Studies In Persian Art And Architecture:

Studies in Persian Art and Architecture Bernard O'Kane, 1995 Contains all the major articles on Persian art and architecture published by O Kane between 1976 and 1994 The Historiography of Persian Architecture Mohammad Gharipour, 2015-08-27 Historiography is the study of the methodology of writing history the development of the discipline of history and the changing interpretations of historical events in the works of individual historians Exploring the historiography of Persian art and architecture requires a closer look at a diverse range of sources including chronicles historical accounts travelogues and material evidence coming from archaeological excavations The Historiography of Persian Architecture highlights the political cultural and intellectual contexts that lie behind the written history of Persian architecture in the twentieth century presenting a series of investigations on issues related to historiography This book addresses the challenges complexities and contradictions regarding historical and geographical diversity of Persian architecture including issues lacking in the 20th century historiography of Iran and neighbouring countries This book not only illustrates different trends in Persian architecture but also clarifies changing notions of research in this field Aiming to introduce new tools of analysis the book offers fresh insights into the discipline supported by historical documents archaeological data treatises and visual materials It brings together well established and emerging scholars from a broad range of academic spheres in order to question and challenge pre existing historiographical frameworks particularly through specific case studies Overall it provides a valuable contribution to the study of Persian architecture simultaneously revisiting past literature and advancing new approaches This book would be of interest to students and scholars of Middle East and Iranian Studies as well as Architectural History including Islamic architecture and historiography Studies in Persian Architecture Bernard O'Kane, 2021 This volume lavishly illustrated with many images previously unpublished in colour presents articles by Bernard O Kane on a wide variety of topics pertaining to Persian architecture in its widest sense These range from historiography and tilework to studies of buildings of the major medieval dynasties the Seljuqs Ilkhanids and Timurids In addition formerly neglected monuments of the Chaghatai Muzaffarid Kartid and Jalayirid dynasties are given their due prominence as well as Uzbek monuments in Afghanistan And the development of Iranian mosques and one of their essential features domes is studied Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair, 2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Calligraphy and Architecture in the Muslim World Mohammad Gharipour, 2019-07-30 This major reference work covers all aspects of architectural inscriptions in the Muslim world the artists and their patrons what inscriptions add to architectural design what materials were used what their purpose was and how they infuse buildings with meaning From Spain to China and from the Middle Ages to our own lifetime Islamic architecture and calligraphy are inexorably intertwined Mosques dervish lodges mausolea libraries even baths and market places bear masterpieces of calligraphy that rival the most refined of books and scrolls An Analysis of Yasser Tabbaa's The Transformation of Islamic Art During the Sunni Revival Bilal Badat,2018-02-21 Tabbaa s Transformation offers an innovative approach to understanding the profound changes undergone by Islamic art and architecture during the often neglected Medieval Islamic period Examining devices such as calligraphy arabesque muqarnas and stonework Tabbaa argues we propagated in a moment of confrontation and facilitated the re emergence of the Sunni Abbasid caliphate in a more orthodox image Tabbaa offers a timely and thought provoking alternative to conventional essentialist positivist and ethno narrative interpretations of Islamic art Culture and Customs of Iran Elton L. Daniel, Ali Akbar Mahdi, 2006-10-30 Iran is often a hotspot in the news and the Muslim state is usually negatively portrayed in the West Culture and Customs of Iran rejects facile stereotyping and presents the rich age old Persian culture that struggles with pressures of the modern world This is the first volume in English to reveal the important sociocultural facets of Iran today for a general audience in an objective fashion Authoritative substantive narrative chapters cover the gamut of topics from religion and religious thought to Iranian cuisine and festivals Persian Gardens and Pavilions Mohammad Gharipour, 2013-04-02 From Timur s tent in Samargand to Shah Abbas s palace in Isfahan and Humayun s tomb in Delhi the pavilion has been an integral part of Persianate gardens since its earliest appearance at the Achaemenid garden in Pasargadae in the sixth century BC Here Mohammad Gharipour places both the garden and the pavilion within their historical literary and artistic contexts emphasizing the importance of the pavilion which has hitherto been overlooked in the study of Iranian historical architecture Starting with an examination of the depictions and representations of gardens in religious texts Gharipour analyses the how the idea of the garden developed from the model of pre Islamic gardens in Achaemenid and Sassanian Persia to its mentions in the Zoroastrian text of Aban Yasht and on to its central role as paradise in the Qur an Continuing on with an exploration of gardens and pavilions in Persian poetry Gharipour offers in depth analysis of their literal and metaphorical values It is in the poetry of major Persian poets such as Ferdowsi Naser Khosrow Sa di Rumi and Hafez that Gharipour finds that whilst gardens are praised for their spiritual values they also contain significant symbolic worth in terms of temporal wealth and power Persian Gardens and Pavilions then goes onto examine the garden and the pavilion as reflected in Persian miniature painting sculpture and carpets as well as accounts of travelers to Persia With masters such as Bizhad representing daily life as well as the more mystical prose and poetry in for example Sa di s Bustan The Orchard and Golestan The Rose Garden the garden and the pavilion can be seen to have crucial semiotic significances and cultural meanings But in addition to this they also point to historical patterns of patronage and ownership which were of central importance in the diplomatic and social life of the royal courts of Persia Gharipour thereby highlights the metaphorical spiritual symbolic and religious aspects of gardens as well as their more materialistic and economic functions This book reaches back through Persia s rich history to explore the material and psychological relationships between human beings pavilions and gardens and will be a valuable resource for Art History Architecture and Iranian Studies

