Neighbors and Other Stories Diane Oliver,2024-02-13 A bold and haunting debut story collection that follows various characters as they navigate the day to day perils of Jim Crow racism from Diane Oliver a missing figure in the canon of twentieth century African American literature with an introduction by Tayari Jones A remarkable talent far ahead of her time Diane Oliver died in 1966 at the age of 22 leaving behind these crisply told and often chilling tales that explore race and racism in 1950s and 60s America In this first and only collection by a masterful storyteller finally taking her rightful place in the canon Oliver s insightful stories reverberate into the present day There s the nightmarish The Closet on the Top Floor in which Winifred the first Black student at her newly integrated college starts to physically disappear Mint Juleps not Served Here where a couple living deep in a forest with their son go to bloody lengths to protect him Spiders Cry without Tears in which a couple Meg and Walt are confronted by prejudices and strains of interracial and extramarital love and the high tension titular story that follows a nervous older sister the night before her little brother is set to desegregate his school These are incisive and intimate portraits of African American families in everyday moments of anxiety and crisis that look at how they use agency to navigate their predicaments As much a social and historical document as it is a taut engrossing collection Neighbors is an exceptional literary feat from a crucial once lost figure of letters

Gender by the Book Julie Fette,2024-10-31 Gender by the Book investigates the gender representations that French children s literature transmits to readers today Using an interdisciplinary mixed methods approach this book grounds its literary analysis in a sociohistorical examination of three key institutions libraries book clubs and subscription magazines that circulate reading material to children It shows how French policies cultural beliefs and market forces influence the content of children s literature including tensions between State support for unprofitable artistic endeavors and a belief in children s right to high quality products on the one hand and suspicion of activism as anathema to creativity and fear of losing boy readers on the other In addition the notion of universalism which asserts that equality is best achieved when society is blind to differences thwarts a diverse and equitable array of literary representations Nevertheless conditions are favorable for 21st century French children s publishers to offer a robust body of richly entertaining egalitarian literature for children This title is freely available as open access thanks to generous support from the Fondren Library at Rice University John: An Immigrant True Story Edward A.
