Studies in Islamic History and Institutions S. D. Goitein, 1968 Studies in Islamic History and Institutions Šelomo D. Goitein, 1966 Studies in Islamic History and Institutions Solomon Dob Fritz Goitein, 1966 Goitein's selection of studies dealing with Islamic history religion and institutions offers a wide ranging sensitive and highly original introduction to a civilization by one who lived all his life studying and observing Islam Eschewing simplistic notions Goitein poses fundamental questions vis vis Muslim religious thought and practice the evolution of the Islamic state in the early Middle Ages the characteristic facets of the civilization and the periodization of its history Although all but one of the essays deal with the first seven centuries of Islamic history Goitein frequently draws important connections between the past and the present A professional educator as well as researcher and scholar Goitein with a clarity and orderliness makes his subtly reasoned conclusions accessible to students and scholars alike He provides the reader with an opportunity to acquaint himself not only with the results of research but also with the methods by which they were obtained from publisher Studies in Islamic History and Institutions Šelomo D. Goytayn, 1966 Studies in Islamic History and Institutions Shlomo Dov Goitein, 1986

Islamic History R. Stephen Humphreys, 2020-06-16 This book will be immensely helpful to those who wish to orient themselves to what has become a very large body of literature on medieval Islamic history Combining a bibliographic study with an inquiry into method it opens with a survey of the principal reference tools available to historians of Islam and a systematic review of the sources they will confront Problems of method are then examined in a series of chapters each exploring a broad topic in the social and political history of the Middle East and North Africa between A D 600 and 1500 The topics selected represent a cross section of Islamic historical studies and range from the struggles for power within the early Islamic community to the life of the peasantry Each chapter pursues four questions What concrete research problems are likely to be most challenging and productive What resources do we possess for dealing with these problems What strategies can we devise to exploit our resources most effectively What is the current state of the scholarly literature for the topic under study Studies in Islamic History and Institutions Solomon Dob Friedrich Goitein, 1966 Studies in Islamic History and Civilization M. Sharon, 2023-09-29 Sephardic Studies in the University Jane S. Gerber, 1995 Nevertheless the teaching of Sephardic civilization was incomplete and Eurocentric with the Jews of Islam an ongoing entity for over a thousand years scarcely figuring in any course offerings The Qur'an and Late Antiquity Angelika Neuwirth, 2019-02-19 In this book Angelika Neuwirth provides a new approach to understanding the founding text of Islam Typical exegesis of the Qur'an treats the text teleologically as a fait accompli finished text or as a replica or summary of the Bible in Arabic Instead Neuwirth approaches the Qur'an as the product of a specific community in the Late Antique Arabian peninsula one which was exposed to the wider worlds of the Byzantine and Sasanian empires and to the rich intellectual traditions of rabbinic Judaism early Christianity and Gnosticism A central goal of the book is to eliminate the notion of the Qur'an as being a historical She argues that it is in fact highly aware of its place in late antiquity and is capable of yielding valuable historical information By emphasizing the liturgical function of the Qur'an Neuwirth allows readers to see the text as an evolving oral tradition within the community before it became collected and codified as a book This analysis sheds much needed light on the development of the Qur'an's historical theological and political outlook The book's final chapters analyze the relationship of the Qur'an to the Bible to Arabic poetic traditions and more generally to late antique culture and rhetorical forms By providing a new introduction to the Qur'an one that uniquely challenges current ideas about its emergence and development The Qur'an and Late Antiquity bridges the gap between Eastern and Western approaches to this sacred text Hierarchy and Egalitarianism in Islamic Thought Louise Marlow, 2002-05-16 By examining a wide range of Arabic and Persian literature from the eighth to the thirteenth century Louise Marlow shows the tension that existed between the traditional egalitarian ideal of early Islam and the hierarchical impulses of the classical period The literature demonstrates that while Islam's initial orientation was markedly egalitarian the social aspect of this egalitarianism was soon undermined in the aftermath of Islam's political success and as hierarchical social ideas from older cultures in the Middle East were incorporated into the new polity Although the memory of its early promise never entirely receded social egalitarianism quickly came to be associated with political subversion This 1997 book will be of use to a wide readership of Islamic historians and of scholars assessing the impact of the modern Islamic revival A History of Islamic Legal Theories Wael B. Hallaq, 1997 Wael B. Hallaq has already established himself as one of the most eminent scholars in the field of Islamic law In this book first published in 1997 the author traces the history of Islamic legal theory from its early beginnings until the modern period Initially he focuses on the early formation of this theory analysing its central themes and examining the developments which gave rise to a variety of doctrines He concludes with a discussion of modern thinking about the theoretical foundations and methodology of Islamic law In organisation approach to the subject and critical apparatus the book will be an essential tool for the understanding of Islamic legal theory in particular and Islamic law in general This in combination with an accessibility of language and style will guarantee a readership among students and scholars and anyone interested in Islam and its evolution A History of Jewish-Muslim Relations Abdelwahab Meddeb, Benjamin

