Southern Hunting in Black and White Stuart A. Marks,1991 For many Southern men living in or close to rural landscapes hunting is a passion But it is not a timeless activity in a cultural void Whether pursuers of fox or raccoon deer or rabbits quail or dove Southern hunters reveal for Stuart Marks complex patterns of male bonding social status and relationships with nature Marks who has written two outstanding books on hunting in Africa was born and has long lived in the South Examining Southern hunting from frontier times through the antebellum era to the present day he shows it to be a litmus test of rural identity Drawing on the latest anthropological theory statistical sources extensive interviews and historical research Marks has crafted a multifaceted account of Southern hunting Relations of race property gender and region appear in fresh guises in this innovative and intriguing study The portrayal of the contemporary state of hunting is especially interesting revealing both the continuities with the past and the new pressures on the sport Virginia Quarterly Review

Food and Feast in Modern Outlaw Tales Alexander L. Kaufman,Penny Vlagopoulos,2019-03-04 This collection of scholarly essays presents new work from an emerging line of inquiry modern outlaw narratives and the textual and cultural relevance of food and feasting Food its preparation and its consumption is presented in outlaw narratives as central points of human interaction community conflict and fellowship Feast scenes perform a wide variety of functions serving as cultural repositories of manners and behaviors catalysts for adventure or moments of regrouping and redirecting narratives The book argues that modern outlaw narratives illuminate a potent cross cultural need for freedom solidarity and justice and it examines ways in which food and feasting are often used to legitimate difference create discord and manipulate power dynamics Traveller Tales of China Hezekiah Butterworth,1901 Saturday Review ,1953 The Tales of Tchekhov: The witch, and other stories Anton Pavlovich Chekhov,1918 From Ridgetops To Riverbottoms Sam Venable,2025-03-14 From Ridgetops to Riverbottoms takes the reader on a journey down the many winding roads of the outdoor experience in Tennessee Such a journey requires a seasoned guide and there can be no better one than journalist Sam Venable who has written about the woods and waters of his native state for the past twenty five years For Venable the outdoor world is meant to be enjoyed Whether he is casting popping bugs to bluegills during the frenzy of a willow fly hatch lying motionless on his back in muddy corn stubble as mallards warily circle his decoys savoring the sounds and scents of a moonlit summer night when smallmouth bass are on the prowl or issuing plaintive love calls to an amorous wild turkey gobbler the author s fascination with outdoor recreation never diminishes And as the reader quickly finds this fascination is contagious Along with the lightheartedness and rich humor in these pages there is an unmistakable love of the land and a deep concern for the endangered bond between nature and humankind Like the trout in the stream or the deer in the forest Venable suggests we are as much a product of the land as any living creature And what affects one for better or worse ultimately affects all Antiquarian Bookman ,1967
