

A dense collage of vintage paper ephemera. At the top, a newspaper clipping from 'The Morning Herald' is visible. Below it, a large, ornate 'Beverly Hills' sign with a central crest is prominent. To the left, a small illustration shows three women in period dress. In the center, a diamond-shaped playing card with a colorful pattern is surrounded by other cards, including a heart card and a card with a portrait of a man. Below the diamond card, two dominoes are placed. To the right, a dark card with the word 'Stray' in cursive and 'Colonial' below it is visible. At the bottom, a card for 'The Bailie' with the tagline 'MY CONSCIENCE' is seen. Other smaller cards, some with text like 'THE CHURCH' and 'THE BAILIE', and various printed notices are scattered throughout the collage.
