Studies Of Israeli Society Education In A Comparative Context 004 Studies Of Israeli Society

Dr Jon Clark, Jon Clark

Studies Of Israeli Society Education In A Comparative Context 004 Studies Of Israeli Society:

Israeli Judaism Å elomo A. DeÅien, Charles Seymour Liebman, Moshe Shokeid, 1995-01-01 This is an unusual and extremely timely collective effort It appears at a moment in which Israelis not only must confront their Arab neighbors but must deal with one another as Jews possessing radically different views on the present and future of the Jewish tradition With this seventh volume of the series the Israeli Sociological Society has turned its attention to religion an area that for many years has been of high importance but low profile in Israeli affairs and in the wider Middle Eastern context Chapters and contributors include Jewish Civilization Approaches to Problems of Israeli Society by Shmuel N Eisenstadt Life Tradition and Book Tradition in the Development of Ultraorthodox Judaism by Menachem Friedman Religious Kibbutzim Judaism and Modernization by Aryei Fishman The Religion of Elderly Oriental Jewish Women by Susan Sered and Hanukkah and the Myth of the Maccabees in Ideology and in Society by Eliezer Don Yehiya The increasing presence of religious activism in contemporary Israel side by side with subtle changes in the religion of Israeli Sephardim makes the topic of religion essential for an understanding of Israel and much of the Middle East generally Israeli Judaism is a significant work and will be of interest to theologians philosophers sociologists anthropologists and political theorists James S. Coleman Dr Jon Clark, Jon Clark, 2005-08-10 James S Coleman was one of a distinguished generation of sociology students who passed through the Columbia Sociology Department in the 1940s and 50s This book critically debates his work and his contribution to society and the social sciences more generally It consists of 18 major papers by 20 authors from six countries on a range of themes The volume is framed by an extended editorial introduction reflecting on the five year exchange of correspondence between James Coleman and the editor together with two of Coleman's own works New Realities of Secondary

Teachers' Work Lives Pam Poppleton, John Williamson, 2004-05-10 There are many books on educational change its origins processes and consequences The unique contribution of this volume lies in its careful documenting and reporting of the reactions of teachers themselves interviewed in 9 countries about the changes they have experienced and in the comparative nature of the study which employs both qualitative and quantitative methods in a complementary way In Part One the educational background to the study in each country is described and teachers responses to a common research semi structured interview schedule are reported In Part Two the same database is subjected to a statistical analysis for comparative purposes in order to reveal similarities and differences between countries The project set out to obtain an international picture of the changes in education which have had the greatest impact on the lives of teachers to explore how actual and perceived changes have influenced teachers experience and practice and to identify critical factors in the implementation of change The result is a book that will enable students to familiarise themselves with practices in other countries and policy makers to evaluate the implications of changes in different social economic and cultural environments

