Street Kids And Streetscapes Panhandling Politics And Prophecies:

Street Kids & Streetscapes Marjorie Mayers, 2001 This book illuminates how panhandling acts as the embodiment of the experiences of street life for kids as well as how the streetscape functions as the interface between street kids and the mainstream

Street Kids Kristina E. Gibson, 2011 Street outreach workers comb public places such as parks vacant lots and abandoned waterfronts to search for young people who are living out in public spaces if not always in the public eye Street Kids opens a window to the largely hidden world of street youth drawing on their detailed and compelling narratives to give new insight into the experiences of youth homelessness and youth outreach Kristina Gibson argues that the enforcement of quality of life ordinances in New York City has spurred hyper mobility amongst the city's street youth population and has serious implications for social work with homeless youth Youth in motion have become socially invisible and marginalized from public spaces where social workers traditionally contact them jeopardizing their access to the already limited opportunities to escape street life The culmination of a multi year ethnographic investigation into the lives of street outreach workers and their kids on the streets of New York City Street Kids illustrates the critical role that public space regulations and policing play in shaping the experience of youth homelessness and the effectiveness of street outreach

The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research Norman K. Denzin (ed), Yvonna S. Lincoln, 2005 A thoroughly revised updated edition this volume includes new chapters on auto ethnography critical race theory queer theory testimonies

Education's Prisoners Ken McGrew, 2008 Education's Prisoners sheds light on the complicated relationship among the educational system the political economy and the prison industrial system in the United States Working within the tradition of critical theory this critical ethnography posits a more than accidental connection among these phenomena and engages in a debate with existing literature within critical theory related to structure and agency The life stories of the participants and their perspectives on their social circumstances provide a tool for deepening and questioning our understandings of these matters In addition to its substantive findings this book allows us to see in human terms how structures and forces in society contribute to the outcomes of school failure and incarceration that are usually measured in percentages and correlations It suggests ways of improving classroom experiences and improving the life chances of young people

The Landscape of Qualitative Research Norman K. Denzin, 2008 The Landscape of Qualitative Research Third Edition attempts to put the field of qualitative research in context Part I provides background on the field starting with history then action research and the academy and the politics and ethics of qualitative research Part II isolates what we regard as the major historical and contemporary paradigms now structuring and influencing qualitative research in the human disciplines The chapters move from competing paradigms positivist postpositivist constructivist critical theory to specific interpretive perspectives feminisms racialized discourses cultural studies sexualities and queer theory Part III considers the future of qualitative research This text is designed for graduate students taking classes in social research methods and qualitative methods as well as researchers throughout the social sciences and in some fields within the humanities      The Bloomsbury Handbook of Ethics of Care in Transformative Leadership in Higher Education Mary Drinkwater, Yusef Waghid, 2024-11-14 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Ethics of Care in Transformative Leadership in Higher Education explores how the use of different ethic of care lenses can be used to nurture and sustain relationships within between and beyond humans as part of the role and responsibilities of HEIs in addressing local and global crises and change With contributions from four continents the handbook brings together multi contextual perspectives to explore ethics of care in the development of the field Topics explored include leadership praxis pedagogy well being cultivating and sustaining relationships within and between institutions post human relationships and responsibilities Countries covered include Australia Canada Guyana South Africa the UK and the USA The book forms part of the Bloomsbury Handbooks of Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education collection brought together by Mary Drinkwater      Indigenous Homelessness Evelyn Peters, Julia Christensen, 2016-10-28 Being homeless in one's homeland is a colonial legacy for many Indigenous people in settler societies The construction of Commonwealth nation states from colonial settler societies depended on the dispossession of Indigenous peoples from their lands The legacy of that dispossession and related attempts at assimilation that disrupted Indigenous practices languages and cultures including patterns of housing and land use can be seen today in the disproportionate number of Indigenous people affected by homelessness in both rural and urban settings Essays in this collection explore the meaning and scope of Indigenous homelessness in the Canada Australia and New Zealand They argue that effective policy and support programs aimed at relieving Indigenous homelessness must be rooted in Indigenous conceptions of home land and kinship and cannot ignore the context of systemic inequality institutionalization landlessness among other things that stem from a history of colonialism Indigenous Homelessness Perspectives from Canada New Zealand and Australia provides a comprehensive exploration of the Indigenous experience of homelessness It testifies to ongoing cultural resilience and lays the groundwork for practices and policies designed to better address the conditions that lead to homelessness among Indigenous peoples      Critical Constructivism Primer Joe L. Kincheloe, 2005 The Critical Constructivism Primer introduces education students to the study of knowledge how it is inscribed by particular values and produced in problematic ways whose interests it serves and how it shapes the identities of those who consume it Critical constructivism is an epistemological position that examines the process by which knowledge is socially constructed Joe L Kincheloe takes readers through the basic concepts and alerts them to the dangers of objectivism reductionism and the pathological views of self and world that emerge if students and educators are unaware of the construction of knowledge by dominant power interests The book is essential reading for individuals who want to become researchers and educators      SoTL Research Methodologies Michelle Yeo, Janice Miller-Young, Karen Manarin, 2023-11-08 Combining real examples with a roadmap of how to construct studies analyze results and share work this book serves as a primary research methodology text for the field of Scholarship of Teaching and Learning SoTL The volume seeks to explore key aspects of SoTL that are often missing in past frameworks research based ontologies epistemologies and ethical axiologies Chapters map out the expansive continuum of SoTL by detailing its history and key work while incorporating Indigenous perspectives on pedagogy and research methodologies The text also features methods of qualitative and quantitative data generation essential for SoTL such as conducting interviews and focus groups procuring data through questionnaires and artifact observation and sharing results for dissemination in traditional and public scholarship A comprehensive guide for conducting SoTL research this book illustrates a broad array of contexts and a spectrum of research methodologies to expand enrich and support both novice and experienced SoTL practitioners and researchers in answering the contexts and questions at the heart of teaching and learning Teachers as

