Street Corner Theology:

Street Corner Theology Carlyle Fielding Stewart, 1996 The stories of eight people who have developed their own theologies from everyday life on the streets of black America Each narrative relates a personal interpretation of God

Religion, Religionlessness and Contemporary Western Culture Stephen Plant, Ralf K. Wüstenberg, 2008 This first volume of the new series International Bonhoeffer Interpretations IBI contains several impulses for translating Bonhoeffer's key ideas on Religion Religionlessness and the Church into current contexts These impulses vary from prospects for a Christian university looking at Bonhoeffer's distinction between the ultimate and the penultimate things to an ethical understanding of Bonhoeffer's as if theology in the light of Luther's distinction between law and gospel from a fresh perspective on Bonhoeffer's religionless Christianity in the light of his thought on oikumene to a Christological re-interpretation of repentance as the contribution of religionless Christianity to the task of the Church in the United States of America The impulses are framed by programmatic contributions suggesting a framework for reading Bonhoeffer in the 21st century in his hermeneutic exploration of Bonhoeffer's theology and the crises of Western culture and analyzing religionless Christianity in a complexly religious and secular world

Soultsunami Leonard Sweet, 2009-10-14 Road rage animal rights cyberporn crystal healing doctor assisted suicide everywhere we look the signs all tell us we're living in a post-Christian culture Or are we Leonard Sweet cultural historian preacher futurist creatologist and preeminent thinker firmly believes we live today in a pre-Christian society fraught with challenges dangers critical choices and above all tremendous potential for the church The outcome will depend on our response to today's flood of religious pluralism that threatens to sweep us away What will we do Deny the reality of the incoming surge Hunker in the bunker hermetically sealing ourselves in an increasingly out of touch church counterculture Or will we boldly hoist our sails and looking to God for guidance and strength move with confidence and purpose over the waves SoulTsunami is a fascinating even mind numbing look at the implications of our changing world for the church in the 21st century With uncanny wisdom and trademark wit Leonard Sweet explores ten key futures precision guesses that fall short of predictions expanding on and relating topics ranging from the reentry of theism and spiritual longing in contemporary society to the impact of modern technology to the global renaissance to models for the church to reach people caught in the cultural maelstrom Here are eye opening perspectives on the church from within and from without from its surrounding society Lively well written and provocative SoulTsunami is a clarion call for Christians to remove their tunnel vision glasses and take a good look at the swelling postmodern flood It also is a voice of encouragement affirming the church in its role as God's lifeboat And it is a passionate prophetic guide pointing the way to reach a world swept out to sea

On the Scope and Truth of Theology Robert Cummings Neville, 2006-06-05 This is the first volume of Robert Cumming Neville's magnum opus Theology as Symbolic Engagement Neville is the premier American systematic theologian of our time His work is profoundly influenced by Paul Tillich Friedrich Schleiermacher and the American pragmatists John Dewey and Charles Sanders Pierce From Tillich he takes the notion of religion art and morality as symbol and the notion that religion is the substance of culture and culture the form of religion Thus theology is symbolic engagement with cultural forms and Neville explores the ways that such engagement occurs among various religious traditions One of the most important tasks in theology is to devise ways of testing correcting or affirming claims that we had been unable to question before This book will argue that system in theology is not merely correlating assertions but rather building perspectives from which we can render the various parts of theology vulnerable for assessment In fact one of the unique features of this book is its engagement with other religions Such dialogue has been a feature of Neville s work from the beginning Theology as Symbolic Engagement breaks the boundaries of systematic theology and moves away from the static character that characterizes such enterprises from Barth onward Instead Neville s book showcases the dynamic character of all theology The hallmark of this entire project is its effort to show theology to be hypothetical and to make it vulnerable to correction

Soul Survivors Carlyle Fielding Stewart,1997-01-01 This perceptive study of African American spirituality sees the experience of the African American church as an example for all other peoples in their struggles for liberation from the world s shackles

