Yow, 2005-04-07 Presents chapters on interviewing skills ethics and interpersonal relationship Challenging Images of Women in the Media Theresa Carilli, Jane Campbell, 2012-07-13 Challenging Images of Women and the Media Reinventing Women's Lives edited by Theresa Carilli and Jane Campbell collects fifteen articles addressing the status of women through an examination of depictions of women in the media This in depth study shows how mixed messages from the media muddle attempts at breaking the glass screen causing women to constantly question their role in global culture With cake ads followed by diet commercials the media's depiction of women is both confusing and contradictory While more and more women have begun to contribute to the media as respected anchors talk show hosts and commentators these portrayals are often counteracted by music videos and reality television shows such as Jersey Shore This collection seeks to analyze these depictions and their effects on women and culture The contributors to this anthology hail from such diverse locations as Japan Australia Pakistan India China Bulgaria and the United States With this global focus Challenging Images of Women in the Media scrutinizes issues of race ethnicity class and sexuality through a study of gendered media portrayals By challenging the status quo of media images the contributors to this essential volume invite a dialogue about women's lives

Writing Beyond the Silence Libera Università dell'Autobiografia, 2015-04-20 This methodological Manual that is the final product of the Project Writing beyond the Silence Promoting autobiographical competences to help survivors of gender violence co funded by the European Commission within the framework of the Daphne III program addresses public organizations and institutions that wish to use the autobiographical approach in the supporting and listening work they do by adopting and implementing the good practices produced by the Project The main goal of the Manual is to be a tool for educators and trainers for the counselors who work in facilities that provide support to women who have experienced violence The Manual presents methods that may be further developed and fine tuned but they undoubtedly are a valid starting point for the introduction of new practices based on the real experience of all those who for a long time have been working with skills and sensitivity in the helping professions

Homeless Joshua D. Phillips, 2016-10-04 A half century after the War on Poverty of Lyndon Johnson poverty rates remain unchanged Scholars have advanced polarized theories about the causes of poverty as politicians have debated how or if to fund welfare programs Yet little research has been conducted where the poor are provided a platform to speak on their own behalf While it is important to understand how economic systems affect the homeless it is equally important to learn about the day to day realities faced by those who rely on public policies for survival Drawing on the author's experience working in the homeless community this book presents some of their stories of loss abuse addiction and marginalization through interviews observations and ethnographic research

Gender, Race, and Social Identity in American Politics Lori L. Montalbano, 2019-08-26 Gender Race and Social Identity in American Politics The Past and Future of Political Access explores the ways in which cultural expression is represented in American politics as it intersects with issues of gender race and the construction of social identity Specifically this body of work examines how representations in the media and larger culture can establish and diminish the status of diverse communities of American politicians Contributors analyze the rhetorical and performative changes that have occurred in America as it has shifted politically from growing acceptance and tolerance to an obscure and often hostile conservative ideology This book contributes to the growing dialogue surrounding American politics by citing specific cases of gender and race based infringements of the current political system as purported by media and party players This book will be especially useful to scholars of political science media studies gender studies and critical race studies

Learning from Victims' Family Narratives Morag C. Kennedy, 2025-07-08 Offering a new perspective on intimate partner abuse and homicide this book recognises the families of victims as legitimate agents of knowledge in terms of the harm experienced by their family members and considers how this harm is extended to the families themselves Examining harm from both an offline and online point of view the book explains the multipurpose roles of offline and online harm and how these roles do not occur in isolation in terms of the victims and families abusive experiences In doing so it demonstrates the range of harm experienced in the context of intimate partner abuse and homicide and outlines the overlapping nature of offline and online harm without prioritising one form of harm over the other instead considering the harm experienced as a continuum Providing theoretical and empirical contributions that are largely absent from existing victimology and harm literature Learning from Victims Family Narratives The Impact of Offline and Online Harm in Cases of Intimate Partner Homicide will be of interest to scholars researchers students and practitioners exploring the modern conceptualisation of harm and its impact on individuals beyond the victim and perpetrator

