Tales of the Canadian North Frank Oppel, 1984 A collection of stories both fact and fiction set in the Canadian North from the turn of the century Includes vintage photographs and drawings Canadian North Life Nakoa Rainfall, AI, 2025-02-20 Canadian North Life explores the remarkable ability of Northern Canadian communities to thrive in a challenging environment emphasizing their adaptation community practices and social patterns It argues that their enduring success stems from adaptability innovation and strong social bonds challenging the perception of the North as merely a resource base The book highlights the ingenuity of its people and their deep understanding of the environment exemplified by traditional technologies and resource management strategies This book offers a historical overview of pre colonial colonial and post colonial periods examining external forces impact on indigenous systems It analyzes community structures kinship networks and governance models illustrating the importance of social cohesion Using ethnographic research and oral histories the book prioritizes indigenous perspectives offering an alternative to top down approaches to understanding Northern development The book progresses systematically beginning with the diverse environments and indigenous cultures of Northern Canada It then explores key adaptive strategies and the role of cultural practices in transmitting knowledge and reinforcing identity Contemporary challenges like climate change and resource development are examined through case studies demonstrating how historical and cultural factors influence resilience and sustainability in the Canadian North

Canada and the Idea of North Sherrill E Grace, 2002-04-15 Canada and the Idea of North examines the ways in which Canadians have defined themselves as a northern people in their literature art music drama history geography politics and popular culture From the Franklin Mystery to the comic book superheroine Nelvana Glenn Gould s documentaries the paintings of Lawren Harris and Molson beer ads the idea of the north has been central to the Canadian imagination Sherrill Grace argues that Canadians have always used ideas of Canada as North to promote a distinct national identity and national unity In a penultimate chapter The North Writes Back Grace presents newly emerging northern voices and shows how they view the long tradition of representing the North by southern activists artists and scholars With the recent creation of Nunavut increasing concern about northern ecosystems and social challenges and renewed attention to Canada s role as a circumpolar nation Canada and the Idea of North shows that nordicity still plays an urgent and central role in Canada at the start of the twenty first century Woman's Way Through Unknown Labrador Mina Benson Hubbard, Sherrill E Grace, 2004-05-19 In 1903 Hubbard s husband Leonidas starved to death on his cartographic and ethnographic expedition to Labrador Hubbard decided to complete her husband s work becoming a skilled explorer and cartographer in her own right She set out in July 1905 and with the help of George Elson a M tis guide who had been employed by her husband on the original trip and three other guides completed her expedition in record time with significant results including completing the first accurate map of the Labrador river system thus correcting the earlier map that had led to her husband s death Her original photographs and the map are reproduced in this volume Native Americans and Sport in North America C. King, 2007-11-07 This text offers a considerate and critical account of the Native American sporting experience It challenges popular images of indigenous athletes and athletics exploring social categories particularly gender and race and their implications Boys' and Girls' Bookshelf: Historic tales and golden deeds (part 1-2) , 1912 The Independent William Livingston, 1913 Literature for Young Adults Joan L. Knickerbocker, 2017-03-15 Young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives and the books discussed throughout Literature for Young Adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read It explores a great variety of works genres and formats but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes protagonists and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers It also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they re reading and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs In addition to traditional genre chapters Literature for Young Adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction poetry short stories and drama cover art picture books illustrated literature and graphic novels and film It recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with The book s discussion of literary language including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books It will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading Canada North of Fifty Six Degrees Edward Martin Kindle, 1928 Northern Experience and the Myths of Canadian Culture Renée Hulan, 2002-03-26 By investigating mutually dependent categories of identity in literature that depicts northern peoples and places Hulan provides a descriptive account of representative genres in which the north figures as a central theme including autobiography adventure narrative ethnography fiction poetry and travel writing She considers each of these diverse genres in terms of the way it explains the cultural identity of a nation formed from the settlement of immigrant peoples on the lands of dispossessed indigenous peoples Reading against the background of contemporary ethnographic literary and cultural theory Hulan maintains that the collective Canadian identity idealized in many works representing the north does not occur naturally but is artificially constructed in terms of characteristics inflected by historically contingent ideas of gender and race such as self sufficiency independence and endurance and that these characteristics are evoked to justify the nationhood of the Canadian state Bob Henderson's Trails and Tales 4-Book Bundle Bob Henderson, 2016-05-30 Hit the trails with naturalist and raconteur Bob Henderson in this four book bundle From folklore to heritage with a hefty dose of the Scandinavian outdoor living ethos of friluftsliv Henderson fires the imagination urging Ontarians to reignite their relationship with nature Includes Every Trail Has a Story More Trails More Tales Nature First Pike s Portage Folktales and Fairy Tales Anne E.
