The Kalacakra, or wheel of time tantra, likely entered Indian Mahayana Buddhism around the tenth century. authoritative Tibetan exposition of this important text composed in the fifteenth century by Khedrup Norsang Gyatso tutor to the Second Dalai Lama One of the central projects of Kalacakra literature is a detailed correlation between the human body and the external universe In working out this complex correspondence the Kalacakra texts present an amazingly detailed theory of cosmology and astronomy especially about the movements of the various celestial bodies The Kalacakra tantra is also a highly complex system of Buddhist theory and practice that employs vital bodily energies deep meditative mental states and a penetrative focus on subtle points within the body's key energy conduits known as channels Ornament of Stainless Light addresses all these topics elaborating on the external universe the inner world of the individual the Kalacakra initiation rites and the tantric stages of generation and completion all in a highly readable English translation Singer of the Land of Snows Rachel H. Pang, 2024-03-13 The singular role of Shabkar in the development of the idea of Tibet Shabkar 1781-1851 the Singer of the Land of Snows was a renowned yogi and poet who through his autobiography and songs developed a vision of Tibet as a Buddhist imagined community By incorporating vernacular literature providing a narrative mapping of the Tibetan plateau reviving and adapting the legend of Tibetans as Avalokiteśvara's chosen people and promoting shared Buddhist values and practices Shabkar's concept of Tibet opened up the discursive space for the articulation of modern forms of Tibetan nationalism Employing analytical lenses of cultural nationalism and literary studies Rachel Pang explores the indigenous epistemologies of identity community and territory that predate contemporary state-centric definitions of nation and nationalism in Tibet and provides the definitive treatment of this foundational figure

Cuevas, 2008-04-02 In Travels in the Netherworld Bryan J Cuevas examines a fascinating but little known genre of Tibetan narrative literature about the d lok ordinary men and women who claim to have died traveled through hell and then returned from the afterlife These narratives enjoy audiences ranging from the most sophisticated monastic scholars to pious townsfolk villagers and nomads Their accounts emphasize the universal Buddhist principles of impermanence and worldly suffering the fluctuations of karma and the feasibility of obtaining a favorable rebirth through virtue and merit Providing a clear detailed analysis of four vivid return from death tales including the stories of a Tibetan housewife a lama a young noble woman and a Buddhist monk Cuevas argues that these narratives express ideas about death and the afterlife that held wide currency among all classes of faithful Buddhists in Tibet Relying on a diversity of traditional Tibetan sources Buddhist canonical scriptures scholastic textbooks ritual and meditation manuals and medical treatises in addition to the d lok works themselves Cuevas surveys a broad range of popular Tibetan Buddhist ideas about death and dying He explores beliefs about the vulnerability of the soul and its journey beyond death karmic retribution and the terrors of hell the nature of demons and demonic possession ghosts and reanimated corpses Cuevas argues that these extraordinary accounts exhibit flexibility between social and religious categories that are conventionally polarized and concludes that contrary to the accepted wisdom such rigid divisions as elite and folk monastic and lay religion are not sufficiently representative of traditional Tibetan Buddhism on the ground This study offers innovative perspectives on popular religion in Tibet and fills a gap in an important field of Tibetan literature
