

A COUNTRY LOST FOR A LOVE.

The destiny of nations like those of individuals, are often decided by circumstances that of themselves appear but the most trivial in character, as the course of an important river is changed by a swirling obstacle to its way. And when this has occurred to divert from the natural path, in history, it is not to assume that the majority of cases the immediate cause may be traced to the influence, as often all counselling, rather "under power." The destiny of civilisation is therefore but

Atlantic Thomas Wentworth Higginson,1899 Hawthorne in his Wonder Book has described the beautiful Greek myths and traditions but no one has yet made similar use of the wondrous tales that gathered for more than a thousand years about the islands of the Atlantic deep Although they are a part of the mythical period of American history these hazy legends were altogether disdained by the earlier historians indeed George Bancroft made it a matter of actual pride that the beginning of the American annals was bare and literal But in truth no national history has been less prosaic as to its earlier traditions because every visitor had to cross the sea to reach it and the sea has always been by the mystery of its horizon the fury of its storms and the variableness of the atmosphere above it the foreordained land of romance Thomas Wentworth Higginson

The House of Cariboo, and Other Tales from Arcadia A. Paul Gardiner,2023-10-29 In The House of Cariboo and Other Tales from Arcadia A Paul Gardiner weaves a rich tapestry of narratives that explore the intersection of myth history and the human experience Set against the backdrop of Arcadia these tales illuminate the complexities of life in a land steeped in folklore and natural beauty Gardiner s lyrical prose and evocative imagery invite readers into a world where the boundaries between reality and imagination blur reflecting the literary traditions of magical realism and regional storytelling The collection not only showcases the lush landscapes of Arcadia but also highlights the intricate relationships among its inhabitants drawing readers into deep emotional connections with its characters and themes A Paul Gardiner a notable figure in contemporary literature has long been captivated by the stories of his ancestors and the natural world His upbringing in the diverse landscapes of Canada has greatly influenced his writing imbuing his stories with a sense of place that resonates deeply with readers Gardiner s academic background in anthropology and literature allows him to explore cultural narratives in a profound way offering insights into the lives and struggles of the characters that inhabit his stories revealing universal truths through their unique lenses For readers seeking a profound literary experience that melds the enchantment of fairy tales with the gritty realities of life The House of Cariboo and Other Tales from Arcadia is an essential addition to their collection Gardiner's masterful storytelling will captivate those who revel in exploring the nuances of human emotions and relationships through beautifully crafted narratives This collection speaks not only to the heart but also to the intellect making it a rewarding read for any literature enthusiast

Children of Aataentsic Bruce G. Trigger, 1988-09-01 Trigger's work integrates insights from archaeology history ethnology linguistics and geography This wide knowledge allows him to show that far from being a static prehistoric society quickly torn apart by European contact and the fur trade almost every facet of Iroquoian culture had undergone significant change in the centuries preceding European contact He argues convincingly that the European impact upon native cultures cannot be correctly assessed unless the nature and extent of precontact change is understood His study not only stands Euro American stereotypes and fictions on their heads but forcefully and consistently interprets European and Indian actions thoughts and motives from the perspective of the Huron culture The Children of Aataentsic revises widely accepted interpretations of Indian behaviour and challenges cherished myths about the actions of some celebrated Europeans during the heroic age of Canadian history In a new preface Trigger describes and evaluates contemporary controversies over the ethnohistory of eastern Canada

Beyond the Headlands: Tales of Cape MD Shar, 2025-04-23 Beyond the Headlands Tales of Cape sets out as a heartfelt tribute to the world's capes not just as geographic formations but as thresholds of adventure history and the human spirit Through vivid storytelling the author invites readers to stand at the edge of continents and imagination where land meets the restless sea These capes are portrayed as both real and symbolic boundaries shaping maritime history inspiring folklore and challenging those who dare to reach their edges With every chapter readers travel to a different cape each one revealing its distinct natural character cultural resonance and historical importance Themes of exploration resilience and humanity's relationship with nature are woven throughout celebrating the courage of seafarers and the wisdom of indigenous communities who lived close to these dramatic landscapes Whether it's the treacherous waters of Cape Horn or the storied beauty of Cape Cod each tale unfolds like a map of the human condition marked by awe risk and reverence for the Earth's wonders The book is also a quiet call for conservation reminding us that these iconic headlands face modern threats The stories are not just reflections of the past but reminders of what could be lost if we fail to care Beyond the Headlands offers more than just a journey it invites readers to feel the salt wind see through the eyes of those who dared and perhaps even dream of the unknown that still lies ahead It's a soulful celebration of the places where the world seems to pause and then with courage move forward      Hants & Isle of Wight Folk Tales Michael O'Leary,2011-11-30 These beautifully told folk tales brought vividly to life by Marcel O Leary's graphic illustrations have been collected by the author over his years of working as a greenkeeper gardener teacher and storyteller in Hampshire Many are published here for the first time and others have evolved through countless retellings in Hampshire schools festivals f tes and events Featuring dark tales of murderous kings and commoners wild women screaming skulls galloping plague coaches dragons dancing themselves to death giants and wandering corpses combined with humorous stories and evocative tales of love lust and passion this book takes the reader beyond the written page and reveals the wonders that lie within the Hampshire landscape      The War of 1812: The True Story ,      Boys' and Girls' Bookshelf: Historic tales and golden deeds (part 1-2) ,1912      Engineering News-record ,1920      Story of the World #2 Middle Ages Susan Wise Bauer,2007-03-27 Presents a history of the ancient world from 6000 B C to 400 A D      The Mentor, the Story of America in Pictures: The Contest for North America Albert Bushnell Hart,2020-08-03 Reproduction of the original The Mentor the Story of America in Pictures The Contest for North America by Albert Bushnell Hart