Stories, Storytellers, and Storytelling Tom Vine, Sarah Richards, 2022-12-15 This book advances social scientific interest in a field long dominated by the humanities stories and storytelling Stories are a whole lot more than entertainment oral narratives novels films and immersive video games all form part of the sociocultural discourses which we are enmeshed in and use to co construct our beliefs about the world around us Young children use them to learn about the world beyond their immediate sensory experience and even in an era of interactive electronic media the bedtime story remains a cherished part of most children s daily routine Storytelling is thus the first abstract formal learning method we encounter as human beings It is also probably transcultural perhaps even an immanent part of the human condition Narratives are at heart sequences of events and presuppose and reinforce particular cause and effect relationships Inevitably they also construct unconscious biases prejudices and discriminatory attitudes Storying a term we use in this book to encompass stories storytellers and storytelling is complex and this book seeks to make sense of it

Embodied Entanglements: Gender, Identity, and the Corporeal in Asia Zawiszová, Halina, Strafella, Giorgio, Lavička, Martin, Ideas on the human body gender and identity lie at the core of many socio political issues and cultural trends in Asia today while also inspiring innovative research on artistic expression from Asia's past. By focusing on socio political as well as cultural issues from diverse geographical and historical contexts this book highlights complex links and interactions that bind these three interpretative axes. How do bodies become conduits for the expression and negotiation of gender and other identities? What do the lived experiences of women and LGBTQ people in Asia reveal about biopolitics, normative expectations and value systems in different societies? How does art reflect the representation and fashioning of gendered bodies and ambiguous identities? Cutting across the quotidian and the avant garde, activism and art, violence and pleasure as well as the intimate and the political, this book sheds new light on Asian cultures and societies spanning India, Indonesia, Japan, mainland China, Taiwan and Thailand, affirming thus the region's significance in broader debates on biopolitics, gender and human dignity.

Enhancing Resilience in Survivors of Family Violence Kim Anderson, 2009-10-26. This book will help change the paradigm that has gripped the mental health professions for so long and will be a positive boost for those who know there must be a better and more affirmative way to do this important work. Dennis Saleebey, DSW, Professor Emeritus, School of Social Welfare, University of Kansas. In this book Kim Anderson demonstrates the extent to which individuals with histories of family violence can have self-correcting tendencies that promote their positive adaptation in overcoming trauma. These strengths, which often go unrecognized or underappreciated, can be used for healing. This book assists mental health practitioners in identifying, supporting and validating the resilient capacities of their clients. Anderson provides new conceptual frameworks and clinical strategies for integrating resilience-oriented and strengths-based treatment with survivors of family violence. The book discusses resilience in survivors of childhood incest, children of battered women and individuals formerly in violent domestic relationships. Key topics discussed: Dynamics and consequences of family oppression and violence. The power of recovery and posttraumatic growth. Assessments that capture client strengths, resilience and acts of resistance. Spirituality, making meaning of one's trauma and purpose in life. This book challenges the premise that survivors who have suffered from family violence will remain wounded throughout life. Anderson underscores the resourcefulness of clients and illuminates the many ways people prevail during and in the aftermath of family violence Violence against Women in Families and Relationships Eve S. Buzawa, Evan Stark, 2009-06-08 This comprehensive overview of domestic violence against women and children in America covers the services meant to combat it the legal approaches to prosecuting it the public s attitudes toward it and the successes and failures of systems meant to address it The fight to end domestic violence consists of community based services for battered women laws and policies to combat the problem a broad spectrum of frequently innovative programs to protect or otherwise support abused women and children a dramatic shift in media portrayals of violence against women and a growing public critique of unacceptable forms of power and control in relationships These volumes offer another weapon in that battle Violence against Women in Families and Relationships takes stock of all of the ways in which legislation programs and services and even public attitudes have impacted victims offenders and communities over the last few decades Contributors pay special attention to how race class and cultural differences affect the experience of abuse They explore the efficacy of interventions and they provide compelling real life examples to illustrate issues and challenges Our society has made an enormous investment in stopping abuse in families and relationships but numerous questions still remain Many of those questions are answered in these pages as experts uncover the realities of domestic violence and the toll it takes on families individuals communities and society at large Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation

Pandemics, Publics, and Narrative Mark Davis, Davina Lohm, 2020-03-01 This book examines how the general public experienced the 2009 H1N1 influenza virus outbreak by bringing together stories about individuals perception of their illness as well as reflections on news vaccination social isolation and other infection control measures Providing unprecedented insight into the lives of ordinary people faced with the specter of a potentially lethal virus and drawing on currents in sociocultural scholarship of narrative illness narrative and narrative medicine the book develops a novel public health narrative approach of interest to health communicators and researchers across the social and health sciences