Researchers Joe L. Kincheloe,2003 This book provides a critique of teachers work in a era marked by top down technical standards It urges teachers to engage in the debate on educational research by undertaking meaningful teacher research

Leading with Feminist Care Ethics in Higher Education Christie Schultz,2022-11-15 This book explores how academic leaders throughout higher education experience and practice care and the ethics of care Drawing on a narrative inquiry study of experiences and practices of feminist care ethics in higher education leadership Schultz counters academic norms including expectations of competition and criticism across all activities by uncovering the common experiences of academic leaders who intentionally adopt practices guided by an ethics of care and relationality Within the context of institutions of higher education responding to present day social movements the book highlights how practices of care centered leadership can enable change that begins on campus and reaches outwards to positively impact the community Child and Youth

Care Alan Pence,Jennifer White,2011-07-01 Critical and postmodern perspectives have been largely underexplored in the field of child and youth care This book addresses the gap showcasing cutting edge approaches to policy pedagogy and practice from diverse perspectives and professional settings The authors of Child and Youth Care challenge deep seated assumptions about child and youth care by reinterpreting core concepts such as ethics and outcomes and raising questions about underlying goals and premises Can the ends of practice be separated from the means For whose benefit are interventions designed By recognizing a range of social and political influences on children and youth this volume bears witness to exciting developments in child and youth care

Surveilling and Securing the Olympics Vida Bajc,2016-04-29 This book analyses the relationship between the Olympic Games with its ethos of openness and collectivism and the security concerns and surveillance technologies that are becoming increasingly prevalent in the organisation of public events Life on the Streets and Commons, 1600 to the Present Dublin Seminar for New England Folklife,2007 Teachers as

Researchers (Classic Edition) Joe Kincheloe,2012-01-30 Teachers as Researchers urges teachers as both producers and consumers of knowledge to engage in the debate about educational research by undertaking meaningful research themselves Teachers are being encouraged to carry out research in order to improve their effectiveness in the classroom but this book suggests that they also reflect on and challenge the reductionist and technicist methods that promote a top down system of education. It argues that only by engaging in complex critical research will teachers rediscover their professional status, empower their practice in the classroom and improve the quality of education for their pupils. Now released to introduce this classic guide for teachers, the new edition of Teachers as Researchers now also includes an introductory chapter by Shirley R. Steinberg that sets the book within the context of both the subject and the historical perspective. In addition, she also provides information on some key writing that extends the bibliography of this influential book, thereby bringing the material fully up to date with current research. Postgraduate students of education and experienced teachers will find much to inspire and encourage them in this definitive book.

