Ethnography as Christian Theology and Ethics Christian Scharen, Aana Marie Vigen, 2011-04-28 This book is a primary resource in the new and growing field of Christian Ethnography In response to a variety of critical intellectual currents post colonial post modern and post liberal scholars in Christian theology and ethics are increasingly taking up the tools of ethnography as a means to ask fundamental moral questions and to make more compelling and credible moral claims Privileging particularity rather than the more traditional effort to achieve universal or at least generalizable norms in making claims regarding the Christian life echoes the most fundamental insight of the Christian tradition that God is known most fully in Jesus of Nazareth Echoing this scandal of particularity at the heart of the Christian tradition theologians and ethicists involved in ethnographic research draw on the particular to seek out answers to core questions of their discipline who God is and how we become the people we are how to conceptualize moral agency in relation to God and the world and how to flesh out the content of conceptual categories such as justice that help direct us in our daily decisions and guiding institutions

They Called Us Love Deborah Meroff, 2018-10-18 Going to Africa would cost April everything She went anyway From a young age April Holden was diagnosed with chronic health problems that restricted what she could and could not do Growing up in St Helens Merseyside April was a frail child who knew pain and resistance her whole life But at just seven years old she came to faith and was convinced that God had called her to leave her home behind and move to Africa When in university she was finally old enough to apply to work with street children in Africa but was turned down That didn't stop her Nothing would After training to become a teacher April applied again to leave the UK behind and serve God in Africa This time she got a step closer to her calling she was sent to Egypt for training Soon after her chance came She transferred to one of the most tumultuous war torn regions of North Africa There she set up homes for boys scarred by war fleeing violence seeking safety There she God do the impossible and offer a beacon of hope in an area of conflict and fear She also saw her own life thrust into danger as political shifts had turned many of the population against anyone who looked like her like the American forces that were now invading After escapes that were too close for comfort April returned to the UK But her work wasn't finished yet A remarkable story of one woman's complete faith in God

They Called Us Love is a moving and powerful real life story of mission and ministry

Urban Ecclesiology Pascal D. Bazzell, 2015-05-21 Pascal D Bazzell brings the marginal ecclesiology of a Filipino ecclesial community facing homelessness FECH into contemporary ecclesiological conversation in order to deepen the ecumenical understanding of today's ecclesial reality He contributes relevant data to support a theory of an ecclesial oriented paradigm that fosters ecclesial communities within homeless populations There is an extensive dialogue occurring between ecclesiologies church planting theories or urban missions and the urban poor Yet the situation with the homeless population is almost entirely overlooked The majority of urban mission textbooks do not acknowledge an ecclesial oriented state of being and suggest that the street level environment is a place where no discipleship can occur and no church should exist By presenting the FECH's case study Bazzell emphasizes that it is possible to live on the streets and to grow in the faith of God as an ecclesial community To be able to describe the FECH's ecclesial narrative Bazzell develops a local ecclesiological methodology that aims to bridge the gap between more traditional systematic and theoretical ideal ecclesiology and practical oriented ecclesiology e.g. congregational studies in order to hold together theological and social understandings of the church in its local reality He articulates a theological framework for the FECH to reflect on who they are the essence of identity studies who they are in relationship to God the essence of theological studies and what that means for believers in that community as they relate to God and to each other in ways that are true to who they are and to who God intends them to be the essence of ecclesial studies The research provides a seldom heard empirical tour into the FECH's social world and communal identity The theological findings from the FECH's hermeneutical work on the Gospel of Mark reveal an understanding of church being developed as gathering around Jesus that creates a space for God's presence to be embodied in their ordinary relationships and activities and to invite others to participate in that gathering Moreover it addresses ecclesial issues of the supernatural world honor shame values and further develop the neglected image of the familia Dei in classical ecclesiology that encapsulates well the FECH's nature mission and place vulnerabilities Johannes J. Knoetze, Valentin Kozhuharov, 2020-12-31 This research addresses the gap that is present in both missiology and family and youth ministry Missiology does not focus on children and youth specifically while this is the largest population in the developing world On the other hand family and youth ministry has a more pastoral than missional approach not always taking cognisance of contexts like globalisation Thus the purpose of the book is to address the sometimes unintended and unnoticed influence of globalisation on the mission of the church with a specific focus on children youth and family For this purpose the International Association for Mission Studies study group for children youth and families coming from different parts of the world decided to describe the powers inequalities and vulnerabilities of children youth and families in a globalised world from their specific contexts Although the most prominent research methodology was critical literature studies methods like autoethnographic and empirical methods were also used No decisions were made on a specific method of research for this publication This publication can be viewed as an interdisciplinary and intra disciplinary because it deals with social sciences anthropology psychology missiology systematic theology and practical theology Mission Handbook 1998-2000 John A.
