Studies From Court Cloister:

The Month, 1906 Empress Maria Theresa and the Politics of Habsburg Imperial Art Michael Elia Yonan, 2011
Explores the intersections between monarchy gender and art through an investigation of the visual and architectural culture of the eighteenth century Habsburg empress Maria Theresa Provided by publisher Rice University Studies, 1915 The Princely Court Malcolm Vale, 2001-12-20 In this fascinating new book Malcolm Vale sets out to recapture the splendour of the court culture of western Europe in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries Exploring the century or so between the death of St Louis and the rise of Burgundian power in the Low Countries he illuminates a period in the history of princes and court life previously overshadowed by that of the courts of the dukes of Burgundy Taking in subjects as diverse as art patronage and gambling hunting and devotional religion Malcolm Vale rediscovers a richness and abundance of artistic literary and musical life He shows how despite the pressures of political fragmentation unrest and a nascent awareness of national identity a common culture emerged in English French and Dutch court societies at this time The result is a ground breaking re evaluation of the nature and role of the court in European history and a celebration of a forgotten age Rethinking Authority in the Carolingian Empire Rutger Kramer, 2025-10-01 By the early ninth century the responsibility for a series of social religious and political transformations had become an integral part of running the Carolingian empire This became especially clear when in 813 4 Louis the Pious and his court seized the momentum generated by their predecessors and broadened the scope of these reforms ever further These reformers knew they represented a movement greater than the sum of its parts the interdependence between those wielding imperial authority and those bearing responsibility for ecclesiastical reforms was driven by comprehensive yet still surprisingly diverse expectations Taking this diversity as a starting point this book takes a fresh look at the optimistic first decades of the ninth century Extrapolating from a series of detailed case studies rather than presenting a new grand narrative it offers new interpretations of contemporary theories of personal improvement and institutional correctio and shows the self awareness of its main instigators as they pondered what it meant to be a good Christian in a good Christian empire The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1913 The Cloister's Pale Aruṇa Tikekara, 2006 Circulations in the Global History of Art Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann, Catherine Dossin, Béatrice Joyeux-Prunel, 2016-03-03 The project of global art history calls for balanced treatment of artifacts and a unified approach This volume emphasizes questions of transcultural encounters and exchanges as circulations It presents a strategy that highlights the processes and connections among cultures and also responds to the dynamics at work in the current globalized art world The editors introduction provides an account of the historical background to this approach to global art history stresses the inseparable bond of theory and practice and suggests a revaluation of materialist historicism as an underlying premise Individual contributions to the book provide an overview of current reflection and research on issues of circulation in relation to global art history and the globalization of art past and present They offer a variety of methods and approaches to the treatment of different periods regions and objects surveying both questions of historiography and methodology and presenting individual case studies An Afterword by James Elkins gives a critique of the present project The book thus deliberately leaves discussion open inviting future responses to the large questions it poses Atlas of World Art John Onians,2004 Combines a survey of world art with maps showing the associations and dissemination of culture across the globe THE CLOISTERS. Elizabeth C. Parker,1992
