The SAGE Handbook of Social

Gerontology Dale Dannefer, Chris Phillipson, 2010-08-13 This SAGE Handbook integrates basic research on social dimensions of aging. It presents programmatic applications of research in areas not often seen in Handbooks including imprisonment, technology and aging, urban society, aged and elderly migration. The authors constitute a Who's Who of international gerontology and the focus on globalization and aging is unique among Handbooks today. This Handbook should be in the library of every social gerontologist. Vern L. Bengtson, Professor of Gerontology, University of Southern California. This volume reflects the emergence of ageing as a global concern, including chapters by international scholars from Asia, Australasia, Europe, and North America. It provides a comprehensive overview of key trends and issues in the field, drawing upon the full range of social science disciplines. The Handbook is organized into five parts, each exploring different aspects of research into social aspects of ageing. Disciplinary overviews, summaries of findings from key disciplinary areas within social gerontology. Social relationships and social differences explores areas like social inequality, gender, religion, inter-generational ties, social networks and friendships. Individual characteristics and change in later life examines different aspects of individual aging, including self and identity, cognitive processes and bio-social interactions and their impact on physical and psychological aging. Comparative perspectives and cultural innovations. Topics include ageing and development, ageing in a global context, migration and cross-cultural perspectives on grandparenthood. Policy issues covering policy concerns such as long-term care, technology and older people, end-of-life issues, work and retirement, and the politics of old age. This will be essential reading for all students, researchers, and policy makers concerned with the major issues influencing the lives of older people across the globe. Handbook of Aging, Health and Public Policy S. Irudaya Rajan, 2025-09-30 This handbook presents the latest information on all aspects of global aging with a focus on Asia, including policies, age-associated diseases and conditions, health services, long-term care, living arrangements, income, and social security, preventing abuse, and the impact of migration on the elderly. Furthermore, the book presents a synthesis of research on population aging, social protection policies, crimes against the elderly, new analyses of trends, and discussions of major social policy strategies. Written by academics, practitioners, and policymakers in the field of gerontology, the book offers an informative resource for demographers, gerontologists, economists, anthropologists, and other social scientists studying various facets of aging, as well as students in the social and health sciences. Serving Minority Elders in the 21st Century May L. Wykle, PhD, RN, FAAN, Amasa B. Ford, MD, 1999-04-21 Nationally recognized scholars address the unique problems encountered by minority elders in achieving the goal of maximum well-being as we enter the 21st century. Topics include physical health, continuum of care, mental health, social policy, economic security, and research planning and development.
