V. Mulcahy, 2016-11-21 This book places the study of public support for the arts and culture within the prism of public policy making It is explicitly comparative in casting cultural policy within a broad sociopolitical and historical framework Given the complexity of national communities there has been an absence of comparative analyses that would explain the wide variability in modes of cultural policy as reflections of public cultures and cultural identity The discussion is internationally focused and interdisciplinary Mulcahy contextualizes a wide variety of cultural policies and their relation to politics and identity by asking a basic question who gets their heritage valorized and by whom is this done The fundamental assumption is that culture is at the heart of public policy as it defines national identity and personal value Strategies Jørn Langsted, 1990 Critical Cultural Policy Studies Justin Lewis, Toby Miller, 2008-04-15 Critical Cultural Policy Studies A Reader brings together classic statements and contemporary views that illustrate how everyday culture is as much a product of policy and economic determinants as it is of creative and consumer impulses Cultural Democracy: The Way Festivals Affect Society Maria-Louisa Laopodi, 2003-07-13 The dissertation studies the extent to which festivals from a popular event for the masses evolved into exclusive events and shows how festivals affect society and are affected by it through practices in accordance with cultural democracy Festivals relation to society is explained through the following concept areas 1 The artist s role 2 The use of festivals 3 The European example 4 Cultural democracy 5 Cultural policy 6 Active participation 7 Cultural tourism 8 The media The dissertation identifies cultural policy active participation and the media as key areas of concern in order to attain a coherent culturally democratic society The study recognised that certain festivals and forms of art have been taken over by elite groups of people who exclude others from accessing them What is called mass culture appeared to include many more practices and manifestations of creativity than the perceived established arts How mass culture is seen is important in the way people are given freedom to preserve and express their cultural preferences and identities In this respect the media play an important role through their capacity to promote and supply culture The media use segmented functions of culture and influence people s behaviours Cultural Policy Victoria Durrer, Ali FitzGibbon, Kerry McCall Magan, 2025-10-30 Cultural Policy Perspectives on the Island of Ireland draws together a wide range of academic perspectives and disciplines that relate to cultural policy in the context of the island of Ireland Ireland and Northern Ireland Through the study of the unique context of this intertwined two polity island this collection aims to further the examination of the situated nature of cultural policy amongst people and place Contributions from media European integration festivals arts and education sustainable development and cultural participation and work bring attention to and open up the interdisciplinary dialogue on cultural policy studies on of and for the island and beyond By way of its particular environment this collection also serves as a call for greater recognition and reflexivity in cultural policy studies regarding how people and place define what we think we know about cultural policy This book will be of interest to local and international policy and cultural policy scholars as well as practitioners in policy arts culture and creativity The collection situates a range of industries practices and sectors in shared local complex and international contexts and frames revealing the multi level operation of policy governances from the domestic to the global The findings from the specific context of the island of Ireland thus have relevance for other nation states and regions with similar intertwined jurisdictions and resulting tensions More generally this body of multi and interdisciplinary academic research on and of Ireland deepens our understanding of locally situated but globally connected cross border and transnational cultural policy studies

The Young Researchers Conference on Cultural Policy and Cultural Diplomacy 21-22 August 2020 Assoc. Prof. Dr. Serhan ADA, We were in the mids of 2019 when we decided to organize a young researchers conference as the most important transnational event subsequent to the inauguration of the UNESCO Chair of Culture Policy and Cultural Diplomacy of Istanbul Bilgi University established in 2018 held together with the chairs working in the same field While deciding on the method content and form of participation of the conference we consulted with UNESCO chairs with which we have been in cooperation for a long time As a result we decided to invite young researchers who are in the early stages of their academic career irrespective of their age and who have had their master s degree and or conducting doctoral studies Our purpose was to ensure that they would start a dialogue with their colleagues in similar statuses and benefit from the comments of reviewers having experience in the profession through the assessment of their presentations We wished the conference that we planned to last two days to address the main themes of cultural policy Hence we projected holding of five sessions on the themes of Culture as Agent in International Relations Managing and Sharing Cultural Heritage Cities New Actors of Cultural Policy Cultural Industries Film as a Case and Culture and Arts in all Their Forms Our call for applications has been welcomed with considerable interest At that time another thing happened as well We wanted those young researchers would meet face to face get to know each other and exchange their views outside of the conference However the pandemic broke out and we were faced with the choices of postponing the conference or acknowledging to hold it online due to travel prohibitions and lockdowns As a result the second alternative prevailed to maintain the excitement of the studies of the researchers Our conference was held online while Covid 19 was reigning with all its severity on 21 22 August 2020 At the conference papers of a total of eighteen researchers in charge at universities or working professionally in the sector in four continents took place The fact that almost all of the researchers included the original features of the practice which emerged from the theoretical literature in different subfields of cultural policy but which they followed closely or were a part of directly in their analyzes was attention inviting At the same time it was possible to see in the presentations the traces of the mostly negative impacts of the international political environment which continues with tensions hot or cold conflicts and inequalities in addition to the oppressive political environment prevailing in the countries of today on cultural policy On the other hand the lack of presentation and discussion of enough examples concerning cultural policies at the city scale was noteworthy However the quest of the young ones working in these disciplines for new concepts and different methodological approaches was extremely clear

Wilmer, H. van Maanen, 2024-04-02 Theatre Worlds in Motion aims to clarify the different theatre traditions and practices in Western Europe from a historical and sociological perspective The book grew out of a perceived need among theatre scholars who had recognised that while they understood the theatre system of their own country they often found it difficult to discover how it compared with other countries The chapters analyse the basic components and dynamics of theatre systems in seventeen Western European nations in order to elucidate how the systems function in general and how they vary in different cultures The book provides a sense of what has been happening recently in particular countries and indicates how the theatre systems have developed over time and have led to the current practices and structures Each national chapter considers the historical tradition and place of theatre within the country and analyses the role of the state in fostering theatre during the last fifty years Material from the national chapters has been used in two general chapters at the beginning and end of the book to provide an overview to developments in all Western Europe The introductory chapter on decentralisation discusses the tendency amongst governments to encourage cultural development outside the national capital by providing subsidy for regional theatre venues and theatre companies and in many cases by developing the decision making and budgetary powers for the theatre to regional and local authorities The epilogue on the functioning of theatre examines the common structures of theatre in society as described in the seventeen national chapters and it proposes areas for future research
