Studies In Theological Style Clerical Styles 002 The Glory Of The Lord A Theological Aesthetics:

The Glory of the Lord Hans Urs von Balthasar, 2006 In volumes II and III von Balthasar shows the extraordinary range of his knowledge and expertise in a series of essays designed to illustrate different ways in which theologians have shared their work What he offers is a typology of the relationship between beauty and revelation which shows that there neither has been nor could be any true great and historically fruitful theology which was not expressly conceived and born under the constellation of beauty and grace Volume II offers a series of studies of representative figures from the earlier period of Christian theology Irenaeus Augustine Denys Anselm and Bonventura Glory of the Lord VOL 2 Hans Urs von Balthasar, 1985-01-01 offers a series of earlier Christian theology when the aesthetic view was still held and appreciated Drawing insights from some of the leading figures of the early Church such as Anselm Augustine Bonaventura Denys and Irenaeus von Balthasar presents his views with a freshness and vigour rarely excelled in contemporary theological writing about the Grand Tradition Studies in Theological Style, Clerical Styles Hans Urs von Balthasar, 1984 Volume 1 gives us a series of monographs designed to illustrate the different ways in which theologians have shaped their works Volume 2 is a continuation of monographs in Volume 1 in which the aesthetical dimension of theology its intrinsic beauty is traced through some of the great Christian thinkers of modern times The Glory of the Lord: Studies in theological style: clerical styles Hans Urs von Balthasar, 1982 Senses of Tradition John E. Thiel, 2000-09-21 This book articulates a theory of Catholic tradition that departs from previous understandings Drawing on the medieval concept of the four fold sense of scripture John Thiel proposes four interpretive senses of tradition He also offers a theory of doctrinal development that reconciles Catholic belief in apostolic authority and continuity of tradition with a critical approach to the evidence of history A Generous Symphony Christopher D. Denny, 2016-11-01 Hans Urs von Balthasar one of the preeminent theologians of Roman Catholic theology in the modern era constructed a theological world suffused by the literary a vision carried across over 16 volumes of his magnum opus A Generous Symphony offers a balanced appraisal of Balthasar s literary achievement and explicates Balthasar s literary criticism as a distinctive theology of revelation which offers possibilities for understanding how divine presence may be manifested outside the canonical boundaries of Christian tradition The structure of A Generous Symphony is a chronological presentation of the Balthasarian canon of imaginative literature which allows readers to see how social and historical interests guide Balthasar s readings in the pre Christian medieval and modern eras While other books have examined the systematic theology of Balthasar this book will examine the important question of how students of literature like Balthasar can be transformed into theologians by attending to the implicit presence of Christ in what Gerard Manley Hopkins poem As kingfishers catch fire called the ten thousand places Balthasar s deep investment in the uniqueness of Christian revelation is underlined while at the same time his aesthetic sympathies cause him to invest literature with quasi sacramental status Desiring the Beautiful Filip Ivanovic, 2019 Desiring the Beautiful studies the concept of deification theosis in two of the most influential early Christian philosopher theologians who might be considered as theoretical consolidators of the idea of theosis and argues that the proper understanding of their central soteriological concept must take into account its dimension of love and beauty Beauty and the Good Alice M. Ramos, 2020-10-30 In the past twenty years or more there has been a growing interest among philosophers and theologians alike in the transcendentals and especially in the beautiful This seems fortuitous since so much of contemporary culture is fixated in many ways on beauty on what might be called a superficial or man made beauty intent on outward appearance with little or no concern for the human person's interiority and distinctive nature The Ancients and the Medievals on the contrary were sensitive not only to the beauty of nature and art but also to beauty as intelligible that is to the beauty of moral harmony and of metaphysical splendor While the question of whether the beautiful is in fact a transcendental aspect of being continues to be a subject of dispute in contemporary scholarship the relationship between the beautiful and the good has been accepted since ancient times and has been attended to in recent publications None of these publications however offers a systematic treatment of this relationship by drawing from the wisdom of both ancient and medieval thought in such a way as to bring together the work of scholars in this tradition Beauty and the Good intends therefore to make a singular contribution by presenting a richer alternative to the contemporary cult of beauty and appearance on the one hand and to the concomitant decline of real beauty on the other hand In addition to highlighting the centrality of beauty in the Aristotelian account of moral virtue where virtue is kalon and virtuous actions are done for the sake of kalon an account which is found echoed in the medieval notion of intrinsic goodness bonum honestum understood as intelligible or spiritual beauty this volume will provide the metaphysical and theological grounding for beauty as influenced in part by Plato and Neoplatonism together with a much needed account of how we know and judge beauty and how for the recognition of true good and real beauty we need to be properly disposed The integration of philosophical and theological reflection on the nature and relationship of beauty and the good on our perception and judgment of beauty and of the good as beautiful and on the motivational role of beauty in human action has as its goal to produce a coherent volume of essays Pseudo-Dionysius Paul Rorem, 1993-05-20

Dionysius the Areopagite is the pseudonymous author of an influential body of early about 500 AD Christian theological texts Paul Rorem here explores the profound influence of these texts on medieval theology in the East and the West Care for Creation Ilia Delio, Keith Douglass Warner, Pamela Wood, 2020-03-04 If we are blowing our Franciscan horn here it should have been blown much earlier and much louder This is the wisdom that our world so desires and needs today We can no longer see ourselves as separate from the great chain of being and we can no longer see this as a non religious issue Francis intuited all of this 800 years ago Father Richard Rohr O F M Center for Action and Contemplation Albuquerque New Mexico Three of the greatest minds in Franciscan theology Ilia Delio O S F Franciscan Keith Douglass Warner O F M and Pamela Wood come together to discuss one of the greatest crises of our time the destruction of the Earth This book takes both a theological and practical approach to developing a Franciscan spirituality of the earth Four sections highlight the distinct relationships creation has with the world incarnation community contemplation and conversion In this meticulously researched book the authors propose ways in which we can all understand our own roles in relationship to the Earth and ways in which we can make it better Each section offers reflective action opportunities designed to bring the book's ecological and theological insights into the reader's daily life and nurture a Franciscan spirituality of the earth Prayers meditations spiritual practices and group activities are offered which provide a practical hands on approach to reconnecting with the earth and acting in right relationship Earth with all its creatures is in crisis And responding to this crisis will require every possible resource of our human community One of the most precious of these resources is the Franciscan tradition It is a joy to welcome this book as a wise thoughtful inspiring and practical contribution to ecological theology grounded in ancient Christian tradition that sees Earth as our sister and mother Care for Creation is part of a wider retrieval of Franciscan theology for our new time but is unique in this blend of three interrelated disciplines scientifically informed ecology theology and the practice of reflective action From the Foreword by Denis Edwards
