Studies In Weird Fiction 4:

Best New Horror 4 Stephen Jones, Ramsey Campbell, 2013-11-28 Best New Horror has established itself as the world's most admired annual collection showcasing the very best in contemporary horror fiction. For this latest bloodcurdling feast of terror the multi award winning editors have chosen such modern masterpieces as the first book publication of a new ghost story by Clive Barker, Peter Straub's stunning novella set in a fear haunted Vietnam, John Lennon's alternate history by Ian R MacLeod and Kim Newman's acclaimed novella about Victorian vampires. Plus razor sharp stories on the cutting edge of horror by some of the greatest contemporary masters of fear including Peter Atkins, Poppy Z Brite, John Brunner, Christopher Fowler, Thomas Ligotti, M John Harrison, Lisa Tuttle, Karl Edward Wagner, Kate Wilhelm, Douglas E Winter and many more.

The Vampire in Folklore, History, Literature, Film and Television, 2015-10-07 This comprehensive bibliography covers writings about vampires and related creatures from the 19th century to the present. More than 6 000 entries document the vampire's penetration of Western culture from scholarly discourse to popular culture, politics and cook books. Sections by topic list works covering various aspects including general sources, folklore and history, vampires in literature, music and art, metaphorical vampires and the contemporary vampire community. Vampires from film and television from Bela Lugosi's Dracula to Buffy the Vampire Slayer, True Blood and the Twilight Saga are well represented. Britain's X-traordinary Files David Clarke, 2014-09-25 David Clarke opens The National Archives' own X Files to uncover the secret official accounts behind legendary paranormal and extraordinary phenomena. From mediums employed by the police to help with psychic crime busting to sea monster sightings reported to the Royal Navy, Britain's X-traordinary Files brings to light a range of secret documents created by military intelligence and government agencies who have investigated and even used extraordinary phenomena or powers in recent history. Each chapter is underpinned by original official records held at The National Archives which throw new light on many rumours and unsolved historical mysteries including the Angels of Mons and other legends of the Great War plus a variety of strange phenomena reported both in the sea and in the air from phantom helicopters to the great sea serpent of the Victorian era. The final chapter scrutinises official interest in the infamous Loch Ness Monster of Scotland and the Beast of Bodmin. These accounts are supplemented with contextual material gathered from interviews and the author's own investigations, making truly eye opening reading for anyone interested in the paranormal. The Modern Weird Tale S.T. Joshi, 2001-03-22 This is a critical study of many of the leading writers of horror and supernatural fiction since World War II. The primary purpose is to establish a canon of weird literature and to distinguish the genuinely meritorious writers of the past fifty years from those who have obtained merely transient popular renown. Accordingly the author regards the complex, subtle work of Shirley Jackson, Ramsey Campbell, Robert Aickman, T.E.D. Klein and Thomas Ligotti as considerably superior to the best sellers of Stephen King, Clive Barker, Peter Straub and Anne Rice. Other writers such as William Peter Blatty, Thomas Tryon, Robert Bloch and Thomas Harris are also discussed. Taken as a whole the volume represents a pioneering attempt to chart the development of weird fiction over the past half century

Pierazzo, 2016-03-16 This book provides an up to date coherent and comprehensive treatment of digital scholarly editing organized according to the typical timeline and workflow of the preparation of an edition from the choice of the object to edit the editorial work post production and publication the use of the published edition to long term issues and the ultimate significance of the published work The author also examines from a theoretical and methodological point of view the issues and problems that emerge during these stages with the application of computational techniques and methods Building on previous publications on the topic the book discusses the most significant developments in digital textual scholarship claiming that the alterations in traditional editorial practices necessitated by the use of computers impose radical changes in the way we think and manage texts documents editions and the public It is of interest not only to scholarly editors but to all involved in publishing and readership in a digital environment in the humanities Diffraction Reading Kai

Merten, 2021-05-27 Putting the New Materialist figure of diffraction to use in a set of readings in which cultural texts are materially read against their contents and their themes against their readers or against other texts this volume proposes a critical intervention into the practice of reading itself In this book reading and reading methodology are probed for their materiality and re considered as being inevitably suspended between or diffracted with both matter and discourse The history of literary and cultural reading including poststructuralism and critical theory is revisited in a new light and opened up for a future in which the world and reading are no longer regarded as conveniently separate spheres but recognized as deeply entangled and intertwined Diffraction Reading ultimately represents a new reading of reading itself firstly by critiquing the distanced perspective of critical paradigms such as translation and intertextuality in which texts encountered processed or otherwise subdued secondly showing how all literary and cultural readings represent different agential cuts in the world text reader constellation which is always both discursive and material and thirdly the volume materializes dynamizes and politicizes the activity of reading by drawing attention to reading s intervention in and co creation of the world in which we live Fantasies of Time and Death Anna Vaninskaya, 2019-12-26 This book reveals the unique contribution made by the three founding fathers of British fantasy Lord Dunsany E R Eddison and J R R Tolkien to our culture

s perennial reassessment of the meanings of time death and eternity It traces the poetic philosophical and theological roots of the striking preoccupation with mortality and temporality that defines the imagined worlds of early fantasy fiction and gives both the form of such fiction and its ideas the attention they deserve Dunsany Eddison and Tolkien raise some of the oldest questions in existence about the limits of nature human and divine cosmic creation and destruction the immortality conferred by art and memory and the paradoxes and uncertainties generated by the universal experience of transience the fear of annihilation and the desire for transcendence But they respond to those questions by means of thought experiments that have no precedent in modern literary history This book has won the 2021 Mythopoeic Scholarship Award for Myth and Fantasy Studies

Fiction and the Sixth Mass Extinction Jonathan Elmore, 2020-04-01 Fiction and the Sixth Mass Extinction is one of the first works to focus specifically on fiction's engagements with human driven extinction Drawing together a diverse group of scholars and approaches this volume pairs established voices in the field with emerging scholars and traditionally recognized climate fiction cli fi with texts and media typically not associated with Anthropocene fictions The result is a volume that both engages with and furthers existing work on Anthropocene fiction as well as laying groundwork for the budding subfield of extinction fiction This volume takes up the collective insistence on the centrality of story to extinction studies In various and disparate ways each chapter engages with the stories we tell about extinction about the extinction of animal and plant life and about the extinction of human life itself Answering the call to action of extinction studies these chapters explore what kinds of humanity caused this event and what kinds may live through it what cultural assumptions and values led to this event and which ones could lead out of it what relationships between human life and this planet allowed the sixth mass extinction and what alternative relationships could be possible