Art and Architectural Traditions of India and Iran Nasir Raza Khan, 2021-11-29 This book presents a comprehensive overview of the historical and cultural linkages between India and Iran in terms of art and architectural traditions and their commonality and diversity It addresses themes such as early connections between Iran India and Central Asia study of the Qutb Complex in Delhi the great immigration of Turks from Asia to Anatolia the collaboration of Indian and Persian painters design ornamentation techniques and regional dynamics women and public spaces in Shahjahanabad and Isfahan the noble architects of emperor Shah Jahan s reign development of Kashmir s Islamic religious architecture in the medieval period role of Nur Jahan and her Persian roots in the evolution of the Mughal Garden synthesis of Indo Iranian architecture and confluence of Indo Persian food culture to showcase the richness of art architecture and sociocultural and political exchanges between the two countries Bringing together a wide array of perspectives it delves into the roots of connection between India and Iran over centuries to understand its influence and impact on the artistic and cultural genealogy and the shared past of two of the oldest civilizations and regional powers of the world With its archival sources this book will be useful to scholars and researchers of medieval history Indian history international relations Central Asian history Islamic studies Iranian history art and architecture heritage studies cultural studies regional studies and South Asian studies as well as those interested in the study of sociocultural and religious exchanges

The Shaping of Persian Art Yuka Kadoi, Iván Szántó, 2014-07-18 While the impact of the Persian style is undeniably reflected in most aspects of the art and architecture of Islamic Central Asia this Perso Central Asian connection was chiefly formed and articulated by the Euro American movement of collecting and interpreting the art and material culture of the Persian Islamic world in modern times This had an enormous impact on the formation of scholarship and connoisseurship in Persian art for instance with an attempt to define the characteristics of how the Islamic art of Iran and Central Asia should be viewed and displayed at museums and how these subjects should be researched in academia This important historical fact which has attracted scholarly interest only in recent years should be treated as a serious subject of research accepting that the abstract image of Persian art was not a pure creation of Persian civilization but that it can be the manifestation of particular historical times and charismatic individuals Attention should therefore be given to various factors that resulted in the shaping of Persian imagery across the globe not only in terms of national ideologies but also within the context of several protagonists such as scholars collectors and dealers as well as of the objects themselves This volume brings together Islamic Iranian and Central Asian art experts from diverse disciplinary and professional backgrounds and intends to offer a novel insight into what is collectively known as Persian art
