Theatre and Empowerment Richard Boon, Jane Plastow, 2004-08-19 Theatre and Empowerment examines the ability of drama theatre dance and performance to empower communities of very different kinds and it does so from a multi cultural perspective The communities involved include poverty stricken children in Ethiopia and the Indian sub continent disenfranchised Native Americans in the USA and young black men in Britain victims of violence in South Africa and Northern Ireland and a threatened agricultural town in Italy The book asserts the value of performance as a vital agent of necessary social change and makes its arguments through the close examination from inside practice of the success not always complete of specific projects in their practical and cultural contexts Practitioners and commentators ask how performance in its widest sense can play a part in community activism on a scale larger than the individual one off project by helping communities find their own liberating and creative voices
