Transnationalism and Urbanism Stefan Krätke,Kathrin Wildner,Stephan Lanz,2012 The formation of transnational urban spaces is a relevant and challenging field of interdisciplinary research which deserves much more debate in order to deepen our understanding of generating and restructuring urban spaces under conditions of contemporary globalisation processes This edited collection reflects current studies on the relation of transnationalism and urbanism Scholars from disciplines including Geography Ethnography and Urban Planning discuss theoretical approaches methodology and case studies on processes of the production of urban spaces through global economic value chains socio cultural practices and political governance strategies Cities are appropriate sites for an examination of the spatial dimension of transnationality because this is where global processes are concentrated localized transformed and materialize In this context urban space is not merely to be regarded as a setting for transnational practices but as a constituent force of transnationalism in all its manifestations

Robert Ludlum's The Bourne Sacrifice Brian Freeman,2023-05-23 Jason Bourne tackles a global media conspiracy in the latest electrifying entry in Robert Ludlum's 1 New York Times bestselling series Jason Bourne has faced many killers before but none as dangerous or as cruelly inventive as the assassin who calls himself Lennon Bourne thought he had Lennon cornered in Iceland only to have the killer escape in a fiery explosion Now Lennon's trail leads Bourne to New York and then to Washington and the body count rises with each deadly encounter But who is Lennon working for Bourne believes the assassin has a shadowy new employer called the Pyramid The only clue to the group s agenda is a young German woman murdered in Washington on her way to a covert meeting But the woman s entire identity turns out to be a lie and news reports of her death have been strangely twisted and suppressed Finding the truth about this woman may be Bourne s only chance to catch Lennon and uncover the conspiracy behind the Pyramid But the chase comes with high stakes Bourne s former lover journalist Abbey Laurent is digging into the mystery too and Jason s perilous battle against Lennon and the Pyramid will soon put Abbey in the assassin s crosshairs Bourne will need to use every bit of his tradecraft and his genius for mayhem to expose this web of lies and murder before Lennon kills the woman he loves Economic World ,1924 Gender History in Practice Kathleen Canning,2006 The eight essays collected in this volume examine the practice of gender history and its impact on our understanding of European history Each essay takes up a major methodological or theoretical issue in feminist history and illustrates the necessity of critiquing and redefining the concepts of body citizenship class and experience through historical case studies Kathleen Canning opens the book with a new overview of the state of the art in European gender history She considers how gender history has revised the master narratives in some fields within modern European history such as the French Revolution but has had a lesser impact in others Weimar and Nazi Germany Gender History in Practice includes two essays now regarded as classics Feminist History after the Linguistic Turn and The Body as Method as well as new chapters on experience citizenship and subjectivity Other essays in the book draw on Canning s work at the intersection of labor history the history of the welfare state and the history of the body showing how the gendered social body was shaped in Imperial Germany The book concludes with a pair of essays on the concepts of class and citizenship in German history offering critical perspectives on feminist understandings of citizenship Featuring an extensive thematic bibliography of influential works in gender history and theory that will prove invaluable to students and scholars Gender History in Practice offers new insights into the history of Germany and Central Europe as well as a timely assessment of gender history s accomplishments and challenges

Economic World Arthur Richmond Marsh,1924 The Employer ,1918 Report of the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries Biological Station, St. Petersburg Beach, Florida United States. Bureau of Commercial Fisheries. Biological Station, St. Petersburg Beach, Fla,1966 Looking for Love in Strange Places: A Memoir for My Stepdaughters Diana Page,2016-02-18 Back in 1968 Diana Page was going to graduate from the University of Michigan without much hope for marriage or a career She didn t have a boyfriend so a prospective husband was unlikely to materialize before the semester ended and a bachelor s in political science wasn t going to make her easily employable The solution Join the Peace Corps where she could help change the world and possibly meet a guy who shared her values Thus began Diana s adventures Her travels as a journalist and diplomat took her down the dangerous roads of Latin American history from the 1960s into the twenty first century With excerpts from diaries letters and news articles she weaves together a narrative of war and peace presidents and peasants but mostly of ordinary people who teach her about life She also runs into a few extraordinary people

along the way Fidel Castro Isabel Peron Pele Jorge Luis Borges and Hilary Clinton among others Looking for Love in Strange Places A Memoir for My Stepdaughters is a hopeful humorous account of what happens when you seize the day without too many expectations for the future
