Stravinskys Lunch:

Stravinsky's Lunch Drusilla Modjeska, 1999 Biography of Grace Cossington Smith and Stella Bowen two women artists born in Australia in the 1890s Compares their very different lives and how their lifestyles affected their work Discusses the people who influenced them and the ways in which their art developed Copiously illustrated including colour plates Includes references and index Author's other publications include Poppy The Orchard and Exiles at Home Australian women writers 1924 1945

Stravinsky's Lunch by Drusilla Modjeska Llewellyn Johns, 2002 A Writing Life Bernadette Brennan, 2017-04-03 This is literary critique and biography at its finest Australian Financial Review Helen Garner is one of Australia's most important and most admired writers She is revered for her fearless honesty in the pursuit of her craft But Garner also courts controversy not least because she refuses to be constrained by the rules of literary form She has never been afraid to write herself into her nonfiction and many of her own experiences help to shape her fiction But who is the I in Helen Garner's work Bernadette Brennan's A Writing Life is the first full length study of Garner's forty years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Brennan has had access to previously unavailable papers in Garner's archive and she provides a lively and rigorous reading of the books journals and correspondence of one of Australia's most beloved women of letters Dr Bernadette Brennan is an academic and researcher in contemporary Australian writing literature and ethics She is the author of a number of publications including a monograph on Brian Castro and two edited collections Just Words Australian Authors Writing for Justice UQP 2008 and Ethical Investigations Essays on Australian Literature and Poetics Vagabond 2008 She lives in Sydney Garner has always been a boundary crosser Refusing the constrictions of literary genre she has sought to write across and craft her own versions of them She readily admits to a me character in all her work That character is a carefully constructed self In her fiction she unsettles her readers assumptions about protagonists by creating Helen characters most blatantly in Little Helen's Sunday Afternoon Habe Dank and The Spare Room In so doing she demonstrates the complexity of a constructed fictional self Billed as the first full length study of Garner's 40 years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Well who wouldn't want to read that Australian Bernadette Brennan's ingenious A Writing Life Helen Garner and Her Work which gets around the subject's resistance to biography by viewing her life through her writing as Garner herself does Susan Wyndham Best Books of 2017 Australian Book Review Brennan's depiction of Garner's fearless approach to the very difficult subjects of The First Stone Joe Cinque's Consolation and This House of Grief is beautifully modulated and a real triumph She has captured and interpreted an important writer and her work beautifully Books Publishing Brennan has produced a literary portrait that more than does its subject justice It is not a biography Garner was quite clear that she didn't want that but because Garner is so often present in her own writing it's inevitable that her life is reflected in the discussion of her works This helps put her works in context and a picture emerges of an amazing writer

Bernadette Brennan has done us all a great favour in delivering this immensely enjoyable book Mark Rubbo Readings. Brennan is an astute and sensitive reader of Garner's work Big Issue. The writing is clear, measured and graceful throughout. The readings of the fiction are astute and straightforward, tracing Garner's development from the allegedly unstructured Monkey Grip which in fact offers a formal equivalent to the push-me-pull-you vagaries of love and junk through the perfection of The Children's Bach and the experiments in voice and style in Postcards from Surfers to the late style bareness and hardness of The Spare Room. Sydney Morning Herald. This book offers an illuminating discussion of Garner's boundary-crossing work. Its own magic lies in bringing elements of memoir and criticism into an absorbing conversation that begins with a rich contextualisation of Garner's work and extends into the literary and ethical questions with which Brennan has long been concerned. Australian Book Review. Absorbing, informative and engaging read. Brennan examines both assumptions by tracing Garner's steps to becoming a full-time writer in a style that is both thoughtful and readable. Australian Book Review. Bernadette Brennan brings a calm eye and an easy grace to her descriptions of Garner's life, literature and impact on Australia's cultural and socio-political landscape. She draws a more complex picture of one of our best-known and most skilled writers than we've enjoyed in a full-length volume before. A Bigger, Brighter World. Probably my favourite book so far this year. A marvellous tribute to one of Australia's great writers. Mark Rubbo: The Best Books We've Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings. Bernadette Brennan's first full-length study of Helen Garner's work. A Writing Life has inspired me to pile Garner's books on my bedside table and to look at each of them again with fresh eyes. The Best Books We've Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings. A remarkably shrewd study of Garner's work, knitted with a tender representation of her personal life. Mascara Literary Review. Brennan performs a kind of call for literature: its criticism as well as creation. Sydney Review of Books. You might also include academic Bernadette Brennan's superb literary portrait of Garner, A Writing Life: Helen Garner and Her Work, which combines a close analysis of Garner's work with illuminating insights into her life. Garner gave Brennan unprecedented access to her archives and spent long hours in conversation with her. It shows. Sydney Morning Herald. Can't Put Down. Titles for Summer. A book for those who want to understand Garner's work more. But it is also a book which makes clear the significant contribution Garner has made to Australian literature. And in doing that, it is itself a significant book. Whispering Gums.

Kathleen O'Connor of Paris Amanda Curtin,2018-11-01 What does it mean to live a life in pursuit of art In 1906 Kathleen O Connor left conservative Perth where her famous father's life had ended in tragedy She had her sights set on a career in thrilling bohemian Paris More than a century later novelist Amanda Curtin faces her own questions of life and of art as she embarks on a journey in Kate's footsteps Part biography part travel narrative this is the story of an artist in a foreign land who with limited resources and despite the impacts of war and loss worked and exhibited in Paris for over forty years Kate's distinctive figure paintings portraits and still lifes highly prized today form an inseparable part of the telling

The Virgin in the Treehouse Willemien De Villiers,2007 A South African novel that involves distinctive personalities a woman who lives in a tree house and awaits immaculate conception a failed artist whose deepest desires are only revealed to her in forgotten dreams a wise woman who lives in a red car a tragic domestic worker who only experiences atrocity and a King whose chest is home to a bird of paradise this extraordinary story tells of two sisters and their family as they try to understand the landscapes of their lives With beauty provocation and skill this carefully woven narrative explores the battleground of human relationships and explores the personal and familial consequences of mother daughter estrangement

How to End a Story Helen Garner,2025-03-11 For the first time ever collected here are all three volumes of the diaries of Helen Garner inviting readers into the world behind the novels and nonfiction of a literary force The name Helen Garner commands near universal acclaim A master of many literary forms Garner is best known for her frank unsparing and intricate portraits of ordinary people in difficult times New York Times But the inspiration for it all was her extensive collection of diaries fastidiously kept intricately written and delightfully dishy unspooling the inner lives of her insular world in bohemian Melbourne Now for the first time all three volumes of Garner's inimitable diaries are collected into one book Spanning more than two decades each finely etched volume reveals Garner like never before a fledgling author publishing her lightning rod debut novel in the late 70s in the throes of a consuming affair in the late 80s and clinging to a disintegrating marriage in the late 90s And all the while they bear witness to one of the world's great writers hard at work Devastatingly honest and disarmingly funny How to End a Story is a portrait of loss betrayal and the sheer force of a woman's anger but also of resilience quotidian moments of joy the immutable ties of motherhood and the regenerative power of a room of one's own

Mapping Lives Peter France,William St Clair,2004-09-23 Why biography Lives of writers thinkers and artists while unfailingly popular with readers raise all kinds of theoretical problems This volume explores the different faces and functions of the genre in a range of European settings from antiquity to the present
