Africa Army Library (U.S.),1973 Catalog of the Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, Northwestern University Library (Evanston, Illinois) and Africana in Selected Libraries Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies,1972 The SAGE Handbook of Diplomacy Costas M. Constantinou,Pauline Kerr,Paul Sharp,2016-08-12 The SAGE Handbook of Diplomacy provides a major thematic overview of Diplomacy and its study that is theoretically and historically informed and in sync with the current and future needs of diplomatic practice Original contributions from a brilliant team of global experts are organised into four thematic sections Section One Diplomatic Concepts Theories Section Two Diplomatic Institutions Section Three Diplomatic Relations Section Four Types of Diplomatic Engagement The Politics of Cultural Pluralism Crawford Young,1979 The Culture of Politics in Modern Kenya Angelique Haugerud,1997-05-13 Once the major success story of a troubled continent by the early 1990s Kenya came to be regarded as its fallen star This book challenges such images of reversal and the analytical polarities which sustain them The analysis ranges from telescopic to microscopic fields and combining many disciplines and perspectives to give a rich and varied picture of the culture of politics in twentieth century Kenya a highly perceptive and interesting analysis deconstruction is not too strong a term of Kenya s politics A well researched documented and enlightening book African Affairs Fertile Crossings Pietro Deandrea,2021-11-01 In retracing some of the routes followed by West African literature in English over the course of the last three decades this book employs an original multidimensional approach whereby the three main genres narrative poetry and drama are considered in the light of their intricate web of fecund rapport and mutual influence Authors such as Tutuola Armah Aidoo and Awoonor translated the fluid structures of orality into written prose and consequently infused their works with poetic and dramatic resonance thereby challenging the canonical dominance of social realism and paving the way for the birth of West African magical realism in Laing Okri and Cheney Coker Starting in the 1970s poetry on stage has become a mainstream genre in Ghana thanks to performances by Okai Anyidoho and Acquah Boundaries between literary theatre and other genres have undergone a similar dissolution in the affirmation of the concept of total art from Efua Sutherland to ben Abdallah Osofisan and others Fertile Crossings offers a study of these topics from various viewpoints blending in depth textual analysis with reflections on the political import of the works in question within the context of the present state of African societies all supported by interviews with most of the authors African Literature as Political Philosophy Mary Stella Chika Okolo,2013-07-04 The politics of development in Africa have always been central concerns of the continent s literature Yet ideas about the best way to achieve this development and even what development itself should look like have been hotly contested African Literature as Political Philosophy looks in particular at Achebe s Anthills of the Savannah and Petals of Blood by Ngugi wa Thiong'o but situates these within the broader context of developments in African literature over the past half century discussing writers from Ayi Kwei Armah to Wole Soyinka M S C Okolo provides a thorough analysis of the authors differing approaches and how these emerge from the literature She shows the roots of Achebe s reformism and Ngugi s insistence on revolution and how these positions take shape in their work Okolo argues that these authors have been profoundly affected by the political situation of Africa but have also helped to create a new African political philosophy Ecocene Politics Mihnea Tănăsescu ,2022-04-25 Anchored in the diverse ecological practices of communities in southern Italy and Aotearoa New Zealand this book devises a unique and considered theoretical response to the shortcomings of global politics in the Ecocene a new temporal epoch characterised by the increasingly frequent intrusion of ecological processes into political life Dismantling the use of the term Anthropocene as a descriptor for our current ecological and political paradigm this bold and resolutely original contribution proposes a restorative ethics of mutualism An emancipatory theory intended to re invigorate human agency in the face of contemporary ecological challenges it posits an effective means to combat the environmental destruction engendered by modernity Using ecology alongside European moral and Mori philosophies to re conceptualise the ecological remit of politics this book s granular approach questions the role played by contemporary political ontologies in the separation of humans and environments offering an in depth view of their renewed interrelation under mutualism Ecocene Politics will be essential to researchers and students in the fields of politics philosophy sociology anthropology and geography It will be of further interest to those working in the fields of political ecology environmental humanities and Anthropocene studies as well as to general readers seeking a theoretical approach to the political issues posed by current ecological crises The Process of Political Succession Peter Calvert,1987-06-18 Does Foreign Direct Investment Promote Development? Theodore H. Moran,Edward Montgomery Graham,Magnus Blomström,2005 This volume gathers the cutting edge of new research on foreign direct investment and host country economic performance and presents the most sophisticated critiques of current and past inquiries It presents new results concludes with an analysis of the implications for contemporary policy debates and proposed new avenues for future research
