Stratford Upon Avon Studies II Metaphysical Poetry:

The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 2 John Donne, Gary A. Stringer, 2000 Based on an exhaustive study of the manuscript and print history of Donne's poetry this edition presents newly edited critical texts of the poems and a comprehensive digest of the critical scholarly commentary on them from Donne's time forward Textual introductions briefly locate the poems in the context of Donne's life or poetic development outline the 17th century textual history of the poems and sketch the treatment of the text by modern editors A detailed textual apparatus presents variants collated from many sources and traces the lines of textual transmission Provided by publisher Studies in Seventeenth-Century English Literature, History and Bibliography, 2021-11-01 New Perspectives on the Life and Art of Richard Crashaw John Richard Roberts, 1990 A collection of ten original critical and historical essays on the life and art of Crashaw 1612-13-1649 one of the most neglected misunderstood and unappreciated of the major metaphysical poets The introduction surveys the history of Crashawian criticism and signals new directions for future scholarship Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 4.2 John Donne, 2021-11-02 This volume the ninth in the series of The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne presents newly edited critical texts of 25 love lyrics Based on an exhaustive study of the manuscripts and printed editions in which these poems have appeared Volume 4.2 details the genealogical history of each poem accompanied by a thorough prose discussion as well as a General Textual Introduction of the Songs and Sonets collectively The volume also presents a comprehensive digest of the commentary on these Songs and Sonets from Donne's time through 1999 Arranged chronologically within sections the material for each poem is organized under various headings that complement the volume's companions Volume 4.1 and Volume 4.3 English Literature, Theology and the Curriculum Liam Francis Gearon, 1999-01-10 The Theology in Dialogue Series explores the relationship between theology and different secular academic disciplines which appear within the degree programs of colleges and universities Each volume begins with a chapter and a reply providing a thoughtful justification for the interaction of theology and the particular subject This is followed by a theoretical analysis of this interaction and a range of case studies illustrating the situation in the classroom English Literature Theology and the Curriculum explores the nature and authority of religious writings and their influence on secular literature What makes it distinctive is the manner in which it investigates the textual dynamic between the two disciplines by combining both theory and case study in a single collection of writings It discusses interdisciplinary dialogue offers case studies on literature and theology from Anglo-Saxon verse to the twentieth century novel and looks at curriculum considerations The eminence and breadth of the contributors is outstanding Praise for English Literature Theology and the Curriculum A superbly rich collection as valuable to those involved in literary studies as to theologians It breathes life and real engagement Times Educational Supplement Fascinating and scholarly collection This is an excellent book Though some of the chapters are better than others none is a dud Its contributors and editor are to be congratulated Journal of Beliefs and Values These substantial essays deserve more extensive comment than a brief review permits Liam Gearon s chapter prompted this reviewer to embark on a reading of Brian Moore s work a rewarding undertaking for which his chapter proved an invaluable guide International Journal of Children s Spirituality Perhaps what is most noteworthy about Liam Gearon s edited volume is that it combines theory with practical applications and concludes with reflections on the implications for teaching ample food for thought for instructors designing courses in literature theology or interdisciplinary subjects Teaching Theology

Renaissance Magic and the Return of the Golden Age John S. Mebane,1992-01-01 For all their pride in seeing this world clearly the thinkers and artists of the English Renaissance were also fascinated by magic and the occult The three greatest playwrights of the period devoted major plays The Tempest Doctor Faustus The Alchemist to magic Francis Bacon often referred to it and it was ever present in the visual arts In Renaissance Magic and the Return of the Golden Age John S Mebane reevaluates the significance of occult philosophy in Renaissance thought and literature constructing the most detailed historical context for his subject yet attempted A Dictionary of Modern Critical Terms Roger Fowler,2016-09-19 This book first published in 1987 differs from many other dictionaries of criticism in concentrating less on time honoured rhetorical terms and more on conceptually flexible powerful terms Each entry consists of not simply a dictionary definition but an essay exploring the history and full significance of the term and its possibilities in critical discourse This title is an ideal basic reference text for literature students of all levels Twayne's English Authors Series ,1972 The Reinvention of Love Anthony Low,1993-11-11 In The Reinvention of Love Anthony Low argues that cultural economic and political change transformed the way poets from Sidney to Milton thought and wrote about love Examining the interface between social political and economic practices and individual psyches as reflected in literary texts Professor Low illuminates the connections between material circumstances perceptions and ideals Through detailed readings of the work of Sidney Donne Herbert Crashaw Carew and Milton he shows how from the late sixteenth century poets struggled to replace the older Petrarchan tradition with a form of love in harmony with a changing world and to reconcile human love and sacred devotion Donne fled the social world Carew made new accommodations with it Milton revised it For Milton sacred love cut off from communal norms verges on hatred while married love takes on the burden of assuaging loneliness in a threatening world Renaissance Genres Barbara Kiefer Lewalski,1986 Today genre studies are flourishing and nowhere more vigorously perhaps than in the field of Renaissance literature given the importance to Renaissance writers of questions of genre These studies have been nourished as Barbara Lewalski points out by the varied insights of contemporary literary theory More sophisticated conceptions of genre have led to a fuller appreciation of the complex and flexible Renaissance uses of literary forms The eighteen essays in this volume are striking in their diversity of stance and approach Three are addressed to genre theory explicitly and all reveal a concern with theoretical issues The contributors are Earl Miner Ann E
