The Cambridge Introduction to Modernism Pericles Lewis, 2007-05-03 Publisher description      Tools and Techniques for Character Interpretation Robert Blumenfeld, 2006-03 Limelight A must for both the aspiring and seasoned artist Uniquely geared to the work of theatre and film artists this book for the first time sets out clearly and concisely the ideas principles and character typology of various psychological schools from Freudian Kleinian and Jungian to contemporary developments The practical uses and applications of their theories are graphically demonstrated throughout the book by means of numerous examples and in depth analyses drawn from classic and contemporary theatrical and cinematic literature Stanislavskian methods are also discussed An immensely useful essential tool for character creation and analysis Features a foreword by noted acting teacher Alice Spivak      Strindberg August Strindberg, 2023-04-28 Strindberg s most important and most frequently performed plays The Father Miss Julie A Dream Play The Dance of Death and The Ghost Sonata are gathered together here in translations praised for their fluency and their elegance Strindberg s most important and most frequently performed plays The Father Miss Julie A Dream Play The Dance of Death and The Ghost Sonata are gathered together here in translations praised for their fluency and their elegance      Self-Projection Linda Haverty Rugg, 2014-03-01 In 1957 a decade before Roland Barthes announced the death of the author Fran ois Truffaut called for a new era in which films would resemble the person who made them and be even more personal than an autobiographical novel More than five decades on it seems that Barthes has won the argument when it comes to most film critics The cinematic author we are told has been dead for a long time Yet Linda Haverty Rugg contends not only that the art cinema auteur never died but that the films of some of the most important auteurs are intensely if complexly related to the lives and self images of their directors Self Projection explores how nondocumentary narrative art films create alternative forms of collaborative self representation and selfhood The book examines the work of celebrated directors who plant autobiographical traces in their films including

Truffaut Bergman Fellini Tarkovsky Herzog Allen Almod var and von Trier It is not simply that these directors and many others like them make autobiographical references or occasionally appear in their films but that they tie their films to their life stories and communicate that link to their audiences Projecting a new kind of selfhood these directors encourage identifications between themselves and their work even as they disavow such connections And because of the collaborative and technological nature of filmmaking the director s self projection involves actors audience and the machines and institution of the cinema as well Lively and accessible Self Projection sheds new light on the films of these iconic directors and on art cinema in general ultimately showing how film can transform not only the autobiographical act but what it means to have a self
