being let alone the security of the home nation may not be affected This problem has become especially acute given the growth of the new high technology media and its global spread and immediacy The question of how to reconcile the competing demands for secrecy on the one hand and the public s right to know on the other is fast emerging as a major question of our times In Brisbane during 3 5 April 1991 there was held what is believed to be the first ever International Conference on the topic of Defence and the Media in Time of Limited Conflict to look at this and other issues stemming from the problem Jointly funded by the Queensland University of Technology and the Australian Department of Defence the three day Conference was a major success attracting 160 delegates from Great Britain the United States Zambia Papua New Guinea Brunei New Zealand France Indonesia and of course Australia This volume publishes nearly all the papers delivered at this conference whose main focus was on post 1945 limited wars especially Vietnam Northern Ireland the Falklands Grenada and the Gulf all of which receive detailed analysis Walking the Tightrope Jaïr van der Lijn, 2006 The media generally tend to focus in particular on the failures of U N peacekeeping operations In Walking the Tightrope Jaïr Van Der Lijn draws a different conclusion He argues once a peace agreement has been signed the efforts of the U N peacekeeping operations do contribute to durable peace By analyzing the U N peacekeeping operations in Cambodia Mozambique Rwanda and El Salvador in a structured focused comparison this book shows how U N operations do have a contribution to make Air Interdiction in World War II, Korea, and Vietnam Earle E. B. Byers, 2022-12-15 In the 1980s concern throughout the world was growing about the use of the oceans by nuclear powered naval vessels and naval vessels carrying nuclear weapons Many countries were keen to keep their ports and the waters off their coastlines nuclear free Originally published in 1986 this book presents a worldwide survey of the state of the nuclear use of the oceans and assesses the prospects for denuclearisation at the time It looks at the legal background the practical issues and the attitudes and positions in different parts of the world while regional efforts of disarmament and arms control are necessary so are global efforts At the same time international legal norms including the Law of the Sea must be adopted and utilized in the ever difficult search for world peace Arvid Pardo The Military Balance in the Cold War David Walsh, 2007-07-20 This book examines the impact of American perceptions of the military balance between the United States and the Soviet Union during the key period of 1976 1985 That decade witnessed the decline of the US Soviet détente and the resurgence of superpower confrontation often called the Second Cold War Among the factors contributing to this shift was the American view of the military balance whether the United States had been or was being overtaken by the Soviet Union in terms of military capability Since then the military balance has been viewed within the overall context of issues impacting superpower relations during this era David Walsh examines the full range of issues strategic and European based forces power projection capabilities and military spending and their role in shaping perceptions not just of the military balance but also in such key areas of international relations as arms control trans Atlantic diplomacy and Third World conflict In doing so he shows how the perceptions of the 1970s contributed to key policy decisions in the 1980s which themselves played a significant role in bringing the Cold War to an end The Military Balance in the Cold War will be of interest to advanced students of Cold War history strategic studies US foreign policy and international relations in general U.S. Military Power And Rapid Deployment Requirements In The 1980s Sherwood S Cordier, 2019-06-04 This book assesses U S military needs in the coming decade focusing on the role of rapid deployment forces in protecting U S interests abroad Dr Cordier begins by discussing two general developments crucial to future military requirements first increasing U S dependence on the global sea lanes as links to key markets and second improved S The Politics of Trade Pressure Mohammed Ishaq, 2019-07-23 First published in 1999 this volume examines Soviet American relations with a specific emphasis on the American use of trade pressure in comparison with Soviet involvement in regional conflicts in contrast to a broader East West dichotomous analysis Mohammed Ishaq addresses the history of the political and economic partnership followed by the questions of non strategic trade strategic trade Soviet policy on human rights and Soviet involvement in the Third World and regional conflicts In doing so Ishaq recognises the use of trade pressure as economic statecraft in foreign policy in a reassessment of its effectiveness

Guardians of the Revolution Ray Takeyh,2011-05-05 For over a quarter century Iran has been one of America s chief nemeses Ever since Ayatollah Khomeini overthrew the Shah in 1979 the relationship between the two nations has been antagonistic revolutionary guards chanting against the Great Satan Bush fulminating against the Axis of Evil Iranian support for Hezbollah and President Ahmadinejad blaming the U S for the world s ills The unending war of words suggests an intractable divide between Iran and the West one that may very well lead to a shooting war in the near future But as Ray Takeyh shows in this accessible and authoritative history of Iran s relations with the world since the revolution behind the famous personalities and extremist slogans is a nation that is far more pragmatic and complex than many in the West have been led to believe Takeyh explodes many of our simplistic myths of Iran as an intransigently Islamist foe of the West Tracing the course of Iranian policy since the 1979 revolution Takeyh identifies four distinct periods the revolutionary era of the 1980s the tempered gradualism following the death of Khomeini and the end of the Iran Iraq war in 1989 the reformist period from 1997 2005 under President Khatami and the shift toward confrontation and radicalism since the election of President Ahmadinejad in 2005 Takeyh shows that three powerful forces Islamism pragmatism and great power pretensions have competed in each of these periods and that Iran s often paradoxical policies are in reality a series of compromises between the hardliners and the moderates often with wild oscillations between pragmatism and ideological dogmatism The U S s task Takeyh argues is to find strategies that address Iran s objectionable behavior without demonizing this key player in an increasingly vital and volatile region With its clear sighted grasp of both nuance and historical sweep Guardians of the Revolution will stand as the standard work on this controversial and central actor in world politics for years to come

Combat Motivation of the Polish Forces Edmund Walendowski,1988-04-22 China and Iran John W. Garver,2011-07-01 Iran s nuclear aspirations increasingly dominate its relations with the United States and Europe China remains one of Iran s strongest allies on the Security Council and also its most likely supplier of technology and assistance built on decades of close economic and military relations Iran is enjoying strong new influence in the Middle East and Asia following record oil profits and Shi i victories in Iraqi parliamentary elections Like Iran China fought for decades to increase its self reliance and geopolitical influence after painful experiences under European colonialism which spurred nationalist revolutions With China and Iran Ancient Partners in a Post Imperial World John Garver breaks new ground on the relationship between the People s Republic of China and the Islamic Republic of Iran Grounding his survey in the twin concepts of civilization and power Garver explores the relationship between these two ancient and proud peoples each of which consider the other a peer and a partner in their mutual determination to build a post Western dominated Asia Successive governments of both China and Iran have recognized substantial national capabilities in each other capabilities that allow the countries to achieve their own national interests through cooperation These interests have varied from countering Soviet expansionism to resisting U S unilateralism but the cooperative relationship between the two nations has remained constant In his compelling analysis Garver explores the evolution of Sino Iranian relations through several phases including Iran under the shah and before the 1979 revolution from the 1979 revolution to 1989 a year marked both by the end of the Iran Iraq war and the beginning of conflict in Sino U S relations and from 1989 to 2004 China and Iran includes discussion of the current debates at the International Atomic Energy Agency over Iran s nuclear programs and China s role in assisting these programs and in supporting Iran in international debates Garver examines China s involvement in Iran s efforts to modernize its military including China s offer of weapons capital goods and engineering services in exchange for Iranian oil suggesting links between this energy exchange and China s support for Iran in political arenas In today s political climate where China is recognized as a rising and increasingly influential global power and Iran as one of the most powerful nations in the Middle East this book presents a crucial analysis of a topic of utmost importance to scholars and the general public today