International Perspectives on Adolescence Tim Urdan, Frank Pajares, 2003-11-01 Explorations in Jewish Historical Experience Shmuel Noah Eisenstadt, 2004-01-01 Professor S N Eisenstadt has written numerous essays on Jewish Identity over the years This volume brings together some of these The major argument of the essays follows the Weberian view of Jewish historical experience as that of a distinct civilization as a distinct Great Religion the first monotheistic civilization without however accepting many of Weber's concrete analyses Medieval and Modern Perspectives on Muslim-Jewish Relations Ronald L. Nettle, 2014-02-25 First Published in 1995 The life of Jews in medieval Baghdad or 18th century Tunis may now be considered to be important as Jewish life in 13th century Worms or 19th century Poland Islamic theological and exegetical writing on Judaism may now command as much interest as their counterparts in Christian literature while the rich Islamic Jewish cultural interchange over many centuries is clearly of great significance Studies in Muslim Jewish Relations will be a series of general volumes each including a wide range of subjects periodic edited volumes each focusing on a certain theme and a planned related monograph series which will publish authored volumes on more specialized aspects of the field This volume is a collection of twelve essays Jewish Communities of India Joan G. Roland, 2018-01-16 Although the Bene Israel community of western India the Baghdadi Jews of Bombay and Calcutta and the Cochin Jews of the Malabar Coast form a tiny segment of the Indian population their long term residence within a vastly different culture has always made them the subject of much curiosity India is perhaps the one country in the world where Jews have never been exposed to anti-Semitism but in the last century they have had to struggle to maintain their identity as they encountered two competing nationalisms Indian nationalism and Zionism Focusing primarily on the Bene Israel and Baghdadis in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Joan Roland describes how identities begun under the Indian caste system changed with British colonial rule and then how the struggle for Indian independence and the establishment of a Jewish homeland raised even further questions She also discusses the experiences of European Jewish refugees who arrived in India after 1933 and remained there until after World War II To describe what it meant to be a Jew in India Roland draws on a wealth of materials such as Indian Jewish periodicals official and private archives and extensive interviews Historians Judaic studies specialist India area scholars postcolonialist and sociologists will all find this book to be an engaging study A new final chapter discusses the position of the remaining Jews in India as well as the status of Indian Jews in Israel at the end of the twentieth century Conflicting Philosophies of Education in Israel/Palestine Ilan Gur-Ze'ev, 2013-06-29 effectiveness and creativity in different contexts In this issue this will be presented in full detail in the articles which refer to different aspects of the Israeli educational context This special issue of Studies in Philosophy and Education concentrates on the intellectual impotence moral devotion cultural willingness and social and technological efforts for the preservation and enhancement of the tyranny of normalizing education over human beings in a specific arena The various studies in this issue with all their differences of orientation and issues under consideration will reconstruct the ways for forcing subjects and communities to commit themselves to destroy the otherness or the human potential of the inner and external Other They reveal this phenomenon as a characteristic of both the victimizers and their 8 victims Normally philosophy of education supports this process and justifies or hides this reality As will be shown in this special issue however at the same time philosophy of education might also become a non productive or even a rebellious element in the culture industry and present a serious challenge to the present order It can address and challenge the perpetual success of normalizing education in all its versions among all rival communities narratives and armies of teachers consumers soldiers and intellectuals This of course does not guarantee that such a critique or resistance will not become another dogmatic or nihilistic blow to the free Spirit or nothing but another version of normalizing education

Learning and Teaching Joseph Zajda,1997 Learning and Teaching explores major and current themes in the learning teaching process from an international and comparative perspective The authors debate such issues as learning and cognitive processes students in the classroom and teaching styles Their views are based on either the findings of original research or observation as experienced teacher educators Topics covered include learning enhancement reflection in education cognition excellence in education special schools classroom interaction discrimination assessment and what makes a good teacher Learning and Teaching offers a unique introduction to significant issues affecting the nature of learning and the quality of student teacher interaction in the classroom

Gender Equality and American Jews Moshe Hartman,Harriet Hartman,2012-02-01 Gender Equality and American Jews studies gender equality in education labor force participation and occupational achievement among American Jews based on the 1990 National Jewish Population Survey It first focuses on education and training as key gatekeepers to roles in the economy and then on the gender differences in labor force behavior and occupational attainment To place American Jews in perspective they are compared to the wider American population and to Israeli Jews presenting a multi dimensional analysis of American Jewishness in the 1990s The difficulties of comparing Israel and American Jews are discussed lending insights into the similarities and differences between the two cultures The authors draw on a solid base of sociological literature placing American Jews in the wider American context with comparative data The book discusses the conclusions that can be drawn from the analysis along with some policy implications

Embracing the Beat of Appearance: An Psychological Symphony within Studies Of Israeli Society Education In A Comparative Context 004 Studies Of Israeli Society

In some sort of consumed by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of immediate transmission, the melodic beauty and psychological symphony created by the prepared word usually diminish in to the background, eclipsed by the relentless noise and disruptions that permeate our lives.
