Davis, 1985 Transforming food systems: ethics, innovation and responsibility Donald Bruce, Ann Bruce, 2023-08-14 Feeding the world's growing population in ways that are effective ethical and socially just and protect the natural systems on which all life depends is one of the greatest challenges facing humanity It forms the theme of this book of papers of the 2022 Edinburgh conference of the European Society for Agricultural and Food Ethics EURSAFE The dramatic increases in the cost of energy scarcities in resources and people stemming from the COVID 19 pandemic and international conflict have brought home the vulnerability of our interlinked human systems at all levels Climate change poses deeper longer term threats Global competition drives fine tuned and efficient systems but time proven local practices may show better resilience in such uncertain futures The book reflects the sheer diversity of approaches and responses to these challenges across a wide range of academic disciplines provoking us to look at the issues in new ways They reflect the varied standpoints of producers retailers regulators farmers vets communities and citizens The challenge to reach net zero carbon is addressed in papers assessing livestock systems grasslands land use and rewilding food choices meat eating and alternatives Innovations such as genome editing uses of seaweed and the use of data pose both possibilities and challenges Animal ethics is a prominent theme with a range of papers on animal human relations animal use in research and veterinary ethics Dilemmas of Adulthood Nancy R. Rosenberger, 2019-01-31 In Dilemmas of Adulthood Nancy Rosenberger investigates the nature of long term resistance in a longitudinal study of more than fifty Japanese women over two decades Between 25 and 35 years of age when first interviewed in 1993 the women represent a generation straddling the stable roles of post war modernity and the risky but exciting possibilities of late modernity By exploring the challenges they pose to cultural codes Rosenberger builds a conceptual framework of long term resistance that undergirds the struggles and successes of modern Japanese women Her findings resonate with broader anthropological questions about how change happens in our global local era and suggests a useful model with which to analyze ordinary lives in the late modern world Rosenberger's analysis establishes long term resistance as a vital type of social change in late modernity where the sway of media global ideas and friends vies strongly with the influence of family school and work Women are at the nexus of these contradictions dissatisfied with post war normative roles in family work and leisure and yet in Japan as elsewhere committed to a search for self that shifts uneasily between self actualization and selfishness The women's rich narratives and conversations recount their ambivalent defiance of social norms and attempts to live diverse lives as acceptable adults In an epilogue their experiences are framed by the aftermath of the 2011 earthquake and tsunami which is already shaping the future of their long term resistance Drawing on such theorists as Ortner Ueno the Comaroffs Melucci and Bourdieu Rosenberger posits that long term resistance is a process of tense irregular but insistent change that is characteristic of our era hammered out in the in between of local and global past and future the old virtues of womanhood and the new virtues of self actualization Her book is essential for anyone wishing to understand how Japanese women have maneuvered their lives in the economic decline and pushed for individuation in the 1990s and 2000s International Journal of Psychosomatics ,1989 Rehab Brief ,1984

Personnel Literature United States. Office of Personnel Management. Library,1980 Twin Dilemmas Barbara Klein,2017-06-26 The development of how twins relate to each other and their single partners is explored through life stories and clinical examples in this telling study of twin interconnections While the quality of a nurturing family life is crucial Dr Klein has found there are often issues with separation anxiety loneliness competition with each other and finding friendships outside of twinship When twin lives are entwined because of inadequate parenting and estrangement twin loss is possible and traumatic creating a crippling fear of expansiveness an inability to be yourself Therapists and twins seeking an understanding of twin relationships will find this clinically compelling book a valuable resource Simplicity and Success Bruce Elkin,2006-09-29 I would not give a fig for the simplicity this side of complexity but I would give my life for the simplicity on the other side of complexity Oliver Wendell Holmes Crafting a simple life would be easy if getting rid of stress and clutter was all that simplicity seekers sought but it isn t we also seek success We long to create results that matter in our lives work and relationships However by defining simplicity as a solution to life s stress and complexity many approaches point us toward relief rather than results Because relief is usually temporary we often oscillate between simplicity and success without realizing either. At best the simplicity we achieve is the simplicity on this side of complexity. Simplicity and Success: Creating the Life You Long For will help you go beyond merely getting rid of what you don't want. It will help you discover what you love and create a life that shows it. It will help you integrate conflicting desires by shifting your focus from solving problems to creating what matters. It will empower you to embrace life's complexity, appreciate its richness, and move through its often chaotic messiness to the deep, lasting and fulfilling simplicity on the other side of complexity. Driven by vision grounded in reality and focused on results that matter, this simple yet powerful approach will help you simplify your life, achieve the success you long for, and feel energized, authentic, and whole. Educational Dilemmas Luca Tateo, 2019-01-18. Educational Dilemmas uses cultural psychology to explore the challenges, contradictions, and tensions that occur during the process of education with consideration of the effect these have at both the individual and the collective level. It argues that the focus on issues in learning overlooks a fundamental characteristic of education: that the process of educating is simultaneously both constructive and disruptive. Drawing on research from Europe, America, and Asia, chapters in this volume present and analyse different experiences of the tension between disruption and construction in the process of education. Situating educational discontent within the wider context, the book demonstrates how this issue can be exacerbated by the tension between the commodification and democratisation of educational systems. This book demonstrates that these issues permeate all levels of education and, as a result, emphasises how vital it is that educational discontent is considered from a new perspective. Educational Dilemmas is essential reading for academics, researchers, and postgraduate students in the fields of psychology and education. It should also be of great interest to school psychologists, teachers, and therapists.

Organizational and Structural Dilemmas in Nonprofit Human Service Organizations Hillel Schmid, 2004. Organizational and Structural Dilemmas in Nonprofit Human Service Organizations explores the common pitfalls that plague nonprofit human service organizations and cause them to fail in their missions. In this book, leading scholars analyze and evaluate the inherent difficulties that impede effectiveness in these organizations and offer solutions for repairing or preventing any permanent damage. This wide-ranging body of knowledge, research findings, and information will help you set successful long-term strategies for your organization despite changes in laws, programs, and public sentiment. Deal Making: The Secrets Of Successful Negotiations Marc Helmold, 2025-05-27.
