Cultivating Teen Faith Richard R. Osmer, Katherine M. Douglass, 2018-10-25 What are churches doing to form the faith of their young people Many church denominations that practice infant baptism offer confirmation or an equivalent ministry when children reach adolescence and enter a new phase of spiritual growth but all churches regardless of tradition wrestle with how to get young adults to actively join the church What really works In this book twelve authors draw on a three year study of more than three thousand US congregations across five denominations United Methodist Church African Methodist Episcopal Church Episcopal Church Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and Presbyterian Church USA to answer this pressing question They tell stories of excellent and innovative confirmation programs that work and that show above all what good discipleship with young people looks like Youth pastors church leaders and parents alike will benefit from the practices and new ways of teaching presented here that have proven helpful in forming and enhancing the faith of youth Contributors Joy L Arroyo Reginald Blount Kenda Creasy Dean Katherine M Douglass Terri Martinson Elton Lisa Kimball Gordon S knows that more and more young people are eager to make a difference in the world When students participate in short term missions service and justice causes parents and youth leaders hope these experiences will lead to real transformation But research shows that our efforts don't always stick If we truly want short term work to translate into long term change leaders and students must spend more time before during and after service projects preparing for and processing their experiences The sessions in this leader's guide will help you create experiences that stick both for the students you take and the communities you serve This guidebook offers a host of practical and field tested exercises for each phase of your experience whether it's a half day local service project or a two week trip overseas Participants will engage in hands on experiences to gain new insights about themselves their relationship with God their teammates and the world we're called to love and serve Each of these steps is a catalyst in helping students apply what they have learned in the field to their own lives back at home Also included are ideas to help get parents and the whole church engaged in service together A companion student journal is also available to boost the potential for personal application throughout the journey Making Sense of Generation Y

Sara B. Savage, Sylvia Collins-Mayo, Bob Mayo, 2011-01-25 For Generation Y born after 1982 relationships happen over the Internet and music marks their territory How does this generation think about the world What does their spirituality look like And what implications does this have for the Church This book addresses the need for the Church to reconnect and communicate with young people Networks for Faith Formation Steve Emery-Wright, Ed Mackenzie, 2017-05-19 The spiritual formation of young people can often focus on encouraging their personal spiritual practices and perhaps linking them to a local youth group While both are important Networks for Faith Formation argues that a far wider set of relationships are needed to help faith grow The aim of Networks for Faith Formation is to describe and commend eight key networks relational bonds that nurture and nourish faith The eight networks are bedroom practices personal faith church family friends mentors small groups events and gatherings and mission and service The description of each network draws on biblical studies practical theology and the social sciences and practical ideas for helping young people engage with such networks are included throughout the book In a context where some overlook the complexity of spiritual formation Networks for Faith Formation is an important resource for church leaders youth ministers and parents seeking to help young people grow in faith Since relational bonds are key for people of any age it can also help all within the church understand the need for relationships in spiritual growth
