Take Up Your Mission:

Start Your Own Restaurant and More The Staff of Entrepreneur Media, Rich Mintzer, 2016-10-17 Americans spend more than 600 billion a year eating out. Busy consumers don't have the time or inclination to cook; they want tasty nutritious meals without dishes to wash. Singles, working parents, and seniors are demanding greater convenience and are turning to restaurants to fill that need. With so much dining and taking out, there's plenty of room for more food businesses, but for a successful startup, you need more than just good recipes. You also need to know about planning, capitalization, inventory control, and payroll management. Entrepreneur has compiled everything you need, including how to evaluate the competition, how to research potential customers, the basics of setting up a kitchen, how to find a great location, how to leap over regulatory hurdles in the industry, and how to select the best people to staff your particular style of business. Choose the Life Bill Hull, 2004-05-01 Many churches harbor harried congregations merely going through the motions, sleepwalking saints who fail to experience transformed living. Many are unable and unwilling to share the gospel, convinced that it's not their gift. True disciples do more than the minimum, explains Hull. They choose the life and commit to bringing Jesus to the lost. They live out their beliefs and walk the walk. Submission shows the doubting world that Christ is embedded in their character. Choose the Life is a practical tool as accessible to laypeople as ministry leaders. Any church seeking life-changing significance will be challenged by this cutting-edge resource. No hand-holding here. Choose the Life shows church members how to take individual responsibility for both being discipled and discipling others. Balanced Scorecard Step-by-Step for Government and Nonprofit Agencies Paul R.
