Allen Brown's English Castles Reginald Allen Brown, 2004 A reissue of the classic guide to the origins purpose and identity of the great castles of England and Wales built after the arrival of the Normans Castle studies have been shaped and defined over the past half century by the work of R Allen Brown His classic English Castles renamed here to acknowledge its definitive approach to the subject has never been superseded by other more recent studies and is still the foundation study of the English and Welsh castles built between the Norman Conquest and the mid 1500s As the subject evolved so too did this book and for the most recent edition a considerable amount of French comparative material was added though it remains essentially a study of English castles For Allen Brown castles were fortified residences or residential fortresses and developed from European precursors to support political and social realities as the Norman and Angevin kings secured their realm Once these political ends had been largely met the castle and castle building entered a period of decline and domestic and military interests went in opposite directions This book with numerous photographs and plans remains the outstanding guide to the origins purpose and identity of the great castles of England and Wales R ALLEN BROWN was also the author of The Normans The Norman Conquest of England and The Normans and the Norman Conquest and founder of the annual Battle Conference on Anglo Norman Studies

Castles and the Anglo-Norman World John A. Davies, Angela Riley, Jean-Marie Levesque, Charlotte Lapiche, 2016-05-31 Castles and the Anglo Norman World is a major new synthesis drawing together a series of 20 papers by 26 French and English specialists in the field of Anglo Norman studies It includes summaries of current knowledge and new research into important Norman castles in England and Normandy drawing on information from recent excavations Sections consider the evolution of Anglo Norman castles the architecture and archaeology of Norman monuments Romanesque architecture and artifacts the Bayeux Tapestry and the presentation of historic sites to the public These studies are presented together with a consideration of the 12th century cross Channel Norman Empire which provides a broader context This work is the result of a conference held at Norwich Castle in 2012 which was part of a collaboration between professionals in the fields of archaeology architecture museums and heritage under the banner of the Norman Connections Project
