Studies In Roman And Early Christian Architecture:

Studies in Roman and Early Christian Architecture John Bryan Ward-Perkins, 1994 The work of J B Ward Perkins on Roman architecture spanned fifty years and his numerous published papers covered almost every aspect of the subject This selection of sixteen studies focuses mainly on the provinces particularly the North African cities There are two articles on Roman town planning followed by a study of Nero's Golden House at Rome The following nine papers deal with architecture in the provinces The author's interest in the excavations under St Peter's in Rome resulted in the publication of a number of studies on the development of Early Christian architecture from such Roman models as the basilica and the Imperial mausolea Five of these papers are included here in the final section on Early Christian architecture There is a Preface by Professor Roger Ling and a comprehensive index Christian Responses to Roman Art and Architecture Laura Salah Nasrallah, 2010-01-25 Laura Nasrallah argues that early Christian literature is best understood when read alongside the archaeological remains of Roman antiquity Religious Diversity in Late Antiquity David Morton Gwynn, Susanne Bangert, 2010 This volume in the ongoing Late Antique Archaeology series draws on material and textual evidence to explore the diverse religious world of Late Antiquity Subjects include Jews and Samaritans orthodoxy and heresy pilgrimage stylites magic the sacred and the secular Art and Architecture of the Synagogue in Late Antique Palestine David William Milson, 2006-12-31 This study examines the material evidence for synagogues and churches in the Holy Land from the age of Constantine in the fourth century CE to the Arab conquest of the eastern provinces in the seventh century CE Whereas scholars once viewed the growth of the Byzantine empire as time of persecution a re evaluation of the archaeological evidence indicates that Jews prospered along with their Christian neighbours What influence did Christian art and architecture have on ancient synagogues In the sixth century one third of all known synagogues in Palestine bear features similar to early Byzantine churches basilical layouts mosaic floors apses and chancel screens Focusing on these features sheds light on how Jewish communities met the challenges posed by the Church's development into a major religious and political power This book provides a critical analysis of the archaeological evidence as a basis for our better understanding of Jewish identity and community in late Antique Palestine Holy Sites Encircled Vered Shalev-Hurvitz, 2015 This volume explores the architecture of Jerusalem's round and octagonal churches the perceptions and architectural models that stood behind it and their impact on both ideas and design in future architecture The Art of the Roman Empire Jas Elsner, 2018-05-02 The passage from Imperial Rome to the era of late antiquity when the Roman Empire underwent a religious conversion to Christianity saw some of the most significant and innovative developments in Western culture This stimulating book investigates the role of the visual arts the great diversity of paintings statues luxury arts and masonry as both reflections and agents of those changes Jas Elsner's ground breaking account discusses both Roman and early Christian art in relation to such issues as power death society acculturation and religion By examining questions of reception viewing and the culture of spectacle alongside the more traditional art historical themes of imperial patronage and stylistic change he presents a fresh and challenging interpretation of an extraordinarily rich cultural crucible in which many fundamental developments of later European art had their origins This second edition includes a new discussion of the Eurasian context of Roman art an updated bibliography and new full colour illustrations

Winter, Janos Fedak, 2006-01-01 Studies in Hellenistic Architecture is a detailed analysis of the development of the major building types of the Hellenistic age the mid fourth century B C to the time of the Roman conquest of the Eastern Mediterranean In this meticulous work Frederick E Winter reveals how the architects of the period went beyond anything achieved by their Classical Greek predecessors and how these impressive skills prepared the way for many of Rome's later architectural achievements Geographically the monuments included in this volume extend from Spain to Afghanistan and from Provence to North Africa Winter discusses the architectural achievements of the various regional styles of the Eastern Mediterranean and takes a detailed look at Hellenistic developments west of the Adriatic While the interrelationship of these regional developments is often unclear especially in cases where there are no explicit criteria for dating Winter makes excellent use of the advance in scholarship over the past fifty to sixty years offering the first real attempt at a synthesis of this vast subject Studies in Hellenistic Architecture is an invaluable resource containing a wealth of illustrations of the various types of Hellenistic building and the most comprehensive scholarship to date on the topic
