Strategies Of Display Museum Presentation In Nineteenth And Twentie:

Strategies of Display Julia Noordegraaf, 2004 History of museum presentation within the context of the nineteenth and twentieth century visual culture Taking the remarkable display history at the Boijmans Van Beuningen Museum in Rotterdam as a point of departure it reflects on the history of presentation in museums in Western Europe and North America Museums communicated with their audiences through their presentations Boekbespreking in Boekman 16 2004 61 herfst 167 169

Sacred Medieval Objects and Their Afterlives in Scandinavia, 2024-12-16 Interconnected investigations between conservators historians heritage scientists and museum professionals centre on objects that were essential to medieval Christianity in Scandinavia c 1100 1530 Through new and diverse physical data from polychrome sculptures shrines winged altarpieces and painted banners the authors probe a range of issues and problems from original devotional functions and changing appearances to the impacts of changing liturgies locations and priorities This book highlights the diversity of theoretical and practical approaches to sacred medieval religious objects and brings together new findings related to the transformations of these objects since the Reformations Contributors are Karl Christian Alvestad Alexandra B hme David Buti Francesco Caruso Aoife Daly Tine Fr ysaker Elina Gertsman Irka Hajdas Poul Grinder Hansen Karoline Kjesrud Lena Liepe Hana Lukasova Maite Maguregui Austin Nevin Elena Platania Anne Irene Riis y Katrine S Scharffenberg J n Vi ar Sigur sson Calin Constantin Steindal No lle L W Streeton Einar Uggerud Anna Vila and J rgen Wadum Secular Bodies, Affects and Emotions Monique Scheer, Nadia Fadil, Birgitte Schepelern Johansen, 2019-01-10 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Taking its cue from the study of lived religion Secular Bodies Affects and Emotions shows how the idea of a secular public is equally marked by a display and cultivation of affect and emotions Whereas it is widely agreed that religion is often saturated by emotion the secular is usually treated as a neutral background serving as the domain of public rational deliberation This book demonstrates that secularity and secularism are also upheld by bodily practices and emotional attachments Drawing on empirical case studies this is the first book to ask and explore whether a secular body exists Building on the work of Talal Asad the book argues that the secular is not an absence of religion but a positive entity that comes about through its co constitutive relationship with religion And once we attune ourselves to recognizing its operations as grammar which structures social practice writing an anthropology of the secular could become a new possibility Analysing Museum Display Christopher Whitehead, 2024-09-30 Analysing Museum Display is the first comprehensive book to bring together approaches to studying museum displays Drawing on global examples it reviews different theoretical frameworks and methods charting major contributions to the field and exploring their potentials and limitations How and why should we study museum display and what is its nature as a complex form of representation The book argues that display is at once material experiential and political in producing knowledge and that analysis requires rigorous conceptualisation and careful methodologies It provides a critical guide to existing concepts and methods exploring how museum display can be understood using semiotic narrative cartographic and spatial analyses assemblage theory new materialist and multisensory approaches and theories of affect emotion and historical positioning Alongside this Whitehead presents key orientations for research practice relating to objectivity and subjectivity historical and contextual awareness and mixing methods Analysing Museum Display will be essential reading for scholars and students of museology at all levels The book will also appeal to museum curators and professionals who are involved in the production of displays and wish to develop a more theorised and reflective perspective on their own practice Archival Film Curatorship Grazia Ingravalle, 2025-10-01 Archival Film

Curatorship is the first book length study that investigates film archives at the intersection of institutional histories early and silent film historiography and archival curatorship It examines three institutions at the forefront of experimentation with film exhibition and curatorship The Eye Film Museum in Amsterdam the George Eastman Museum in Rochester NY and the National Fairground and Circus Archive in Sheffield UK serve as exemplary sites of historical mediation between early and silent cinema and the digital age A range of elements from preservation protocols to technologies of display and from museum architectures to curatorial discourses in blogs catalogs and interviews shape what the author innovatively theorizes as the archive's hermeneutic dispositif Archival Film Curatorship offers film and preservation scholars a unique take on the shifting definitions histories and uses of the medium of film by those tasked with preserving and presenting it to new digital age audiences Uncertain Images: Museums and the Work of Photographs Elizabeth Edwards, Sigrid

