The Haskins Society Journal 34 Person William North, Contributor Laura E Wangerin, 2024-10-08 Essays illuminating a wide range of topics from Cistercian preachers and the geography of purgatory to royal and ecclesiastical justice and power This volume continues the Society's commitment to historical and interdisciplinary research from the early and central Middle Ages and demonstrates its belief that the close interrogation of primary documents yields new insights into or important recalibrations of our understanding of the past It begins by surveying the works of the Greek Fathers rendered into Latin in late antiquity exploring their reception and deployment in England before the conquest The twelfth century occupies a central place in this volume Four papers offer close readings or re readings of key authors or sources one reconstructs William of Malmesbury's journeys in the mid 1130s another offers a new reading of two of Aelred of Rievaulx's royal biographies a third considers the influence of Henry of Marcy on Herbert of Clairvaux's Liber visionum et miraculorum Clarevallensium and a fourth examines the Historia Gaufredi Ducis and its outsized impact on the history of the ritual of dubbing Two papers address royal and ecclesiastical justice in mid thirteenth century France through meticulous work with archival sources they respectively consider the case of Geoffroy de Milly and limits of sovereign authority and enquetes as a technique of power Further topics include the emerging geography of purgatory in the imagination of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries the different dimensions of medieval institutional culture as seen in the intersection of earthly and angelic power in Angevin England placed in dialogue with American medieval historiography and the evolving historiographical treatment of men of the Church employed as trusted administrators by Italian communes The volume concludes with two essays on significant moments in the history of American medieval studies examinations of the publication history of Evelyn Faye Wilson's Stella Maris of John of Garland and of the life scholarship and legacy of Bennett David Hill round out the volume Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2004

How, When and Why did Bede Write his Ecclesiastical History? Richard Shaw, 2022-02-17 Bede's Ecclesiastical History is our main source for early Christian Anglo Saxon England but how was it written When And why Scholars have spent much of the last half century investigating the latter question the why This new study is the first to systematically consider the how and the when Richard Shaw shows that rather than producing the History at a single point in 731 Bede was working on it for as much as twenty years from c 715 to just before his death in 735 Unpacking and extending the period of composition of Bede's best known book makes sense of the complicated and contradictory evidence for its purposes The work did not have one context but several each with its own distinct constructed audiences Thus the History was not written for a single purpose to the exclusion of all others Nor was it simply written for a variety of reasons It was written over time quite a lot of time and as the world changed during that time so too did Bede's reasons for writing the intentions he sought to pursue and the patrons he hoped to please or to placate
