Taking the Charter to Court Debra M. McAllister, 1998      The Supreme Court Law Review, 2004      The Practical Guide to Canadian Legal Research Nancy McCormack, John Papadopoulos, Catherine Anne Cotter, 2010      The Charter at Twenty Debra M. McAllister, Adam M. Dodek, 2002      Practitioner's Handbook on International Arbitration and Mediation - Third Edition Richard Chernick, Daniel M. Kolkey, Barbara Reeves Neal, 2012-04-01

The Practitioner's Handbook on International Arbitration and Mediation 3rd Edition is a unique work with each chapter written by a well known practitioner and expert in the field. It covers each step of the international arbitration and mediation process and offers separate chapters that summarize the laws of leading arbitral venues. This Handbook is intended to make the reader into a better practitioner or arbitrator/mediator. Moreover, each chapter has been written to provide practical advice and guidance. Unlike many works with multiple authors, this work is not simply a collection of essays on a general subject. This book is a unified work with cross references among the chapters and a consistent format throughout. The Practitioner's Handbook is divided into three parts. Part One describes in detail each step of the international arbitration process and offers tips. Part Two deals with each step and facet of an international mediation. Each of these chapters is filled with Practitioners' Expert Commentary. Part Three summarizes the laws of leading arbitral jurisdictions like Hong Kong, England, Switzerland, and France. These chapters give you detailed guidance on the laws governing international arbitration in that particular jurisdiction. As a result, the chapters in Part Three are a bit more technical as the authors realized that the reader would need citations to and commentary on the local arbitration statutes and rules. The CD ROM that accompanies this Work contains relevant original source material that is germane to the text. A review of the table of contents of the material contained on the CD ROM will acquaint you with the range of material covered.

This book together with a complementary volume Religion in Consumer Society focuses on religion, neoliberalism, and consumer society, offering an overview of an emerging field of research in the study of contemporary religion. Claiming that we are entering a new phase of state-religion relations, the editors examine how this is historically anchored in modernity but affected by neoliberalization and globalization of society and social life. Seemingly distant developments such as marketization and commoditization of religion as well as legalization and securitization of social conflicts are transforming historical expressions of religion and religiosity, yet these changes are seldom if ever understood as forming a coherent structured and systemic ensemble. Religion in the Neoliberal Age includes an extensive introduction framing the research area and linking it to existing scholarship before looking at four key issues:

1. How changes in state structures have empowered new modes of religious activity in welfare production and the delivery of a range of state services
2. How are religion-state relations transforming under the pressures of globalization and neoliberalism 3 How historical churches and their administrations are undergoing change due to structural changes in society and what new forms of religious body are emerging 4 How have law and security become new areas for solving religious conflicts Outlining changes in both the political institutional and cultural spheres the contributors offer an international overview of developments in different countries and state of the art representation of religion in the new global political economy Resources in Education ,2001 *A Summary of the Law and Practice Relating to Attorneys, General and Special ...
