Street Philosopher And The Holy Fool A Syrian Journey:

The Street Philosopher and the Holy Fool Marius Kociejowski, 2016-04-25 Based on five journeys to Syria with a cast of lively characters this book is in danger of becoming a testament to the last of the Levant With B AND W photos Faith in Paradise Phil Karber, 2012-06-18 From life along the Tigris River in the 1970s to the ongoing Arab Spring uprisings Phil Karber has witnessed decades of change throughout the Middle East Fear and Faith in Paradise draws on his wealth of experience to sketch a timely and compelling portrait of the region throughout history Going beyond the endless images of terrorism and war he challenges pervasive stereotypes of Muslims and delves into the living history and cultures of Arabs Turks Kurds Persians Jews Tunisians Moroccans Armenians and others Seamlessly moving between past and present Karber skillfully develops two overarching themes How America's footprint can be shifted from a military to a humanitarian emphasis and how fear is used as a cudgel by today s monotheistic leaders to sacrifice the faithful Whether Christian Muslim or Jewish they all invoke their own vision of paradise often as incentive in hopeless conflicts that seem doomed to be repeated Karber's down to earth writing vividly conveys the region's charm and beauty against a backdrop of power struggles among competing faiths nationalisms and outside forces Hammaming in the Sham Richard Boggs, 2022-07-01 Legend has it that Damascus once had 365 hammams or Turkish baths one for each day of the year Originally part of an ancient Roman tradition hammams were absorbed by Islam to such an extent that many became almost annexes to nearby mosques For centuries hammams were an integral part of community life with some fifty hammams surviving in Damascus until the 1950s Since then however with the onslaught of modernization programs and home bathrooms many have been demolished fewer than twenty Damascene working hammams survive today In Hammaming in the Sham Richard Boggs travels the length and breadth of modern Syria documenting the traditions of bathing in Damascus Aleppo and elsewhere and his encounters with Syrians as they bathe In his portrayal of life in the hammams he reveals how these ancient institutions cater for both body and soul and through his conversations with the bathers within he provides insights into the grass roots of contemporary Syrian society Approximately 140 color photographs accompany the text portraying the traditional neighborhoods of Damascus and Aleppo and the almost religious feel of the hammams The author's intimate portraits of the baths employees and bathers show a unique side of Syria rarely exposed to the outside world Psycho-social Explorations of Trauma, Exclusion and Violence Christopher Scanlon, John Adlam, 2022-01-06 The central theme of this book is the operation of intersecting discourses of power privilege and positioning as they are revealed in fraught encounters between in groups and out groups in our deeply fractured world The authors offer a unique perspective on inter group dynamics and structural violence at local societal cultural and global levels dissecting processes of toxic othering and psychosocial re traumatisation The book offers the Diogenes Paradigm as a unique conceptual tool with which to analyse the ways in which those of us who come to be located outside or on the margins of dominant social structures are in one way or another the inheritors of the legacies of centuries of oppression and exclusion This analysis offers a distinctive psycho social redefinition of trauma that foregrounds the relationship between the inhospitable environments we generate and the experiences of un housedness that we thereby perpetuate Written in an engaging and accessible style Psycho social Explorations of Trauma Exclusion and Violence directly addresses pressing global issues of racial trauma human mobility and climate disaster and offers a manifesto for the creative re imagining of the places and spaces in which conversations about restructuring and reparation can become sustainable This is an essential and compelling book for anyone committed to social justice especially for all practitioners working in health social care and community justice settings and researchers and academics across the behavioural and social sciences Syria Diana Darke, 2010-06-15 Travel and holiday .2004 The Pebble Chance Marius Kociejowski, 2014-10-20 Kociejowski draws on all these aspects of his life in these engaging idiosyncratic personal essays that proffer the reader equal measures of autobiography insight and quirky charm Michael Dirda The Washington Post In the game of bocce no matter how intensely you study the world s surface there is always a chance an unseen pebble will knock your ball in an unexpected direction In these essays poet antiquarian bookseller and celebrated travel writer Marius Kociejowski chronicles serendipitous encounters with authors manuscripts and eccentrics in which the curious workings of fate and art s unbidden swerve intervene to shift the course of fortune Carried by keen wit aphoristic prose and a rich sense of characterization and featuring chance meetings and comic misadventures with such figures as Bruce Chatwin Zbigniew Herbert and Javier Mar as The Pebble Chance is a sumptuous offering of belles lettres exploring the incandescent moments when skill and providence collide Zoroaster's Children Marius Kociejowski, 2015-10-13 Longlisted for the 2016 RBC Taylor Prize Zoroaster's Children brings together the best of Marius Kociejowski s travel writing A companion volume to last year s critically acclaimed The Pebble Chance these essays conceived somewhere between a waning moon and the nerves behind a flayed man's face evince the deep absorption in a people and place which are the hallmark of great travel writers Marius Kociejowski is the award winning author of four collections of poetry two celebrated travel memoirs and a collection of his best essays The Pebble Chance He lives and works as a bookseller in London England The London Magazine, 2005 Eddie's Own Aquarius Tony Carroll, Constance Short,2005 London Magazine John Lehmann, Alan Ross, 2005 Meetings with Remarkable Muslims Barnaby Rogerson, Rose Baring, 2005 Meetings with Remarkable Muslims is a collection of travel writing celebrating friendship and the chance encounters that unexpectedly enrich our lives which shows the diversity of the modern Islamic world and the way in which it continues to inspire bemuse and enrich the western imagination What shines through these many stories is our common humanity the need indeed the urge to earn to love to protect to enjoy and to make a sense of life Palavers Christopher Middleton, Marius Kociejowski, 2004 Middleton was one of Britain's finest poets He wrote his Nocturnal Journal during the two years prior to his retirement The journal appears here in conjunction with conversations tape recorded by