Lien, 2016-02-17 Almost all museums hold photographs in their collections and museum professionals and their audiences engage with photographs in a myriad of ways Yet despite some three decades of critical museology and photographic theory and an extensive debate on the politics of representation outside art museums almost no critical attention has been given specifically to the roles purposes and lives of these photographs within museums This book brings into focus the ubiquitous yet entirely unconsidered work that photographs are put to in museums The authors argument is that there is an economy of photographs in museums which is integral to the processes of the museum and integral to the understanding of museums The international contributors drawn from curators and academics reflect a range of visual and museological expertise After an introduction setting out the range of questions and problems the first part addresses broad curatorial strategies and ways of thinking about photographs in museums Shifting the emphasis from curatorial practices and anxieties to the space of the gallery this is followed by a series of case studies of exhibitionary practices and the museum strategies that support them The third section focuses on the role of photographs in the museum articulation of difficult histories A final section addresses photograph collections in a digital environment New technologies and new media have transformed the management address and purposing in photographs in museums from cataloguing practices to streaming on social media These growing practices challenge both traditional hierarchies of knowledge in museums and the location of authority about photographs The volume emerges from PhotoCLEC a HERA funded project on museums and the photographic legacy of the colonial past in a postcolonial and multicultural Europe Augmented Images Lars C. Grabbe, Patrick Rupert-Kruse, Norbert M. Schmitz, 2022-09-07 Common boundaries between the physical reality and rising digital media technologies are fading The age of hyper reality becomes an age of hyper aesthetics Immersive media and image technologies like augmented reality enable a completely novel form of interaction and corporeal relation to and with the virtual image structures and the different screen technologies Augmented Images contributes to the wide range of the hyper aesthetic image discourse to connect the concept of dynamic augmented images with the approaches in modern media theory philosophy perceptual theory aesthetics computer graphics and art theory as well as the complex range of image science This volume monitors and discusses the relation of images and technological evolution in the context of augmented reality within the perspective of an autonomous image science Spaces of Connoisseurship Alison Clarke, 2022-07-18 In Spaces of Connoisseurship Alison Clarke explores the who where and how of judging Old Master paintings in the nineteenth century British art trade She describes how the staff at family art dealers Thomas Agnew Sons Agnew s and London s National Gallery took advantage of emerging technologies such as the railways and photography Through encounters with pictures in a range of locations both private and public these art market actors could build up the visual memory and necessary expertise to compare artworks and judge them in terms of attribution condition and beauty Also explored are the display tactics adopted by both commercial outfit and art museum to showcase pictures once acquired In a time of ever spiralling art prices this book tackles the question of why some paintings are preferred over others and exactly how art experts reach their judgements

Experimental Museology Marianne Achiam, Michael Haldrup, Kirsten Drotner, 2021-06-28 Experimental Museology scrutinizes innovative endeavours to transform museum interactions with the world Analysing cutting edge cases from around the globe the volume demonstrates how museums can design apply and assess new modes of audience engagement and participation Written by an interdisciplinary group of researchers and research led professionals the book argues that museum transformations must be focused on conceptualizing and documenting the everyday challenges and choices facing museums especially in relation to wider social political and economic ramifications In order to illuminate the complexity of these challenges the volume is structured into three related key dimensions of museum practice namely institutions representations and users Each chapter is based on a curatorial design proposed and performed in collaboration between university based academics and a museum Taken together the chapters provide insights into a diversity of geographical contexts fields and museums thus building a comprehensive and reflexive repository of design practices and formative experiments that can help strengthen future museum research and design Experimental Museology will be of great value to academics and students in the fields of museum gallery and heritage studies as well as architecture design communication and cultural studies It will also be of interest to museum professionals and anyone else who is interested in learning more