Islamic Economics Ahmed El-Ashker, Rodney Wilson, 2006-10-01 The study covers Muslim economic thought from the emergence of Islam long before economics became a separate discipline with distinctive analytical tools The economic environment in ancient Arabia from which Islam emerged is examined and the economic concepts in the Qur'an and Sunnah are discussed as well as the thinking of early Muslim jurists Detailed consideration is given to Islamic economic thought during the dynasties of the Umayyads and the Abbasids periods of administrative and economic reform as well as of much latter developments under the Ottomans Safawids and Moghuls Islamic revivalist reform movements are appraised as these predated the reawakening of interest in Islamic economics in the last century and subsequent profusion of writing with the works of the leading contributors reviewed in this volume

Labour in the Medieval Islamic World Shatzmiller, 2021-12-06 This is an extensive study of labour in the social and economic life of Islamic communities around the Mediterranean in the medieval period 9th 15th century Based on a large number of primary and secondary sources it contains a comprehensive dictionary of trades and occupations practised by both men and women followed by a statistical and textual examination of the division of labour the distribution of the labour force occupational structures and the role of labour in the Islamic economy It also describes ethnic divisions of labour social status and image A group of literary sources yields evidence that Muslim theologians mystics and philosophers gradually formulated a doctrinal framework for labour This book will prove a valuable resource for any student of medieval Islamic economic and labour history

The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 2, The Western Islamic World, Eleventh to Eighteenth Centuries Maribel Fierro, 2010-11-04 Volume 2 of The New Cambridge History of Islam is devoted to the history of the Western Islamic lands from the political fragmentation of the eleventh century to the beginnings of European colonialism towards the end of the eighteenth century The volume embraces a vast area from al Andalus and North Africa to Arabia and the lands of the Ottomans In the first four sections scholars all leaders in their particular fields chart the rise and fall and explain the political and religious developments of the various independent ruling dynasties across the region including famously the Almohads the Fatimids and Mamluks and of course the Ottomans The final section of the volume explores the commonalities and continuities that united these diverse and geographically disparate communities through in depth analyses of state formation conversion taxation scholarship and the military The Rise of the Fatimids Brett,2021-10-01

The book traces the rise of the Fatimid dynasty in the 4th century AH 10th century CE from its origins in Islamic messianism to power in North Africa and Egypt and a central position of influence throughout the Muslim world The first part deals with the problem of Fatimid origins the second with the establishment of the dynasty and its religious and political programme in North Africa the third with the success of that programme in Egypt Using the history of the Fatimids and their doctrine to survey the world of the Mediterranean and the Middle East in the 4th 10th century the book offers a new interpretation of the role of the dynasty in the history of Islam down to the period of the Crusades The Routledge Handbook of the State in Premodern India Hermann Kulke,Bhairabi Prasad Sahu,2022-01-13 This handbook presents a multilayered and multidimensional history of state formation in premodern India It explores dense and rich local and subregional historiography from the mid first millennium BC to the eighteenth century in South Asia Shifting the focus away from economic and political factors this handbook revises the conventional understanding of states and empires and locates them in their quotidian conduct and activity on socio cultural and concomitant factors Comprehensive in scope this handbook addresses a range of themes connected with the idea of state formation in the subcontinent It includes discussions and debates on ritual practices and the Brahmanical order in early India the Delhi Sultanate and role of Sultans among the Hindu kings the cosmopolitan Islamicate cultural influences on Puranic Hinduism cultural background of the Mughal state The handbook examines new questions and ideologies of state formation such as facets of violence and resistance the significance of the autonomous spaces and forests regional elites including Little kings tribal background of some famous cults trade and maritime commerce royal patronage courtly manners lineage formation imperial architecture monuments and temple among others Featuring case studies from different part of the India subcontinent and with contributions by renowned historians this authoritative handbook will be an indispensable reading for teachers scholars and students of early India medieval India premodern India South Asian history Asian history historiography economic history historical sociology and South Asia studies A History of the Jews of Arabia Gordon Darnell Newby,2022-11-23 A reconstructed history of a complex Jewish community in Arabia at a critical juncture in world history The Jewish communities of Arabia had a great influence on the attitudes that Muslims hold toward Jews and yet relatively little has been written about their history The sources are sparse and Arabic literary texts from the early period of Islam remain the greatest source of our understanding of Arabian Judaism. Through techniques borrowed from anthropology, literary criticism, sociology, and comparative religion, Gordon Darnell Newby reconstructs the understanding of Jewish life in Arabia before and during the time of Muhammad. In addition, this material is used to develop a perspective on the inter-confessional relations between Judaism and Islam during an era when the latter was at one of its most dynamic stages of growth.