Homiletical Theology David Schnasa Jacobsen,2015-02-13 Karl Barth famously argued that all theology is sermon preparation But what if all sermon preparation is actually theology This book pursues a thoroughgoing theological vision for the practice of preaching as a way of doing theology The idea is not just that homiletics is the realm of theological application That would leave preaching in the position of simply implementing a theology already arrived at Instead the vision in these pages is of a form of theology that begins with preaching itself its practice its theories and its contexts Homiletical theology is thus a unique way of doing theology even a constructive theological task in its own right Homiletician David Schnasa Jacobsen has assembled several of the leading lights of contemporary homiletics to help to see its task ever more deeply as theological yet in profoundly diverse ways Along the way readers will not only discover how homileticians do theology homiletically but will deepen the way in which they understand their own preaching as a theological task Contributors include Ronald J Allen Professor of Preaching and Gospels and Letters at Christian Theological Seminary John S McClure Charles G Finney Professor of Preaching and Worship at Vanderbilt Divinity School Alyce M McKenzie George W and Nell Ayers Le Van Professor of Preaching and Worship at Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University Michael

Pasquarello III Granger E and Anna A Fisher Professor of Preaching at Asbury Theological Seminary Luke A Powery Dean of the Chapel and Associate Professor of the Practice of Homiletics at Duke University Teresa Stricklen Eisenlohr Ph D Associate for Worship Office of Theology and Worship at the Presbyterian Church U S A Necropolitics Christophe D. Ringer, 2020-11-17 Necropolitics The Religious Crisis of Mass Incarceration in America explores the pernicious and persistent presence of mass incarceration in American public life Christophe D Ringer argues that mass incarceration persists largely because the othering and criminalization of Black people in times of crisis is a significant part of the religious meaning of America This book traces representations from the Puritan era to the beginning of the War on Drugs in the 1980s to demonstrate their centrality in this issue revealing how these images have become accepted as fact and used by various aspects of governance to wield the power to punish indiscriminately Ringer demonstrates how these vilifying images contribute to racism and political economy creating a politics of death that uses jails and prisons to conceal social inequalities and political exclusion The Princeton Theological Review ,1912 Includes section Reviews of recent literature

Religion in the Roman Empire Jörg Rüpke, Greg Woolf, 2021-10-06 The Roman Empire was home to a fascinating variety of different cults and religions Its enormous extent the absence of a precisely definable state religion and constant exchanges with the religions and cults of conquered peoples and of neighbouring cultures resulted in a multifaceted diversity of religious convictions and practices This volume provides a compelling view of central aspects of cult and religion in the Roman Empire among them the distinction between public and private cult the complex interrelations between different religious traditions their mutually entangled developments and expansions and the diversity of regional differences rituals religious texts and artefacts Faces of Religion Danell Perry-Jenkins, 2011-07-29 Faces of Religion is a dynamic book for all nationalities around the globe This book shares vital information about the Historical and Biblical backgrounds concerning all the religions around the world This book is an Evangelistic mission that has been written to offer salvation to all people It speaks much on a social change for society as children of God and a call for repentance through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ It shares how religion can harm an individual a community and a cultural of people without having a clear understanding of Biblical truth The African Diaspora and the Study of Religion T. Trost, 2007-12-25 This book focuses on the location of the religious heritage of Africa within the academic study of religion including indigenous African religions African Christianities African American forms of Islam the religions of African Americans Afro Caribbean religions and Afro Brazilian religions History and the Study of Religion Stanley Stowers, 2024 How does one understand religion Can one explain religion How does one understand the craft and discipline of the historian How can one best bring together the study of religion with the craft and discipline of the historian I am a historian who works in the study of religion and believe that the present intellectual moment offers enormous in some ways unprecedented opportunities both in the study of religion and historiography But at the same time difficulties and dangers loom together with the opportunities My specialty and prime set of examples lie in the study of ancient Mediterranean religion if indeed there is something that can rightly be called Mediterranean religion or even called religion Many specialists in the study of religion and also many of those who study ancient cultures doubt or even reject outright religion as a cross historical category on the one hand and on the other anything common about religion across the ancient Mediterranean And some cognitive scientists who against religion specialists have argued for the centrality of gods to religion then agree with the skeptics that religion is not a coherent social object a social kind I will argue that long discredited forms of anti realism and untenable anthropocentrism haunt both groups Among other areas I work in Christianity and Judaism Do they belong to Mediterranean religion One can easily see how coming to an understanding of what religion is and what Mediterranean religion is form key questions I will argue that religion is a robust realistic entity a social kind and that ancient Mediterranean religion even with all of its great diversity operated with some key common principles It is no secret that Christianity and Judaism have presented themselves as unique and essentially untouched by an inferior and degenerate religiosity that characterized everyone else in the Mediterranean History looks different when one dispenses with such normatively heavy freight and situates the two within rather than outside of Mediterranean religion