Staging the Nation in an Intermediate Space Fabio Spirinelli, 2025-06-30 In Luxembourg the evolution of cultural policy remains underexplored despite its pivotal role in the nation building process This book investigates how national cultural policy evolved from the 1920s to the early 1970s casting Luxembourg as a nationalized intermediate space between French and German influences Featuring a case study of the history and art section of the State Museums the precursor to today's Musée national d'archéologie d'histoire et d'art the book examines the interplay of structures actors and discourses and how a cultural institution was intertwined with cultural policy The study exposes the tensions between adopting external models on the one hand and asserting a distinct national culture amid interventionist policies on the other hand By including the occupation period from 1940 to 1944 it illustrates how Nazi policies challenged Luxembourg's nation building by seeking to integrate it into the Third Reich Combining theoretical analysis with archival research this work offers nuanced insights into nation building processes and is highly relevant for historians cultural policy scholars and museum professionals

The Perpetuation of Site-Specific Installation Artworks in Museums Tatja Scholte, 2025-10-01 Site specific installations are created for specific locations and are usually intended as temporary artworks The Perpetuation of Site Specific Installation Artworks in Museums Staging Contemporary Art shows that these artworks consist of more than a singular manifestation and that their lifespan is often extended In this book Tatja Scholte offers an in depth account of the artistic production of the last forty years With a wealth of case studies the author illuminates the diversity of site specific art in both form and content as well as in the conservation strategies applied A conceptual framework is provided for scholars and museum professionals to better understand how site specific installations gain new meanings during successive stages of their biographies and may become agents for change in professional routines

New Sensory Approaches to the Past Pamela Jordan, Sara Mura, Sue Hamilton, 2025-07-07 New Sensory Approaches to the Past assembles a series of research projects investigating cultural environments through the lens of the senses The book presents the latest approaches to sensory archaeology and heritage research that aim to understand the lived experience of past inhabitants Interdisciplinary case studies carry out investigations in three different registers personal and embodied teamwork and collective responses to the historical environment and digital reconstruction An international cast of contributors includes archaeologists architects

sociolinguists military experts cultural studies scholars and acoustics specialists with research sites spanning Palaeolithic rock art to a 1960s North American fairground Descriptions and analyses of sensory in situ investigations offer methodological transparency with the visual analysis that is common in archaeology and heritage assessments is placed alongside ethnographic techniques landscape survey sound recording preservation advocacy work and various forms of digital reconstruction This interdisciplinary approach harmonizes research terminologies across fields fostering a comprehensive understanding of sensory based studies and the methods used to carry them out The book revitalizes familiar concepts with new insights and provides a platform to examine and resolve interdisciplinary ambiguities making it an invaluable resource for advancing sensory research

Accumulation by Segregation Ghazala Jamil, 2017-08-09 This work explores the processes of creation and articulation of social identities of Muslims in Delhi Mapping the landscape of discrimination in Delhi's neighbourhoods Jamil tries to see how such fractured geographies are created We come across people whose sense of belonging to each other is complex and subject to forces such as regional and class identities instead of an ubiquitous Muslimness Segregation in an urban space is produced as Jamil argues not only by communal conflict and threat of violence but also maintained and strengthened by processes of capitalist globalization Through case studies of five localities which present a historical continuity in the narrative of Delhi's Muslims the book presents compelling evidence of market and governance processes that aid accumulation by segregation It offers an against the grain reading of quotidian practices of residents within such boundaries such that a counternarrative of resistance and hope may emerge one that may allow for re imagining alternatives

Contemporary British Ceramics and the Influence of Sculpture Laura Gray, 2018-01-02 This book investigates how British contemporary artists who work with clay have managed in the space of a single generation to take ceramics from niche interest craft to the pristine territories of the contemporary art gallery This development has been accompanied and perhaps propelled by the kind of critical discussion usually reserved for the higher discipline of sculpture Ceramics is now encountering and colliding with sculpture both formally and intellectually Laura Gray examines what this means for the old hierarchies between art and craft the identity of the potter and the character of a discipline tied to a specific material but wanting to participate in critical discussions that extend far beyond clay

