Duhaime, Larry Stimpert, Julie Chesley, 2012-03-22 There are many strategy books available in the marketplace for today's student or business professional; most of them view strategy from the 10,000-foot level while Strategic Thinking looks at this important business topic through a different lens. Written from the perspective of a manager, this book builds on theories of managerial and organizational cognition that have had a powerful influence on many business fields over the last two decades. As other books on business policy and strategy cover a broad range of topics, models, frameworks, and theories, the unique feature of this book is that it covers all this but also focuses on how managers of business firms understand their business environments, assess and marshal their firm's resources, and strive for advantage in the competitive marketplace. It examines the economic, structural, and managerial explanations for firm performance. Offering professors and business people who are intrigued by the ideas introduced in Peter Senge's books ways to apply those ideas and principles in the classroom and in the companies in which they work, the book puts managers front and center.

Strategic Thinking and Decision Making Paul J.H. Schoemaker, 2025-02-04 This book covers a wide range of managerial problems that leaders may encounter in business, often in unexpected or incomplete ways. Varied essays depict complex situations that organisational leaders encountered and had to resolve The leadership challenge is to develop meta skills for thinking strategically about them and then make sound business decisions in the face of uncertainty Leaders usually confront opportunities and challenges in muddled fashions and their main task is to size them up properly and respond with creativity and wisdom These leadership challenges require integrative thinking and creative problem solving skills of a kind that is nurtured through hard won experience in the trenches The kaleidoscopic flavor of this collection of essays reflects a holistic and realistic view of leadership in varied situations that call for innovative strategic thinking reflective problem reframing and smart decision making alone and in teams Strategic Thinking Simon Wootton,Terry Horne,2010-07-03
