Pacific Rim Objective Measurement Symposium (PROMS) 2012 Conference Proceeding Quan Zhang, Hong Yang, 2013-06-13 Entrusted by the Board of Management of the Pacific Rim Objective Measurement Symposium PROMS PROMS2012 is held in Jiaying China from August 6-9 2012 Over the past years PROMS has been hosted in many parts of the Pacific Rim in Singapore Malaysia Hong Kong Taiwan and Tokyo which has greatly promoted the research of and contributed to the development of Rasch Model in one way or another As early as in 1980s the ideas and concepts regarding IRT was first introduced into China by Prof Gui Shichun my Ph D supervisor and it is Prof Gui who first conducted with great success the ten year long 1990-1999 Equating Project for Matriculation English Test MET in China MET is the most influential entrance examination for higher education administered annually to over 3.3 million candidates then The Equating Project won recognition by Charles Alderson and other foreign counterparts during 1990s Academically those were Good Old Days for Chinese testing experts and psychometricians Then for certain reasons the equating practice abruptly discontinued Therefore in China nowadays the application of IRT based software like BILOG Parscale Iteman 4 and others to real testing problem solving is confined to an extremely small band of people In this sense PROMS2012 meets an important need in that it provides an excellent introduction of IRT and its application And anyone who is seriously interested in research and development in the field of psychometrics or language testing will find such a symposium and related workshops to be an excellent source of information about the application of Rasch Model PROMS2012 focuses on recent advances in objective measurement and provides an international forum on both the latest research in using Rasch measurement and non Rasch practice

Entrepreneurship Robert A. Baron, 2012 The early years of the 21st Century could well be called the decade s of the entrepreneur Entrepreneurship is an often featured topic in magazine and newspaper articles popular television shows and major films Universities have added courses departments and even schools of entrepreneurship to their catalogs and governments at all levels are competing to develop programs to encourage entrepreneurship A key reason behind this growing interest is the widely held belief supported by economic data that entrepreneurship is a powerful engine of economic growth By presenting accurate knowledge about entrepreneurship itself this book serves to convert the rising tide of interest in entrepreneurship into advice and guidance that can actually assist entrepreneurs in achieving their goals This book presents valid information concerning the factors that encourage entrepreneurship s emergence including the conditions that shape its outcomes and how it unfolds as a process This text draws on two key sources of knowledge input from entrepreneurs and the findings of empirical research obtained through systematic research As the sub title suggests however emphasis is placed on the latter whenever possible because the information individual entrepreneurs possess cannot readily serve as the basis for general principles or guidelines since it is unique to each entrepreneur By combining evidence based knowledge with the hard earned wisdom of experienced entrepreneurs this volume offers a balanced and inclusive guide useful to both current and aspiring entrepreneurs Entrepreneurship is indeed a driving force of economic growth But beyond that it is also a key mechanism through which human creativity ingenuity skill and energy are converted into tangible outcomes that can and often do change the world in ways that enhance and enrich human welfare This volume will be of particular interest to students of entrepreneurship in a broad array of fields ranging from business and management to engineering and governance Suitable for undergraduate courses and graduate programs alike this book is frontier blazing in its own right and will help those who read it be so as well

Handbook of Interview Research Jaber F. Gubrium, James A. Holstein, 2001-07-25 Interviewing has become the window on the world of experience for both researchers and professionals But as familiar as interviewing is now its seemingly straightforward methodology raises more questions than ever What is the interviewer s image of those who are being interviewed Who is the interviewer in the eyes of the respondent From where do interviewers obtain questions and respondents get the answers that they communicate in interviews How do the institutional auspices of interviewing shape interview data Drawing upon leading experts from a wide range of disciplines to address these and related questions The Handbook of Interviewing offers a comprehensive examination of the interview at the cutting edge of information technology in the context of a challenging postmodern environment Encyclopedic in its breadth the Handbook provides extensive discussions of the conceptual and methodological issues surrounding interview practice in relation to forms of interviewing new technology diverse data gathering and analytic strategies and the various ways interviewing relates to distinctive respondents The Handbook is also a story that spins a particular tale that moves from the commonly recognized individual interview as an instrument for gathering data to reflections on the interview as an integral part of the information we gather about individuals and society