The Art of the Anthropological Diorama Noemie Etienne, 2021-09-08 Dioramas are devices on the frontier of different disciplines art anthropology and the natural sciences to name a few Their use developed during the nineteenth century following reforms aimed at reinforcing the educational dimension of museums While dioramas with human figures are now the subject of healthy criticism and are gradually being dismantled a thorough study of the work of artists and scientists who made them helps shed light on their genesis Among other displays this book examines anthropological dioramas of two North American museums in the early twentieth century the American Museum of Natural History in New York and the New York State Museum Sites of creation and mediation of knowledge combining painting sculpture photography and material culture

dioramas tell a story that is always political Cinematic Chronotopes Pepita Hesselberth, 2014-06-19 The site of cinema is on the move The extent to which technologically mediated sounds and images continue to be experienced as cinematic today is largely dependent on the intensified sense of being here now and me that they convey This intensification is fundamentally rooted in the cinematic s potential to intensify our experience of time to convey time s thickening of which the sense of place and a sense of self presence are the correlatives In this study Pepita Hesselberth traces this thickening of time across four different spatio temporal configurations of the cinematic a multi media exhibition featuring the work of Andy Warhol 1928 1987 the handheld aesthetics of European art house films a large scale media installation by Rafael Lozano Hemmer and the usage of the trope of the flash forward in mainstream Hollywood cinema Only by juxtaposing these cases by looking at what they have in common this study argues can we grasp the complexity of the changes that the cinematic is currently undergoing Fragments of the Holocaust David Duindam, 2025-10-01 Why do we attach so much value to sites of Holocaust memory if all we ever encounter are fragments of a past that can never be fully comprehended David Duindam examines how the Hollandsche Schouwburg a former theater in Amsterdam used for the registration and deportation of nearly 50 000 Jews fell into disrepair after World War II before it became the first Holocaust memorial museum of the Netherlands Fragments of the Holocaust The Amsterdam Hollandsche Schouwburg as a Site of Memory combines a detailed historical study of the postwar period of this site with a critical analysis of its contemporary presentation by placing it within international debates concerning memory emotionally fraught heritage and museum studies A case is made for the continued importance of the Hollandsche Schouwburg and other comparable sites arguing that these will remain important in the future as indexical fragments where new generations can engage with the memory of the Holocaust on a personal and affective level Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium Lee Carruthers, Charles Tepperman, 2023-01-15 At the turn of the millennium Canadian cinema appeared to have reached an apex of aesthetic and commercial transformation Domestic filmmaking has since declined in visibility the sense of celebrity once associated with independent directors has diminished projects garner less critical attention and concepts that made late twentieth century Canadian film legible have been reconsidered or displaced Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium examines this dramatic transformation and revitalizes our engagement with Canadian cinema in the contemporary moment presenting focused case studies of films and filmmakers and contextual studies of Canadian film policy labour and film festivals Contributors trace key developments since 2000 including the renouveau or Quebec New Wave Indigenous filmmaking i docs and diasporic experimental filmmaking Reflecting the way film in Canada mediates multiple cultures forging new affinities among anglophone francophone and Indigenous language examples this book engages familiar figures such as Denis Villeneuve Xavier Dolan Sarah Polley and Guy Maddin in the same breath as small budget independent films documentaries and experimental works that have emerged in the Canadian scene Fuelled by close attention to the films themselves and a desire to develop new scholarly approaches

Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium models a renewed commitment to keeping the conversation about Canadian cinema vibrant and alive From Grain to Pixel Giovanna Fossati, 2009 From Grain to Pixel attempts to bridge the fields of film archiving and academic research by addressing the discourse on film ontology and analysing how it affects the role of film archives Fossati proposes a new theoretization of film archival practice as the starting point for a renewed dialogue between film scholars and film archivists Book Jacket