Zuhause im Übergang Ute Marie Metje, 2005      Adolescence, 2003

Poverty and the Homeless Mary E. Williams, 2004. Poverty and homelessness are sadly evident in America's cities and even in some of the nation's rural areas. Contributors examine the root causes of poverty and what should be done to help the poor and the homeless.

Critical Thinking and Learning Danny Weil, Joe L. Kincheloe, 2004-04-30. The editors of this book employ social cognitive linguistic and political theoretical innovations to develop a new conception of critical thinking. They examine how such a construct might be taught in a variety of social settings and disciplines. Using a host of previously neglected perspectives, sociocognitive issues of political economy, complexity theory and critical theoretical notions of epistemology and power theory, the editors and authors present a conceptually sophisticated yet accessible compendium on critical thinking. The introduction guides readers through the reconceptualization process. Specific entries focus on particular dimensions of the challenges to old style critical thinking. In this context, readers can choose entries that discuss various means of engaging students in the critical complex perspective of critical thinking. The encyclopedia is aware of both theoretical concerns and the everyday realities of schooling in the 21st century. As such, it is rounded in a respectful view of teachers that assumes they are capable of levels of expertise unacknowledged by many contemporary articulations of school reform. The educational cognitive and professional vision developed in the encyclopedia offers a profound alternative to the top down impositional models now sweeping the nation's school districts.

Adressat:innen der Sozialen Arbeit Maren Zeller, Lisa Gross, Johanna Braschel, 2025-06-16. Wer ist Adressat in Sozialer Arbeit? Diese zentrale Frage bildet den Ausgangspunkt für den vorliegenden Sammelband. Im Zentrum steht das Verständnis von Adressat:innen nicht als statische Zielgruppen, sondern als hergestellte Sozialfiguren, die sich im Spannungsfeld zwischen Individuum, Profession und Institution sowie sozialstaatlichen Aushandlungsprozessen konstituieren. Ausgehend von theoretischen Grundlagen, insbesondere dem relationalen Konzept, eröffnet der Band differenzierte Einblicke in Adressierungsprozesse auf der Mikro-, Meso- und Makroebene. Der Aufbau des Bandes folgt einer klaren Struktur. Eine ausführliche Einführung liefert theoretische und begriffliche Grundlagen zum Adressat:innenbegriff. Darauf folgen sechs empirisch fundierte Beiträge, die verschiedene Adressat:innengruppen analysieren, darunter junge Familien im Kontext Frühförderung, Early School Leaver:innen, unbegleitete minderjährige Geflüchtete Care Leaverinnen junge Wohnungslose und straffällig gewordene junge Menschen Die Beiträge zeigen wie Adressatinnen durch gesellschaftliche organisationale und interaktive Prozesse hervorgebracht werden und machen die komplexe Dynamik von Adressierung sichtbar Abschließend werfen zwei weiterführende Beiträge kritische und theoretisch fundierte Perspektiven auf die Thematik Der Band zeichnet sich durch eine konsequente Verbindung von Theorie Empirie und Didaktik aus Integrierte Wissensbausteine Definitionen und theoriegeleitete Exkurse erleichtern den Zugang zu zentralen Begriffen und Konzepten Der Sammelband eignet sich damit besonders für Studierende der Sozialen Arbeit die sich systematisch mit Adressatinnenbegriffen und prozessen auseinandersetzen möchten Auch für Lehrende und Forschende bietet die Publikation fundierte Impulse für die Adressatinnenforschung und die professionelle Reflexion sozialarbeiterischen Handelns