Studying Religion, Past and Present Nickolas P. Roubekas,Dimitris Xygalatas,Luther H. Martin,Donald Wiebe,2024-09-05 Celebrating the contributions of Panayotis Pachis to the field this book discusses the past present and future of the study of religion in antiquity and modernity Panayotis Pachis has dedicated his celebrated career at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki to the study of various aspects of ancient religions The contents of this book reflect Pachis conviction that the study of religious ideas and practices should be focused on three pillars the study of history the formulation and application of theoretical frameworks and the utilization of traditional as well as innovative methodological tools Chapters range from the scientific study of Roman Graeco religions cultural evolution and neurocognitive theories in the history and study of religion to a look at why we need an integrative approach to study religion past and present

The Bridge Michael W. McGowan,2015-05-04 Philosophers of religion and theologians have long wrestled with the concept of revelation Does God reveal truth to human subjects primarily through sacred texts or audible voices Through inner experiences or pronouncements of religious leaders What is the relationship between the truths given in revelation and those discoverable by reason Revelation is a challenge not only to scholars but also for churchgoers How can the same God command one person to do one thing and another to do something quite different In The Bridge Michael McGowan explores how a number of great twentieth and twenty first century thinkers understand the concept of revelation Using insights from their work and some recent advances in literary theory and communication studies he constructs a model of revelation in which symbol and narrative figure heavily Ancient ideas are given new life in this contemporary explication of the nature of revelation God as the Revealer and revelation s implications

Religion and Sport in Japan Zachary T. Smith,Dennis J. Frost,Stephen G. Covell,2024-09-30 The sports world s attention was focused on Japan for the Tokyo 2020

Summer Olympics and Paralympics The years long buildup to and aftermath of the games occurred in the midst of the global pandemic which delayed the event until 2021 Given all of this there is perhaps no better time to delve into an often overlooked but critical facet of sport in Japan religion Religion has long been a part of the Japanese sport tradition from Shugend practitioners offering sumo bouts to the gods to soccer players of all ages praying for success at Shint shrines from the use of meditation and ritual in martial arts to gain focus or superhuman abilities to religious organizations sponsoring sporting events and teams and school sports clubs Religion and Sport in Japan brings together historians and sport and religious studies specialists from Japan the US and Europe to address sport s ties to corporate and national identity politics environmentalism ritual and sacred space Major themes discussed include the spiritual geographies of sport sport as invented tradition technologies of self material culture and civil religion The chapters are written so that sport historians with no background in the study of Japan or religious studies scholars who have never before examined the world of sport will find the material accessible To provide further grounding for non field specialists the volume begins with two background chapters that introduce sport studies in Japan and the study of religion and sport The Practice of Salvation Patterson Du Bois,1913 Twentieth Century ,1890 Feminist Narratives and the Sociology of Religion Nancy Nason-Clark,Mary Jo Neitz,2001 In 14 essays US and Canadian sociologists of religion cultivate the growing gender and feminist consciousness in their profession and challenge established scholars and graduate students to be cognizant of it They combine biography and scholarly pursuits academic rigor and personal passion There is no index c Book News Inc
