Office of Planning Coordination, 1969 Direct Action David Graeber, 2009 A radical anthropologist studies the global justice movement Culture Wars Christopher Clark, Wolfram Kaiser, 2003-08-14 Across nineteenth century Europe the emergence of constitutional and democratic nation states was accompanied by intense conflict between Catholics and anticlerical forces At its peak this conflict touched virtually every sphere of social life schools universities the press marriage and gender relations burial rites associational culture the control of public space folk memory and the symbols of nationhood In short these conflicts were culture wars in which the values and collective practices of modern life were at stake These culture wars have generally been seen as a chapter in the history of specific nation states Yet it has recently become increasingly clear that the Europe of the mid and later nineteenth century should also be seen as a common politico cultural space This book breaks with the conventional approach by setting developments in specific states within an all European and comparative context offering a fresh and revealing perspective on one of modernity's formative conflicts Ecological Politics Greta Gaard, 1998-05-11 AN ILLUMINATING ACCOUNT OF TWO INTERCONNECTED SOCIAL MOVEMENTS FROM THEIR GRASSROOTS ORIGINS THROUGH THE 1996 GREEN PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN Both ecofeminism and Green politics have played an important role in the radical environmental movement As a theory and a movement bringing together feminism environmentalism socialism and peace activism ecofeminism began taking shape in the U S by 1980 Four years later many ecofeminists participated in founding and developing the U S Green movement Where are these movements today A member of both movements Greta Gaard bases her analysis on personal experience as well as extensive secondary sources and interviews with key theorists activists and speakers across the United States She describes the paths environmental causes the feminist peace movement the feminist spirituality movement the animal liberation movement and the anti toxics movement as well as experiences of interconnectedness that have led women and a few men to articulate an ecofeminist perspective The book illustrates the development of the Greens from a national movement into a political party and defines the factions the Left Greens the Youth Greens and the Green Politics Network that underlay the debates during Ralph Nader's 1996 presidential campaign She sees the history of these three groups as stages in the transition from a leftist and sometimes anarchist focus to an emphasis on electoral political action that places the Green movement squarely within the pattern of other social movements around the world Gaard's analysis illuminates the nature and direction of each of these important movements and the pressures and conflicts experienced by all social movements at the end of the twentieth century

Youth Movements and Elections in Eastern Europe Olena Nikolayenko, 2017-10-12 At the turn of the twenty first century a tide of nonviolent youth movements swept across Eastern Europe Young people demanded political change in repressive political regimes that emerged since the collapse of communism The Serbian social movement Otpor Resistance played a vital role in bringing down Slobodan Milosevic in 2000 Inspired by Otpor's example similar challenger organizations were formed in Azerbaijan Belarus Georgia and Ukraine The youth movements however differed in the extent to which they could mobilize citizens against the authoritarian governments on the eve of national elections This book argues that the movement's tactics and state countermoves explain in no small degree divergent social movement outcomes Using data from semi structured interviews with former movement participants public opinion polls government publications non governmental organization NGO reports and newspaper articles the book traces state movement interactions in five post communist societies Azerbaijan Belarus Georgia Serbia and Ukraine

NIDA Research Monograph, 1976 The Truth about Crime Jean Comaroff, John L. Comaroff, 2016-12-05 This new book by the well known anthropologists Jean and John L Comaroff explores the global preoccupation with criminality in the early twenty first century a preoccupation strikingly disproportionate in most places and for most people to the risks posed by lawlessness to the conduct of everyday life Ours in an epoch in which law making law breaking and law enforcement are ever more critical registers in which societies construct contest and confront truths about themselves an epoch in which criminology broadly defined has displaced sociology as the privileged means by which the social world knows itself They also argue that as the result of a tectonic shift in the triangulation of capital the state and governance the meanings attached to crime and with it the nature of policing have undergone significant change also that there has been a palpable muddying of the lines between legality and illegality between corruption and conventional business even between crime and policing which exist nowadays in ever greater hyphenated complicity Thinking through Crime and Policing is therefore an excursion into the contemporary Order of Things or rather into the metaphysic of disorder that saturates the late modern world indeed has become its leitmotif It is also a meditation on sovereignty and citizenship on civility class and race on the law and its transgression on the political economy of representation
